ITEM 10. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM POLICY ON SOD BUSTING.

Staff received an application for land treatment cost-share on terraces to be put on land being converted from pasture to crop land. Current NRD policy doesn’t prohibit approval of land treatment program cost-share on sod busted land. The Nebraska Natural Resources Commission’s policy is to let each NRD decide whether or not to cost-share in these cases. Staff recommended that the board of directors establish a policy of not allowing land treatment cost-share on land to be sod busted.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Teegerstrom that the Upper Big Blue NRD adopt a policy of not providing land treatment program cost-share on land being, or proposed to be, “sod busted,” and that the policy become effective upon approval by the board of directors. The motion failed.

AYE: Friesen, Jackson
NAY: Austin, Brown, Bruns, Buller, Houdersheldt, Hultman, Luebbe, Regier, Volkmer, Hansen

ITEM 11. DAVID CITY NORTHWEST DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENT PROJECT.

In December 1999, David City and Butler County requested engineering assistance to prepare an engineering report to support grant applications. The Upper Big Blue NRD has requested that Lower Platte North NRD take a position on this request before Upper Big Blue takes any action. The project area overlaps both the Upper Big Blue and Lower Platte North NRDs. A majority of the area is in the Lower Platte North NRD. The Lower Platte North NRD’s Project Committee has considered the request and their Board of Directors is scheduled to take action this month.

ITEM 12. SOUTHEAST COMMUNITY COLLEGE CONSTRUCTION INSPECTION.

The Upper Big Blue NRD has completed final design of the storm water drainage improvement project at the Southeast Community College (SECC) in Milford. The SECC has requested that the NRD staff provide inspection during construction to ensure quality control. The SECC has agreed to reimburse the district for payroll, overhead and direct expenses, which are estimated at $12,000.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue NRD staff is authorized to provide inspection during construction of the Southeast Community College storm water drainage improvement project, provided that the Southeast Community College reimburses the NRD for payroll, overhead and direct expenses. We approved the motion.

AYE: Austin, Brown, Bruns, Buller, Friesen, Houdersheldt, Hultman, Jackson, Luebbe, Regier, ITEM 13. BIG BLUE RIVER PHASE OF SEWARD FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECT.

The district has received verbal confirmation from FEMA that the buyout portion of the Big Blue River phase of the Seward Flood Hazard Mitigation Project is being authorized to proceed. Written confirmation is expected soon. The Seward city administrator has confirmed that the City of Seward is ready to proceed when written notice is received.

FEMA has requested that the Big Blue River phase be done in two parts. First the buyout of the flood prone dwellings and businesses and second the flood protection levee. The buyout portion is estimated to cost $700,000. The district and city shares would each be $87,500 and FEMA’s share would be $525,000 (75% cost-share). Staff will prepare an Interlocal Agreement between the City of Seward and Upper Big Blue NRD for consideration when written notice is received.

ITEM 14. WATERSHED STUDY FOR INDIAN CREEK PROJECT.

In September 1995, Olsson Associates completed a reconnaissance study of possible dam and reservoir sites in the Indian Creek watershed near Cordova. The site selected for the dam is located approximately one mile west of Cordova in Section 25, Township 9 North, Range 1 West in York County. The Olsson study also considered preliminary technical feasibility of constructing a dam and reservoir at the selected site and found that the site is suitable and the project feasible at the reconnaissance level.

In 1996 the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors authorized staff to conduct a detailed study of watershed runoff and water quality. The study was also to estimate the expected reservoir water quality and suitability for fishery and recreation. During 1997 and 1998 the NRD staff collected daily rainfall, runoff, and water quality data. The study was completed in January 2000.

Bitner reviewed results of the study which show that it will take five to seven years for the reservoir to establish a stable storage and lake area for recreation. The study also showed that Indian Creek runoff water quality is very similar to that of other watersheds in the Upper Big Blue NRD. Most of the time the reservoir dissolved oxygen concentration is expected to vary between six parts per million and 10 parts per million. This range of dissolved oxygen concentration is considered adequate for bass, blue gill and catfish. Pesticide concentrations in the runoff are generally below the aquatic life MCLs; however, Atrazine concentrations do generally exceed the aquatic life MCL in the spring after corn planting.

Staff recommends that the district proceed with a detailed feasibility study and grant application on the Indian Creek Project if the board of directors believe the project is financially feasible, is consistent with the district’s long range goals and objectives, and has public support.

ITEM 15. REPORT OF BUDGET, PLANNING & LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Regier reported that the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee met on February 8, 2000 and presented the committee’s report.

ITEM 16. LEGISLATION.

Regier reported that the general manager reviewed the current legislation that the Board has an interest in with the committee.

ITEM 16. PLATTE RIVER REGULATION AND COHYST.

ITEM 16a. TARGET FLOWS.

Turnbull reviewed the US Fish and Wildlife Service target flows at the Grand Island gage on the Platte River. He also reviewed the flows that the Fish and Wildlife Service have stated in their studies are necessary for habitat and species protection of the Whooping Crane, Least Tern, and Piping Plover. The two flow requirements are not the same. He also reviewed the existing instream flow water rights held by the Central Platte NRD and the Game and Parks Commission, which are less than either the target flows or endangered species protection flows. The Nebraska New Depletions Plan that is currently in negotiation will require groundwater to be managed to meet some minimum flows. Committee members again stated that the NRDs should not regulate water to meet flow requirements of species, such as the sandhill cranes, which are not on the endangered list. The Committee believes that if the wildlife interests want to have higher flows in the river for other species habitat needs that those interests should use the Environmental Account in Lake McConaughy for such purposes. Turnbull also pointed out that the target flows are higher than the long term historic flows and that regulations to achieve such higher flows should not be adopted either.

ITEM 16b. COHYST.

Bitner reviewed the COHYST study with the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee. The overall direction of the basin wide computer modeling effort has progressed from a very detailed approach to a more general effort. The study area across Nebraska is much too large for any kind of meaningful detail in groundwater modeling. The COHYST study appears to be developing into a guide rather than an absolute way to calculate individual well impacts on the Platte River.

ITEM 17. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.
Houdersheldt reported that the Executive Committee met on February 8, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 18. APPROVAL OF PER DIEM AND EXPENSES FOR HOUDERSHELDT.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to approve payment of $200 for per diem and $74.40 for expenses to Roger Houdersheldt for the last quarter. We approved the motion

ITEM 19. AUTHORIZATION TO ADVERTISE FOR BIDS TO PURCHASE A TRACTOR.

During preparation of the annual budget staff recommended we purchase a new tractor for tree planting and maintenance work. The draft FY 2000 budget had $35,000 proposed for the purchase of a new tractor. However, the final budget adopted by the board had only $17,500 budgeted for a tractor.

Turnbull proposed that the Executive Committee and board consider a two-year lease/purchase of a new tractor. The district will get government (GSA) pricing. For example if the list price is $43,000, the district’s cost would be about $31,500. The lease/purchase terms would be in the 7% interest range which would make the interest cost about $1,000. The lease cost per year would be about $16,500.

Staff recommends the purchase or lease of a new tractor with the following specifications. 60-65 PTO horsepower, front-wheel drive, loader and second hydraulic hookup.

The existing tractor, which was purchased new, is a 1982 International with about 4,000 hours on it. Turnbull recommends the district keep the International if a new tractor is purchased. He also recommends that if the board doesn’t want to authorize the purchase of a new tractor that no purchase be made at this time. The existing tractor will work for another season.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to authorize the advertising for bids for a new tractor (minimum specifications 60-65 PTO horsepower, front-wheel drive, loader and a second hydraulic hookup) for purchase in March 2000, or as soon thereafter as possible. Further that such purchase be made outright with available funds in the FY 2000 budget. We approved the motion.

ITEM 20. REPORT OF EDUCATION & PARKS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Friesen reported that the Education & Parks Committee met on February 10, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 21. TREES FOR THE GROUNDWATER FESTIVAL.

Pete Petersen of the York County Extension office presented the committee with an alternative idea for giving trees to students within the Upper Big Blue NRD. In the past Gene Bergen gave approximately 625 trees to fourth and fifth grade students within York County each year. Gene has retired and Pete has taken his place and plans to continue the program. Pete believes by giving trees to students at the Groundwater Festival each year, he would be reaching more students outside of York County, which would better represent the district.

ITEM 22. DIRECTORS’ TOUR.

The Education & Parks Committee discussed the possibility of taking a three-day trip down the Platte River from Wyoming to the Big Bend section. The committee consensus was that it would work if we set the date for the latter part of July. Staff will begin planning.

ITEM 23. SOAR REQUEST FOR FUNDING.

The Prairie Plains Resources Institute has asked for funding for the 2000 SOAR (Summer Orientation About Rivers) program, a natural resources focused day camp for second through sixth graders each July. There are two regional SOAR camps, one in Kearney and one in Aurora. Each camp has two one-week sessions. About 60 kids attend each session. Junior high students serve as team leaders. Last year the district contributed $1,500 to SOAR. This year we budgeted $1,000.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Regier to authorize payment of $1,000 to the Prairie Plains Resources Institute for the 2000 SOAR program. We approved the motion.

ITEM 25. WILDLIFE EXTENSION AGREEMENT.

Richard Callahan owns an 80-acre tract of land located in the E½ SW¼ of Section 3, Township 9 North, Range 2 West of the 6th P.M., York County, Nebraska. In this 80-acre tract of land, there are 25 acres of wetland that he wishes to renovate. The renovation work will consist of removing silt, approximately 1.0 foot, removing spoil piles and providing supplemental water for private and public sides of the wetland. There are approximately 189 acres of wetland adjacent to Richard Callahan’s 25-acre wetland which is owned and operated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and is open to the public.

ITEM 18. RECORD KEEPING FOR NC17 LAND TREATMENT PRACTICES.
The Nebraska Natural Resources Commission requires that recipients of cost-share on NC17 practices be required to report irrigation water applied and crop water use for each of the first three years after receiving NSWCP cost-share. The Upper Big Blue NRD has been requiring cost-share recipients to turn the records in for the last two years. Approximately 70% of the NC17 cost-share recipients have reported. The purpose for requiring the irrigation records is to create awareness on the part of the irrigator as to how they determine when to irrigate, and how much water they use.

The Projects Committee expressed concern that the record keeping requirement might not be an effective way to accomplish the intended purpose, and that the use of staff time and cost of record keeping might not be cost effective. Another concern of the Committee was that the rule limiting irrigators to cost-share on only one of each NC17 practice is too restrictive and is inconsistent with promoting ground water conservation. There is no limit on the number of terraces, waterways, dams, etc. that a landowner can apply for. The District has received notice that the Nebraska Natural Resources Commission recently lifted the “one per landowner” limit on the NC17 practice for buried pipelines to convert a gravity system to pivot irrigation system.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Nebraska Natural Resources Commission be requested to eliminate, from the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Fund rules, the requirement that NC17 cost-share recipients be required to report irrigation water applied, rainfall, and crop water use data.

Moore felt that the record keeping requirements should be left intact. To remove them now would defeat the original purpose, which was to educate the landowner and make them aware of the amount of water being used.

Turnbull advised the board that staff is at the point of sending letters, requesting repayment of funds, to the NC17 cost-share recipients who have not reported their data.

Staff time has been estimated at 100 hours annually to try to comply with the NNRC requirements. Additionally, any money that the district does recover from recipients who have not complied must be returned to the NNRC.

Austin said she felt the reported data should be used, at least for the past three years. She also felt the Commission should be encouraged to enforce the reporting regulations.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Moore to amend the motion to read “that the Nebraska Natural Resources Commission be requested to eliminate, from enforce the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Fund rules, specifically the requirement that NC17 cost-share recipients be required to report irrigation water applied, rainfall, and crop water use data.” We approved the amendment.

ITEM 20. DAVID CITY NORTHWEST FLOOD CONTROL PROJECT.

In December 1999, David City and Butler County requested assistance to prepare an engineering report to support applications for construction grants. To date, the Upper Big Blue and Lower Platte North NRDs have paid all of the engineering costs; however, this additional request for assistance is above and beyond the original intent of our Interlocal Agreement. The Lower Platte North NRD’s position on this request is that additional assistance should be provided if David City and Butler County will reimburse for our cost of preparing the report.

Staff recommended that the Upper Big Blue NRD offer to prepare an engineering report if David City and Butler County agree to reimburse the Upper Big Blue NRD for expenses.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Jackson that the Upper Big Blue NRD offer to prepare an engineering report on the David City Northwest Flood Control Project, provided City of David City and Butler County agree to reimburse the Upper Big Blue NRD for payroll, payroll overhead, and other expenses associated with preparing the report. We approved the motion.

ITEM 21. BIG BLUE RIVER PHASE OF THE SEWARD FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECT.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Nebraska Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) have notified the District that the buyout portion of the Big Blue River Phase of the Seward Flood Hazard Mitigation Project is authorized to proceed.

FEMA has requested that the Big Blue River phase be done in two parts; (1) the buyout of flood prone dwellings and businesses to be done first, and (2) the flood protection levee to be done last. The buyout portion is estimated to cost $700,000. The District and City shares would each be $87,500 (12.5%) and the FEMA share would be $525,000 (75% cost-share).

Staff presented, and discussed details of, an Interlocal Agreement to be entered into between the City and NRD. Staff also presented, and discussed, the State-Local Contractual Agreement to be entered into between the District and NEMA. Staff recommended that the Board of Directors approve the agreements and authorize the Board Chairman to sign the agreements.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Austin that the Board of Directors approve the Seward Flood Hazard Mitigation Project, Big Blue River Phase, Interlocal Agreement between the Upper Big Blue NRD and City of Seward, and that the NRD Board Chairman be authorized to sign the Agreement. We approved the motion.

The District advertised for bids on a new tractor for tree planting and site maintenance. Bids were received from seven area dealers. One of the bids, from Green Country, Inc. of Geneva, was rejected because the tractor was not bid to specification. The bids that met the specifications are listed below. The specifications are 60 - 65 PTO horsepower; front wheel drive; creeper transmission; loader and second hydraulic hookup. The low bidder stated that delivery could be expected in 45 days.

ITEM 26. OFFICE EQUIPMENT PURCHASE.
Nancy Schneider recommends that the receptionist’s desk be replaced. $4,200 was budgeted in the FY2000 Budget. The current desk has limited storage, does not have enough work surfaces, and was not built to accommodate a computer workstation. The round desk was included with the office building when purchased in 1982. A Steel Case desk and counter system that would match the other modular desk and divider system has been priced through Eakes Office Plus.

The new desk would be located just inside the entry to the office, where the waiting room furniture is currently located. The attached counter will make it easy for visitors to determine where to ask for assistance as well as allow a space for them to complete forms and make payments. The total cost is $3,596, including setup and delivery. Eakes doesn’t want the old custom-built desk for trade-in.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin to approve the purchase of one Steel Case desk, counter and storage system for the receptionist from Eakes Office Plus, Grand Island, for $3,596.00. We approved the motion.

ITEM 27.  CONSENT AGENDA POLICY.

In order to shorten the board meetings the Manager recommends that the board adopt a consent agenda policy. At the last board meeting, for example, one roll call vote would have replaced seven roll call votes on routine items. Several other NRDs use consent agendas, as well as some city and county governments.

A consent agenda policy can be established by amending Operating Policies Number 9 and 10 as presented.

If the board adopts these policy changes, the board meeting time can be reduced by considering routine actions under one motion. Possible routine actions could be approved by the passing of a motion to approve the consent agenda at the board meetings. Items on the consent agenda are ones that likely will not have discussion, such as:

- Adoption of the Agenda
- Approval of the Minutes
- Directors’ Per Diem and Expenses
- Land Treatment Payments
- Buffer Strip Payments
- Habitat Payments
- Decommissioned Well Payments
Amendments to Operating Policies # 9 and # 10 would:

- Allow any item to be pulled off of the consent agenda by a board member or member of the public so that it can be considered and discussed separately.
- When voting in favor of the consent agenda, a board member’s vote is recorded as voting in favor of each individual item on the consent agenda, unless, the voting board member requests that his or her vote be “aye” on all consent agenda items, except for a particular item on the consent agenda which should be recorded as a “nay” vote or “not voting.”

For example, if a board member wants to vote nay on approving wildlife habitat contracts then that board member would vote aye for the consent agenda, but request at the time the vote is taken to have his or her vote on the wildlife habitat contracts be recorded as a nay vote.

- The approval of the consent agenda would require the listing of a roll call vote in the board minutes for each consent agenda item, even though one roll call vote would cover all items.

- The consent agenda policy would take effect at the next board meeting.

The Executive Committee recommended the district adopt a consent agenda policy.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin to adopt a consent agenda policy by amending Operating Policy No. 9: Board of Directors Meetings, and Operating Policy No. 10: Agenda of Board Meetings as presented.

There was some discussion about how the consent agenda procedure would work. It was moved by Austin and seconded by Brown to refer the policy to committee for further study. We approved the motion.

ITEM 29. DIRECTOR VACANCY IN SUBDISTRICT SIX.

As a result of Ed Ediger’s death a board vacancy exists in subdistrict six. Turnbull told the board that notice of the vacancy will be published in the newspaper. He has already been contacted by two individuals who are interested in the position.

There being no other business, we adjourned the meeting at 4:24 p.m.

I, the undersigned, Secretary of the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District, hereby certify that these are true and correct minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors of the District held on March 23, 2000, that all of the subjects discussed at the meeting were contained in the agenda for the meeting, kept continually current and readily available for public inspection at the principal office of the District during normal business hours, and except for items of an emergency nature, the agenda was not altered later than twenty-four (24) hours before the scheduled commencement of the meeting; that at least one copy of all reproducible material discussed at the meeting was available at the meeting for examination and copying by members of the public; that the minutes were in written form and available for public inspection within ten working days and prior to the next convened meeting of said body; and, that all news media requesting notification of the meeting of said body were provided advance notification of the time and place of said meeting and the subjects to be discussed at said meeting.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Austin to approve the minutes of the March 23, 2000 Board of Directors meeting as presented. We approved the motion.
ITEM 6. REPORT OF PROJECTS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Jackson reported that the Projects Committee met on April 11, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 7. AMENDMENT TO LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM POLICY.

Staff requested that the maximum NRD cost-share per landowner per year be increased from $3,500 to $5,000 to be consistent with NSWCP funds policy. This change would increase the maximum cost-share per landowner to $10,000 per year ($5000 NSWCP and $5000 NRD) on combinations of NSWCP and NRD funds. All applications are initially filed as NSWCP. Under current policy, any applications shifted to NRD funds would require the landowner to sign a new application and cost-share would have to be recalculated within the $3500 limit. If the recommended policy amendment is approved, staff would continue to allocate all NSWCP funds before allocating NRD funds.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Land Treatment Program cost-share policy on practices 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 12, 16, and 18 be amended such that the maximum cost-share per landowner per year be $5000 on NRD funded applications, and that the maximum cost-share per landowner per year on NSWCP applications remain at $5000, and that each landowner continue to be eligible for both NSWCP and NRD cost-share up to the $5000 maximum for each fund, and any landowner installing a water impoundment dam, continue to be eligible for an additional NSWCP cost-share of $5000 on Practice 3.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin to amend the motion to read: that the Land Treatment Program cost-share policy on practices 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 12, 16, and 18 be amended such that the maximum cost-share per landowner per year be either $5000 on NRD funded applications or $5000 on NSWCP funds, and that the maximum cost-share per landowner per year on NSWCP applications remain at $5000, and that each landowner continue to be eligible for both NSWCP and NRD cost-share up to the $5000 maximum for each fund, and any landowner installing a water impoundment dam, continue to be eligible for an additional NSWCP cost-share of $5000 on Practice 3. ITEM 10. LINING OF OVERLAND TRAILS RESERVOIR.

The recharge rate from the reservoir at the Overland Trails Project is much higher than originally estimated. The reservoir fills 120 acre feet during heavy rainfall, but most of the stored water infiltrates to the ground water within a month. If the project is to be used for water-based recreation such as fishing, it will be necessary to install a liner in portions of the reservoir where earth was taken to build the dam. Nickel Engineering, a geotechnical consultant, has recommended a plan to reduce infiltration by sealing seven acres of the reservoir. Staff recommends proceeding with Nickel Engineering’s plan at the estimated cost of $41,300. If the board authorizes the recommended plan, staff will obtain contractor bids for the board’s consideration.
It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Austin that staff be authorized to obtain bids from at least three contractors to install bentonite and soda ash liners in the reservoir at Overland Trails Project in accordance with the April 11, 2000 plan recommended by Nickel Engineering. The motion failed.

ITEM 11. APPROVAL OF MAINTENANCE WORK ON DAMS.

In 1998 inspections of eight dams indicated need for maintenance work. Most of the work involves erosion control, removal of trees from the dams, and repair of pipes and concrete surfaces. Estimated cost is $17,500. Staff requested authorization to select a contractor, without advertising for bids, to do the required maintenance work.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Houdersheldt that staff be authorized to hire a contractor, for a cost not to exceed $17,500, to perform maintenance on the Bergen, Larson, Smith Creek, Bruner, Urbanek-Hoeft, Miller, Vrbka, and Hromas/Moravek dams in accordance with the NRD staff recommendations. We approved the motion.

ITEM 12. REPAIRS TO RECOVERY WELLS AT RECHARGE LAKE.

Recovery wells R1 and R3 at Recharge Lake are in need of maintenance. Sargent Drilling Company has inspected the recovery well system and recommended replacement of the motor and installation of a phase monitor on pump R1 located in the maintenance building. The total operating time for pump R1 is 12,578 hours. Sargent Drilling also recommended replacing the starter on pump R3. The total operating time on pump R3 is 13,549 hours. Estimated cost for the recommended repairs is $3,021.88. Staff recommends hiring Sargent Drilling to make the needed repairs. The repair work will be eligible for 80% federal funding in accordance with our agreement with U.S. Bureau of Reclamation.

It was a moved by Jackson and seconded by Luebbe that Sargent Drilling be hired to repair recovery wells at Recharge Lake in accordance with their proposal dated April 11, 2000, and that staff be authorized to approve additional repairs that are discovered as work proceeds. We approved the motion.
ITEM 13. REPORT OF BUDGET, PLANNING & LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Moore reported that the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee met on April 11, 2000 and reviewed the committee’s report.

ITEM 14. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Houdersheldt reported that the Executive Committee met on April 13, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 15. ESTABLISH CONSENT AGENDA POLICY.

A consent agenda policy can be established by amending operating policies nine and ten, as attached. Items on the Consent Agenda are ones that are unlikely to be discussed. Proposed consent agenda items include the adoption of the agenda, approval of minutes, payment of directors’ per diem and expenses, buffer strip payments and decommissioned well payments.

The proposed amendments to Operating Policies # 9 and # 10 would make the following changes.

- Allow any item to be pulled off of the consent agenda by a board member or member of the public so that it can be considered and discussed separately.
- By voting in favor of the consent agenda, a board member’s vote is recorded as voting in favor of each individual item on the consent agenda, unless the board member requests that his or her vote be “aye” on all consent agenda items, except for a particular item on the consent agenda which should be recorded as a “nay” vote or “not voting”.

For example, if a board member wants to vote no on approving decommissioned well payments then that board member would vote yes for the consent agenda, but request at the time the vote is taken to have his or her vote on the well payments be recorded as a no vote.

The approval of the consent agenda would require the listing of a roll call vote in the board minutes for each consent agenda item, even though one roll call vote would cover all items. The consent agenda policy would take effect at the May board meeting.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to adopt a consent agenda policy by amending Operating Policy No. 9: Board of Directors Meetings, and Operating Policy No. 10: Agenda of Board Meetings as presented. We approved the motion.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin to pay the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts $1,898.52 for the Upper Big Blue NRD’s Washington, D.C. trip expenses. We approved the motion.

ITEM 19. TREE PLANTING PROPOSAL FOR SHELBY PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
Mary Gillespie presented the Education and Parks Committee with a tree planting proposal for the Shelby Public Schools prepared by Todd Faller. The estimated cost is $2420.13. The Upper Big Blue NRD’s policy is to fund up to 25% of the local share of the estimated or actual cost, which ever is less.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund the tree planting on the Shelby Public School property at a cost not to exceed $605.03 or 25% of the actual cost whichever is less. We approved the motion.

There are 11 final payments totaling $3,462.88. The staff recommends payment of these claims.

It was moved by Teegerstrom and seconded by Austin to approve final payment for 11 well abandonments as reviewed at a total cost of $3,462.88. We approved the motion.

The Water Committee reviewed the current decommissioning fund status. Because most of the decommissioning claims occur in the last quarter of the fiscal year staff recommended that applicants be notified that some claims may not be paid until the next fiscal year, if all funds have been spent.

The Water Committee discussed the need to honor existing applications and whether to continue taking applications for FY2000 funds, knowing that the funds currently budgeted may not cover the District’s obligations. Some directors expressed concern over temporarily stopping funding and having abandoned wells left open or improperly abandoned during that period. The Water Committee recommended that FY2000 funding be increased by $2,500.

It was moved by Teegerstrom and seconded by Austin to increase the FY2000 AQWACAP funds authorized from $27,500 to $30,000. We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. NEBRASKA ENVIRONMENTAL PARTNERSHIP (NEP).

Formerly the State Mandates Office of NDEQ, the NEP has received a small Environmental Trust grant ($40,000 over two-years) to provide funding for well abandonment in Wellhead Protection Areas and inside village boundaries to supplement the NRD and WWDF funds to provide 100% cost-share. The program requires the community to have certain WHPA components completed or in progress. The decommissioning would be done for all privately owned wells in the community under one contract. The NRD would then pay the normal AQWACAP program percentage to the community and NEP would pay the remainder. The staff recommended that we work with NEP to try and get communities in the NRD to participate in this program.

It was moved by Teegerstrom and seconded by Austin that we work with NEP to try and get communities in the NRD to participate in the Nebraska Environmental Partnership Well Abandonment Program. We approved the motion.

ITEM 23. WELLHEAD PROTECTION AREA ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.

The District currently offers limited assistance to communities for determining ground water levels and flow direction in updating WHPA maps and in abandoned well identification. We have done abandoned well identification for a few communities’ WHPA but none have asked for any other assistance. NDEQ is trying to encourage communities to become more active in wellhead protection. The staff also feels that this would be good, not only for the cities and villages but the NRD as a whole. NDEQ has set aside 319-funds from the state’s base grant (60/40) to fund up to three persons/year or the equivalency of those positions hired by NRDs, to work with communities on wellhead protection. Currently one full-time position is at the Lower Platte North NRD and one is at the Nemaha NRD. A third full-time position was to be placed at the Upper Republican NRD, but the NRD backed out. NDEQ has indicated they would be willing to discuss a half-time position with us. If we were to do this, Rod proposes that we use existing Water Department personnel. The District could get grant funds for 60% of one-half of the salary and expenses for one water department technician for a minimum of two years with possible extensions up to five years. The person would not be limited to the Upper Big Blue, but may also assist in nearby communities in other NRDs. This program would tie in well with our existing Ground Water Quality Management Programs.

It was moved by Teegerstrom and seconded by Regier that the staff be authorized to negotiate a 319-grant agreement with the Department of Environmental Quality for a half-time Wellhead Protection Area Assistance position for future Board consideration. We approved the motion.

ITEM 10. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICE.
Jan Joseph, acting District Conservationist for NRCS, was present at the Projects Committee meeting to request that NSWCP Practice NC-14, Planned Grazing Systems, be approved as eligible for cost-share in the NRD Land Treatment Program. Jan presented a summary of rangeland and pasture/hayland conservation needs for the Upper Big Blue NRD. Jan estimates there are 110,515 acres of rangeland in the NRD, and that 63,701 acres are in fair to poor condition; he estimates there are 57,884 acres of pasture/hayland, of which 25,397 acres need management plans. It is recommended that suspension cross fencing and rodent control not be cost-shared if the NC-14 practice is adopted.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Brown that NSWCP Practice NC-14 be approved as eligible for cost-share in the Upper Big Blue NRD Land Treatment Program, and that the cost-share not be allowed for suspension-type cross fencing or rodent control, and that the percent of cost-share be set at 75% of estimated cost or 75% of actual cost, whichever is least, and that the practice becomes effective upon approval by the NRD Board of Directors. ITEM 13. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Buller reported that the Executive Committee met on June 6, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 14. FISCAL YEAR 2001 SALARIES.

Turnbull reviewed his findings about comparable wages with the Executive Committee. The data came from the Nebraska State Government Salary Survey and a wage study conducted for the Lower Platte South NRD by a consulting firm from Lincoln. The recommended salary schedule is attached to these minutes. Based on this information Turnbull recommends that most Upper Big Blue job classifications increase from 3% to 10% depending on the job market. The salary schedules set the minimum, midpoint, and maximum for each position. Individual salaries and wages then need to be within those limits.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Houdersheldt to approve the changes in the midpoints of the salary schedules as listed to stay in line with the job market, and that such changes and adjusted salary schedules become effective on July 1, 2000. We approved the motion.

Turnbull reviewed the individual staff salaries with the Executive Committee. He proposes that the board authorize $20,476 for salary increases for the staff, which is an overall change of 4.35%. The change for last year was 3.8% or $17,405.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Houdersheldt to adjust the annual salaries of the district staff, with the exception of the General Manager, by an amount not to exceed $20,476; and to authorize the General Manager to determine and make the salary and wage adjustments. We approved the motion.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Hultman to increase the General Manager’s salary by 4.0% ($2,682), from $67,058 to $69,740.
It was moved by Moore and seconded by Luebbe to go into Executive Session at 8:26 p.m. to discuss the general manager’s salary. We approved the motion.

ITEM 16. LIABILITY, FIRE AND CASUALTY INSURANCE.

The liability, fire and casualty insurance is provided by INSPRO Insurance through Scott Nelson of York Insurance. INSPRO writes insurance for more than half of the Districts, with Employers Mutual as the principal carrier. The quote for the new policy is $32,913. The existing policy expires on July 1, 2000. Quotes from other carriers are difficult to get because of the liability coverage on the dams.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Austin to approve the renewal of the liability, fire and casualty insurance for FY2001 for $32,913 provided by York Insurance and INS PRO. We approved the motion.

ITEM 20. REVISED WILDLIFE HABITAT IMPROVEMENT CONTRACT FOR ELTON W. PETERSON.

Since Elton Peterson’s wife passed away, the family has done some changing of land ownership within the family. A parcel of land located in the NE ¼ 16-13-3W is now under the ownership of Elton’s daughter who wishes to make use of a portion of this land other than for wildlife. Elton has requested that the three (3) acres located on the NE ¼ 16-13-3W be removed from his Wildlife Habitat Improvement contract leaving him with a total of 27 acres for an annual payment of $472.50 on contract #372.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Volkmer that the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors accept the revised Wildlife Habitat Improvement contract of Elton W. Petersen in the amount of 27 acres for an annual payment of $472.50.

Dickinson told the board that since some of the land had changed ownership the cooperator should have to reapply for entrance into the Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program. After further discussion, it was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Bruns to send the matter back to the Education and Parks Committee. We approved the motion.

This one (1) acre of land is also located on a parcel of land enrolled in the Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program under contract #390, land owner John Budler.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Hultman that the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors accept the revised Wildlife Habitat Improvement contract of John Budler in the amount of 25 acres for an annual payment of $497.50. We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. PAYMENT TO RICHARD CALLAHAN FOR WETLAND RENOVATION.

On February 17, 2000, the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors voted to fund the Richard Callahan wetland renovation project in the amount of $5,000. This District has been reimbursed by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services in the amount of $5,000.

Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District funds for this project are being provided through Cooperative Agreement 14-48-0006-96-918 with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The Cooperative Agreement is on file at the Upper Big Blue NRD office.

The following agencies helped fund the Richard Callahan project. U.S. Fish & Wildlife Services; Rainwater Basin Joint Venture; Nebraska Game & Parks Commission; Natural Fish and Wildlife Foundation; Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District; and Natural Resources Conservation Service.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District make payment of $5000 to Richard Callahan for the renovation of his wetland located in the E ½ SW ¼ of Section 3, Township 9 North, Range 2 West of the 6th P.M., York County, Nebraska. ITEM 23. WILD NEBRASKA PROGRAM.

The Wildlife Habitat Improvement program is now going to be called Wild Nebraska. The Wild Nebraska program is designed to cost-share on the improvements on the land for wildlife and not make annual payment to the landowner as has been done in the past with the Wildlife Habitat Improvement program. There will be cases where the landowner has taken crop land and developed it for wildlife and then a transition payment would be made for five (5) years on a ten (10) year contract. The transition payment would be based on 80% of the county average cost for the county where the land is located.

The Education & Parks Committee reviewed the WILD Nebraska program as presented by the staff and recommended that this program be adopted by the Upper Big Blue NRD. Since the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission still has some modifications to the details of the activities and the practices outlined in the WILD Nebraska program, the Committee tabled the action until next month.

ITEM 24. WILD NEBRASKA PROGRAM AGREEMENT UNDER THE INTERLOCAL COOPERATION ACT, SECTION 23-2201 THROUGH 23-2207 RRS 1943.

This Cooperative Agreement is between the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission and the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District pertaining to the Wild Nebraska program. The following topics are covered in the agreement referring to the Wild Nebraska program. Purpose; allocation of state funds; District responsibilities; Commission responsibilities; overall program framework pertaining to approved activities including public access option, weed control, destination of wildlife habitat cover, leasing for recreational activities, rounding acreage figures, change of ownership or cancellation, compliance, lands that do not qualify and Federal Agricultural Program.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Jackson that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District enter into an Interlocal Agreement with the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission with the following clause inserted: “Payment less than $100 will not be made by the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District.”

Moore expressed concern about the new program. Turnbull told the board that the actual terms of the practices and activities under this agreement have not been finalized. We have been given a draft and have been told that the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission staff will be making some minor changes. We expect to have the final document by the July Education & Parks Committee meeting.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Buller to refer to committee until the revised draft is received. We approved the motion

ITEM 25. OUTDOOR CLASSROOM PAYMENT.

Last month the Board approved the Larsen Christian Academy’s application for cost-share assistance for an outdoor classroom. Our policy states that the District will pay 50 percent of the local share of the cost of vegetative materials and other items related to natural resources education. Maximum payment is $800.

Usually the payment is made in one lump sum after the project is completed. Part of the work on the Larsen classroom is done and District staff would like to make a partial payment on the cost-share grant because the money will come from this fiscal year budget, leaving more money in the FY2001 line item for other applicants.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Austin to authorize payment of $101.36 to Larsen Christian Academy as partial cost-share for an outdoor classroom. We approved the motion.

ITEM 9. RECONSIDER CANCELLATION OF ADOLPH NOVAK LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM APPLICATION.

On February 16, 1999, Adolph Novak applied for NSWCP cost-share on a buried pipeline to a pivot under Practice NC-17. On March 9, 1999, the NRCS forwarded the application to the NRD for eligibility consideration. On April 5, 1999, the NRD sent a letter to Adolph Novak stating that his application was eligible for cost-share. The letter to Mr. Novak stated that cost-share money would not be set aside until he contacted the NRCS to confirm design and schedule staking, and that he must call the NRD for an authorization number. The eligibility letter is the only way a landowner knows that the NRD has his application and that he can call for authorization of funding.

In October 1999, Novak hired Stutzman Digging Service of Dorchester to install the buried pipeline. The NRD was then notified by NRCS and Adolph Novak’s tenant, Darrel Novak, that work had been completed without authorization from the NRD. The tenant explained that he reads all of Adolph’s mail, and that neither he nor Adolph had received the April 5 letter, and they were not aware that they needed to call for authorization. On November 23, 1999, staff sent a notice to Adolph Novak that his application was cancelled since the work was completed.

In December 1999, the Projects Committee discussed this application. The Projects Committee decided that staff acted in accordance with District Policy and that no Board action was required.

When the NRCS sends cost-share applications to the NRD, their transmittal is supposed to indicate whether correspondence is to be sent to persons other than the landowner. The NRCS transmittal for Adolph Novak’s application indicated that Adolph was to be the only contact. If an additional copy of the April 5 letter had been sent to the tenant, it is possible that this problem could have been avoided.

After a review of all the facts concerning this application, Wayne Hansen and John Turnbull recommended that cost-share be paid to Adolph Novak, since staff did not mail a copy of the April 5 letter to the tenant.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Volkmer that the staff decision to cancel Adolph Novak’s February 16, 1999 application for NSWCP cost-share on a buried pipeline to a pivot, located in Section 36, Township 9 North, Range 2 East of Seward County, be reversed, and that payment of NSWCP funds be made to Adolph Novak in the amount of $1,785.40. We approved the motion.

ITEM 10. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM NONCOMPLIANCE WITH NC-17 PRACTICE.

Landowners receiving NSWCP cost-share on Practice NC-17 are required to report their irrigation water use for a period of three years after receiving cost-share. If a landowner fails to report during one year, the reporting period is extended one year. If he fails to report two years’ data, staff requests that all cost-share for the practice be repaid to the Nebraska State Treasury. The District has a list of six landowners who have not reported their irrigation water use, nor have they responded to the request to repay the cost-share. Staff requested that the Board decide what action should be taken in cases where a landowner fails to respond to requests for reporting and repayment.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Luebbe that the District’s Land Treatment Program Policy on NSWCP, Practice NC-17, is amended to include the following statement concerning reporting irrigation water use and repayment of cost-share funds:

LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM
NSWCP, PRACTICE NC-17 IRRIGATION WATER USE REPORTING
COMPLIANCE POLICY

Landowners who receive cost-share from the Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Programs are required to report their irrigation water use during the irrigation season, May through September, for the first three years after receiving cost-share. Landowners who fail to comply with this requirement will be issued a notice to repay the Nebraska State Treasury for cost-share received on the NC-17 practice. If the landowner fails to report his irrigation water, and fails to repay the cost-share within 30 days of the notice to repay, the landowner will be requested to appear before the Projects Committee to explain his reasons for noncompliance, and he will not be eligible for cost-share from any NRD programs until he is in compliance.

ITEM 11. SET ASIDE LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM COST SHARE FUNDS FOR TREE PLANTING.

The District cost-shares on windbreak renovation, Practice NC-16, and tree planting for windbreaks, Practice NC-12. Since the planting plan for these practices is developed during the winter months, it is likely that applicants for cost-share on these practices will call for authorization of cost-share after all funds are obligated. Staff is requesting that the Board set aside $15,000 of the Land Treatment Program funds, until March 1 of each fiscal year, so that applicants for the NC-12 and NC-16 practices will have time to develop their plans and call for authorization.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Brown that the District’s Land Treatment Program set aside $15,000 for Practices NC-12 and NC-16 until March 1 of each fiscal year. We approved the motion.

ITEM 13.  YORK GROUNDWATER RECHARGE PROJECT MAINTENANCE.

The recovery well pumps at Recharge Lake have each been operated for at least 14,000 hours. The pump on recovery well one was replaced last month. Staff recommends that Sargent Irrigation be hired to replace the pumps and motors at recovery wells two and three, in accordance with their proposal in the amount of $7,991.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Luebbe that Sargent Irrigation be hired to replace pumps and motors on recovery wells two and three at the York Ground Water Recharge Project, in accordance with their proposal in the amount of $7,991, and that work be completed no later than August 31, 2000. ITEM 19. PLUM CREEK TRAILS SYSTEM.
Mayor Bob Elwell and Dan Berlowitz, City Administrator from the City of Seward attended the Parks and Education Committee meeting to discuss the possibility of working with the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District in developing a trail system which would include but not be limited to walking, biking and hiking on the lands purchased or obtained with a long-term easement. These lands are involved with the flood plain buyout by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). These lands are all located within the flood plain along Plum Creek. The City requests that the District assist them in applying for the grant monies available for constructing a trail system along Plum Creek and also provide engineering and construction inspection and funds toward the construction of a trail system along Plum Creek. The engineering cost for designing the trail system is estimated at $74,000. The total cost of the trail system including engineering is approximately $820,000.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District cooperate with the City of Seward to make application for the grant monies available to develop and construct a trail system along Plum Creek; that the District will provide the engineering, design and construction inspection; and further that the City of Seward will contribute 50% of the engineering and design cost and the NRD will provide an amount not to exceed $37,000 toward the construction cost of the trail system provided that the grant applications are approved. ITEM 7. FY 2001 BUDGET HEARING.

Chairman Wayne Hansen opened the budget hearing at 7:37 p.m.. He informed those present that this Public Hearing is for hearing support, opposition, criticism, suggestions, or observations of tax payers relating to the District’s FY 2001 Budget. Since this was a Public Hearing, he asked for comments from the public. He stated the Public Notice of this Hearing appeared once in the York News-Times on August 17, 2000. Hansen asked John Turnbull, General Manager of the District, to be the Hearing Officer and to review the proposed FY 2001 Budget.

Turnbull reviewed the FY 2000-2001 State of Nebraska General Budget Form. He advised the board that this is the budget document that will be filed with the County Clerks and State Auditor’s office. There have been no changes in any of the proposed budget items, since the July 20, 2000 Board meeting, except for the valuations. He told the Board they would not be adopting a tax rate tonight. We had originally scheduled a tax request hearing for tonight, but we were unable to get the final valuations from the county assessors’ in time to publish the notice 5 days prior to the hearing, as required. Turnbull also went over the Upper Big Blue NRD’s internal budget planning document. He told the board that the final valuations were $4,195,982,833 and reviewed the valuations by county. The average increase in valuation district wide was 5.7 percent. The property tax levy is .02526, which is the levy he will ask them to set at the September Property Tax Request Hearing.

The total general fund budget is $2,343,107.01. Of that $1,120,401.62 will come from property tax. The rest will come from state and federal grants, cash on hand, and other income. The sinking fund will be $680,098.94, which includes a transfer from the general fund to the sinking fund of $50,000 for future dam development. He reminded the board that we discussed last month whether we should set money aside for the Indian Creek Project or for future structures. The single biggest line item in the general fund is intergovernment cost sharing at $626,500. The bulk of that is for the Big Blue River flood plain buyout at Seward which is largely funded by federal funds. The next biggest item is payroll, which is $589,068.73 for nineteen staff members.

Turnbull reviewed the lid computation form with the board. The total restricted funds are $1,212,857.49. Restricted funds are the tax requirements, motor vehicle prorate and state aid. Lid exceptions for capital improvements are $310,291.57; $143,547.42 for interlocal agreements, such as the ones with Seward and Southeast Community College, for a total lid exception of $453,838.99. Unused restricted funds from last year’s budget were $792,837.47. The unused restricted funds authority from last year is $159,107.79. When you add these together you get $951,945.26 in restricted funds authority for last year. The base increase is 2.5%. Later tonight the board will consider a resolution for an additional 1 percent increase in budget authority. If the board approves the additional one percent that doesn’t mean the tax will go up one percent, it just gives the authority to do that. The two combined would make a 3.5% change, which is $33,318.08. If you take the total restricted funds authority of $985,263.34 less $759,018.50 restricted funds from the lid computation supporting schedule, it leaves a total unused restricted funds authority of $226,244.84. In simple terms, what this means is you could raise the property tax another $226,244.84 and still be within the lid.

Turnbull asked if there were any questions. There were no questions so Turnbull gave a short slide presentation comparing this year’s budget with past years’ budgets.

Hansen closed the hearing at 7:55 p.m..

ITEM 13. QUOTES FOR PROJECT MAINTENANCE.

Quotes have been received from two contractors to perform maintenance work on 15 District-owned and operated projects. Van Kirk Brothers’ quote was $45,928.50 and Huebert Land Leveling’s quote was $53,615. Work will begin September 1, 2000 and is to be completed by December 1, 2000.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Austin that Van Kirk Brothers’ July 19, 2000 quote in the amount of $45,928.50 to perform maintenance on 15 District-owned projects be accepted, and that the District’s general manager is authorized to enter into a Maintenance Work Agreement with Van Kirk Brothers. ITEM 14. REQUEST FOR SPILLWAY MODIFICATION OF LANGWORTHY DAM.

The District owns and operates a storage and flood control dam in Section 19, Township 11 North, Range 2 East of Seward County. The structure was designed as a road dam and construction was completed in June 1976. The construction cost was $9,757. The NRD paid 36%, Seward County paid 48%, and the Langworthy Trust paid 16%. The Langworthy Trust donated land for the reservoir and the District holds a perpetual easement to operate and maintain the dam and reservoir.

The land manager for the Langworthy Trust has requested that the District allow the Trust to modify the spillway to lower the conservation pool elevation. The purpose for this request is to allow their new pivot to pass the reservoir site, and allow additional acres to be farmed.

The District’s engineering staff has checked the project site to determine what structural requirements would be needed if the principal spillway is converted from a riser type inlet to a “shotgun” type inlet. This type of modification would reduce the conservation storage depth by six feet at the dam and would cost approximately $5,000.

Staff recommends that the Langworthy Trust request to modify the spillway be denied, since the dam is still in good repair and functions as designed to control runoff and provide flood control and water storage.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Luebbe that the Langworthy Dam, which is owned and operated by the District, and is located in the Northwest Quarter of Section 19, Township 11 North, Range 2 East, not be modified to reduce water storage capacity, and that the request by the Langworthy Trust for such modification be denied. We approved the motion.

Moore reported on the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee meeting held August 15, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 17. NEBRASKA FARM BUREAU/NEBRASKA WATER USERS STATEMENT OF PRINCIPALS AND POSITIONS.

Jim Lundgren, Attorney Jim Doyle from the Nebraska Water Users, and Jay Rempe of the Nebraska Farm Bureau attended the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee meeting and gave a background description of the Platte River issues.

In February 1990 the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) ordered Nebraska Public Power District (NPPD) to release stored irrigation water from Lake McConaughy for habitat needs. This water had been stored under Nebraska surface water rights for summer irrigation use. The Nebraska Water Users became involved in the FERC negotiations because of that action. Over time it became apparent to them that the environmental interests wanted more than Nebraska could provide. Two mitigation attempts with the various interests failed because of the wide divergence of views. Colorado and Wyoming were having similar problems with proposed water projects. The Cooperative Agreement process then started in an attempt to resolve the endangered species and water right issues in Colorado, Wyoming, and Nebraska.

The Nebraska Farm Bureau and Nebraska Water Users feel that due to the Department of Interior’s lack of commitment to the Cooperative Agreement that Nebraska needs to proceed cautiously. They believe that Nebraska needs to seriously consider staying in the Program, but that the Program must work for the State. The Statement of Principals and Positions have been developed as a guidance paper to judge the work coming out of the Cooperative Agreement. Their position paper states “Nebraska Water Users and Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation declare that Nebraska’s further involvement under any program or any further cooperative agreement among the three states and the Department of Interior must address, in a manner which furthers the best interests of irrigated agriculture and economic development and stability in Nebraska . . . .” Their hope is that the Governor of Nebraska will use the Statement of Principals and Positions to help decide whether the Cooperative Agreement is in Nebraska’s best interests. The Nebraska Farm Bureau and Nebraska Water Users are requesting that the involved NRDs endorse and adopt these Principals.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Regier that the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors generally support the Nebraska Farm Bureau and Nebraska Water Users Statement of Principals and Positions relating to continuation of the Cooperative Agreement and Adoption of a Proposed Program for the Platte River. We approved the motion.

Friesen reported that the Education and Parks Committee met on August 17, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 19. WILD NEBRASKA PROGRAM.

The Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program has been changed to WILD Nebraska. The WILD Nebraska program is designed to cost-share on the improvements of the land for wildlife and not make annual payments to the landowner as has been done in the past with the Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program. There will be cases where the landowner has taken cropland and developed it for wildlife. A transition payment would be made for five years on a ten year contract. The transition payment would be based on 80% of the county average cost for the county where the land is located.

The Nebraska Game and Parks Commission has completed and reviewed the WILD Nebraska document for contract consistency and it is ready for use as a program reference. The Education & Parks Committee reviewed the WILD Nebraska program and recommended that the program be adopted by the Upper Big Blue NRD.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Jackson that the WILD Nebraska program be adopted by the Upper Big Blue NRD. We approved the motion.

The staff has submitted an intent-to-apply and the draft application forms to the Nebraska Department of Roads and Transportation Enhancement Program. On August 21, 2000, John Williams with Sinclair Hille Architects in Lincoln came out to walk through the project. Sinclair Hille Architects have been chosen by the Nebraska Department of Roads to review all projects being submitted for funding.

The staff wishes to apply for another grant through the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission, entitle the Trail Development Assistance Fund - Fiscal Year 2000. This is a 50 percent matching grant which could bring in an additional $100,000. The city of Seward understands they would have to match this grant.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District make application to the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission for a 50% matching grant through the Trail Development Assistance Funds for the Plum Creek Trail in Seward, Nebraska. We approved the motion.

ITEM 7. FY 2001 PROPERTY TAX REQUEST HEARING.

Chairman Wayne Hansen opened the property tax request hearing at 7:35 p.m. Hansen stated that the notice of the special hearing to set the property tax request was published once on September 11, 2000 in the York News-Times. Hansen turned the meeting over to John Turnbull, who acted as Hearing Officer.

Turnbull asked the board to consider passing the following resolution, which he read for those present, following the closing of the hearing.

RESOLUTION

Whereas the FY 2001 Budget for the Upper Big Blue NRD, as adopted by this Board of Directors on August 24, 2000, has a property tax requirement of $1,120,401.62;

Whereas the final total valuation of the NRD is $4,434,692,240;

Whereas the FY 2000 Budget (prior year) required a tax request of $976,971.87 and a property tax rate of $0.02328;

Whereas the FY 2001 (current year) property tax rate would be $0.02203 to generate $976,971.87.

Therefore be it resolved by this Board of Directors on September 19, 2000 to set the FY 2001 tax request at $1,120,401.62 for the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District which will require a property tax rate of $0.02526.

Last month the board adopted the FY 2001 Budget, which has been submitted to the State Auditor’s Office, the nine county clerks and the Department of Natural Resources. It had a tax request of $1,120,401.62. A tax rate of 0.02526 is necessary to support the budget that was adopted. Turnbull also distributed a two-page handout that is a summary of property valuations, by county. Last month a question was asked about what percentage of property tax revenue came from urban and rural areas. This handout shows that 74.3% of the property valuations in the district are rural and 25.7% are urban. Rural includes rural suburban, which means subdivisions like Lockridge Acres, just west of York. The handout also shows the valuation of each city, village or rural area in the district, which are listed from the largest to the smallest. Also shown was the growth in valuation from fiscal year 1988 to fiscal year 2001. Turnbull told those present that if they had questions about the tax rate or valuations he would be glad to explain them. He asked if there were any comments regarding the tax rate. He explained, for those unhappy about the valuations, we cannot change the valuations because we do not set the property valuations.

No comments were received on the proposed property tax request. Hansen closed the hearing at 7:40 p.m..

ITEM 8. ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION TO SET FY 2001 TAX REQUEST.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to adopt the resolution to set the FY 2001 property tax request at .02526. We approved the motion.

ITEM 13. REPORT OF PROJECTS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Jackson reported that the Projects Committee met on September 12, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 14. DAVID CITY NORTHWEST STORM WATER MANAGEMENT AND FLOOD CONTROL PROJECT.

Representatives from David City were present at the Projects Committee meeting to request support for a storm water management and flood control project in northwest David City. Roger Helgoth, the city’s consultant for the project, explained that several alternatives were considered to provide flood protection to residential, commercial, and public properties that are currently subject to flooding from ag land runoff that enters the city from the north and east. The city’s plan would include most components previously recommended by the Upper Big Blue and Lower Platte North Natural Resource Districts. Helgoth explained that Alternative 3 also contains components that were added to resolve downstream landowner concerns about flooding and erosion that could result from drainage improvements and future development in David City.

Steve Smith, David City Mayor, said the city is currently seeking general support for the project from the NRDs and Butler County. The city plans to request funding assistance from the Army Corps of Engineers and Nebraska Resource Development Fund. The city will likely come back to the NRDs for financial support as the project moves closer to the construction phase. The committee recommended the NRD support David City’s storm water management and flood control project proposal, known as Alternative 3.

ITEM 17.  INDIAN CREEK PROJECT.

If the District is going to proceed with development of the Indian Creek Project, more detailed site investigations need to be conducted. Bitner recommended to the Projects Committee that preliminary drilling and testing, infiltration studies, and preliminary environmental assessments be done to further evaluate the project site selected in the Olsson Associates Reconnaissance Study, and one other site downstream. These evaluations will help with final site selection. Additional mapping will also be needed for the downstream site. The Fiscal Year 2001 Projects Department budget includes $40,000 for these types of investigations.
The Projects Committee felt that the Indian Creek Project should be suspended since the Board has indicated it is unlikely sufficient local funds can be raised to build the project. The Projects Committee recommendation is to suspend the project.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Indian Creek Project be suspended.

Chairman Hansen noted there were a number of people present to hear discussion and address the board regarding the Indian Creek project, which he allowed them to do.

George Krause spoke in favor of continuing the Indian Creek project. He said he had recently telephoned approximately 25 people in the area regarding the project and of those 25 most were in favor of the project. He said that not all residents of the area are in favor, because their farming operations will be affected. He told the board that he knew the NRD had spent staff time and money to conducted studies of the proposed Indian Creek project, but the residents affected by the project are unaware of what is being done. He asked that the public be kept better informed of the progress on the project. He asked the board not to suspend the project.

Fred Nickel said he was present at the first meeting, sixteen years ago, when the project was first proposed. He told the board that since that first meeting he had been dreaming of seeing the project built. He asked the board if they were suspending the project because of the financial feasibility if it would be possible to downsize the project to cut the overall costs. He told the board that he felt more people who support the project would have attended the meeting had it not been for the dry weather. He asked when the decision had been made to suspend the project.

Turnbull informed him that the Projects Committee recommendation was to suspend the project, but that the board had not yet suspended the project. The Board is considering whether or not to suspend the project at this meeting.

Various other comments in favor of the project were heard from the audience. Houdersheldt expressed his concern that it would take a significant tax rate increase to fund the district’s share of the project, even if 75% of the funds for construction were available from other sources.

Turnbull said that if the project costs six million dollars, and the district is able to get a 75% grant from other sources, we would need to raise an additional $195,000 a year for five years. We currently have $470,000 set aside for this project. On a quarter section of irrigated land that would amount to $15 additional tax per year. To-date $55,000 in professional services and staff time have been spent on the project.

Board members expressed concerns about being unable to maintain an adequate lake level for recreation, as well as the high costs of the project, when the benefits are primarily recreation. Moore and others said they too were concerned about funding, but want to see further preliminary studies and mapping results before making a decision whether or not to suspend the

The Education & Parks Committee discussed removing old and planting new trees at the Ulysses Township Cemetery located in the SE ¼ of Section 29, Township 13 North, Range 2 East Butler County. Cemetery board representative Don Mashek presented plans on what the cemetery board wanted to accomplish. The current trees were planted in the early 1900's when the cemetery was laid out. The plans include planting one row of trees on the north and west which would consist of scotch pine, Austrian pine, and white pine spaced 18 feet apart. The total distance is approximately 950 feet. The plans are to use four and five foot pines at a cost of $90 each with a total number of 52 trees at a cost of $4,680. The state average cost for windbreak renovation for the District is $2,109.20 per acre. There would be twenty-two hundredths (.22) of an acre of trees that would need renovated for a cost-share rate of $460. The total cost of the project would be approximately $5,140. ITEM 21. REPORT OF WATER COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Teegerstrom reported that the Water Committee met on December 14, 2000 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 22. NEBRASKA ASSOCIATION OF RESOURCES DISTRICTS SPECIAL DUES ASSESSMENT.

This item was discussed by the Water Committee because there was no Budget, Planning and Legislative Committee meeting in December. The NARD’s Fiscal Planning and Budget Committee has recommended a special dues assessment of 8% to each NRD over a two-year period for a total of 16%. The first assessment would be made in March 2001. Dickinson reported that this is due to the NRCS paying only $9,000 of an expected $37,500, leaving a short fall of $28,500. NARD staff recommended several budget cuts to reduce the deficit. However, even with the additional assessment, the NARD cash reserve will be severely reduced. The committee discussed several concerns including the reduction of the NARD cash reserve, the NRD having to pay additional dues and the NRCS’ failure to meet their obligations and how the NRD could make up the additional cost in the budget without raising taxes.

Dickinson told the board that the NARD Fiscal Planning & Budget Committee had originally proposed a 16% special assessment. Some of the districts felt they couldn’t pay the full amount in one year, so it was suggested they assess half this fiscal year and half the next fiscal year. The NARD would use money from their cash reserve until the second half of the assessment is collected. Dickinson stated he did not want the NARD to use money from their cash reserve.

It was moved by Teegerstrom and seconded by Moore to continue to support the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts and pay the additional assessment.

The motion was amended by Austin and seconded by Buller to add “and to present the 16% increase as our preferred option in order to leave the cash reserve intact.” We approved the amendment.

ITEM 5. SUBDISTRICT SIX VACANCY.

Ed Ediger had filed for reelection to subdistrict six and was running unopposed. Ediger died February 25, 2000, after the filing deadline for non incumbents had passed. The Secretary of State’s office removed Ediger’s name from the ballot and there were no candidates for subdistrict six in either the primary or general election. On May 18, 2000, the Upper Big Blue
NRD Board interviewed three candidates for the seat in subdistrict six and appointed Jerl Joseph to fill the remainder of Ediger’s unexpired term, which ran until January 2001.

A vacancy again exists in subdistrict six. In light of the fact that it has been such a short time since the board advertised and interviewed for the seat in subdistrict six the Executive Committee has recommended that the board waive their operating policy on appointments to the board and reappoint Jerl Joseph to fill the vacancy in subdistrict six.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Volkmer that the Board of Directors waive Operating Policy No. 3: Directors’ Vacancies, and appoint Jerl Joseph for the remainder of the unexpired term in subdistrict six, which runs until January 2005. We approved the motion.

Turnbull advised the board that the AQWACAP report presented to the Water Committee for final payments incorrectly showed the landowner’s share instead of the NRD’s share for Harold Schlechte. The NRD share is $352.92. The correct total for all finals should be $1,688.78.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Regier to adopt the consent agenda with the correction to the AQWACAP final payments. We approved the motion.

ITEM 20.  PROJECT PRIORITIES.

The Projects Committee reviewed the status and priority of existing projects being conducted by the District. New priorities were assigned to expedite some projects that are nearing completion.
The Plum Creek Trail priority was set higher since NDOR has approved the TEA 21 grant; design will probably be done in 2001 and construction in 2002. The Henderson Industrial Park Drainage Improvement Project was set lower since the City has not adopted the plan, and is not currently pursuing funding for construction; final design remains to be completed. The Lincoln Creek Parkway Pedestrian Bridge priority was set lower since the foundation work is completed, and the NRD’s role is reduced to advisory and construction inspection.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Volkmer that the District adopts the following priorities for projects being conducted by the District:

ITEM 11. JANUARY PAYMENT OF NSWCP LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM FUNDS TO MARK JOST.

The January 2001 NSWCP payment request for Mark Jost should have been $3,892 rather than $2,268. The $1,624 increase was due to an NRCS design change from an 8" diameter to 10" diameter pipe at the time of construction. NRCS did not record the diameter change on the final payment request. Staff made the correction after the January board meeting and forwarded the corrected payment request to NDNR.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Austin that the NSWCP payment request for Mark Jost, which was approved at the January 2001 board of directors meeting, be increased from $2,268 to $3,892 to correct an error in the payment calculation. We approved the motion.

ITEM 12. CONSIDERATION OF NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICE.

The Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Program (NSWCP) has approved a new practice for “Subsurface Drip Irrigation Systems.” The practice is part of NC-17, Irrigation Water Management. Drip irrigation systems would be eligible for NSWCP cost-share if they are designed and installed in accordance with NRCS standards and specifications. The maximum cost-share would be 50% of county average cost, or 50% of actual cost, whichever is less. Cost-share would be allowed on only those systems that have been irrigated four of the five years prior to application, and utilize ground water as their water source. All components of the system are eligible, except pumping plants, fertilizer or chemical injection systems, and electrical components.

The Projects Committee discussed the practice, and reviewed the practice requirements and program description.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Brown that the District’s Land Treatment Programs be amended to include Subsurface Drip Irrigation as eligible for NSWCP cost-share under the practice NC-17, and that the Practice Description as reviewed by the Committee be adopted.

Following some discussion by the board on the need to cost-share on this type of practice and pursuant to Upper Big Blue NRD Operating Policy 9, Section X, Dickinson requested that the matter be held over until the March board of directors meeting.

ITEM 15. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Houdersheldt reported that the Executive Committee met on February 6, 2001 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

The Executive Committee reviewed past committee assignments and considered individual board member requests for committee assignments. They submitted their recommendations for committee assignments for the years 2001 and 2002.

Austin asked to be reassigned so that she could attend two committee meetings on the same day. She explained that she has to take time off work to attend meetings and this would keep her absence from work to a minimum. Houdersheldt was moved to Projects and Austin moved to Water. Each committee will select their own chair and vice chair. The committee assignments are listed below.

ITEM 7. NDNR REPORT.

Richard Jiskra advised the board of membership changes on the Commission this past year and highlighted some of the recent projects and activities.

The Swan Creek Project has been closed out and two properties have been sold. Site 9, which is on Hwy. 15 about 2 miles north of Western, consists of about 154 acres and sold for $212,190. It was purchased by four individuals primarily for hunting. There are 91 acres of cropland on the site that will be rented out. Site 31 located 3 miles east of Swanton has 160 acres, which are currently in CRP, and sold for $129,600. This site was purchased by an individual as an investment. The Commission had $107,000 invested in Site 31 and $114,000 in Site 9.

The Antelope Valley Project in Lincoln has been approved. It is a 170 million dollar, 20-year project. It starts at Holmes Lake in Southeast Lincoln and runs down past the University Campus around the Fairgrounds and empties into Salt Creek just north of the Fairgrounds. They are asking for 7.5 million from the Resources Development Fund. The funding will come in part from grant money, but will consist mostly of loaned money.

The Commission turned down funding for the Platte River Flood Enhancement Project. This was a project that would pump water from underneath the northwest part of Grand Island and take it down through their water system into the Platte River to enhance river flows. The Commission felt the project was a drainage project and not a flood control project.

The Western Sarpy County Clear Creek Flood Reduction Project starts at the Hwy. 6 bridge and crosses the Platte River and runs northwest up the Platte for about 8 miles. The proposal is to rebuild the dikes along that stretch to a 50-year flood level. It would involve some voluntary buyouts of property between the dikes and the river. Since the buyout is strictly voluntary, they don’t anticipate that they will get more than 10 percent of the properties bought.

The Big Papio Flood Control Channel Project is asking for $212,200 from the Small Watershed Control Fund for easements and rights-of-way. This will probably close out any further channel improvements on the Papio.

To-date the Environmental Trust Fund has had funding requests for 250 million dollars. There are 54 million in completed projects. This year there were 114 requests for 14 million dollars. They were able to approve 65 projects totaling 9 million dollars. They have also set up an endowment fund for donations to perpetuate the Environmental Trust Fund.

ITEM 8. NARD REPORT.

Dickinson handed out a summary of some of the current legislative bills that are of interest to the NRD. He advised the board that the NARD changed their position to support LB 791, which is the law governing how 25% of the proceeds from the State Lottery are distributed to the various funds. The proposed legislation would reduce the percentage to 18% for five years.

ITEM 9. NRCS REPORT.

Bill Gilliam introduced Nancy Schuerman of DeWitt. Nancy is the new NRD field office clerk at the York NRCS office. She began work for the district on March 12.

ITEM 10. RC&D REPORTS.

Volkmer reported on the activities of the Trailblazer RC&D. He told the board that the Trailblazer RC & D has not yet filled the position for a manager and they are still in the process of obtaining office space.

Teegerstrom gave a brief report for the Nebraska Great Plains RC& D. Their next meeting is March 19.

ITEM 11. WATER QUALITY FUNDING REPORT.

Turnbull handed out charts showing revenue sources for all NRDs as well as their current property tax levies and what portion of the property tax levy is going to water quality needs. He also showed the effects on the property tax levies if replacement of state water quality funds has to be funded with property taxes. He discussed some of the proposed legislation for funding
ITEM 12. LEGISLATIVE BILL LB 709.

Turnbull explained that he and others have been working with the state association to try to deal with LB 709 which is the bill that would restrict the NRDs use of eminent domain on a project that has recreation as a component. It is still before the Natural Resources Committee. The hearing was held within the last month. Several people from various project sites around the state testified in favor of the bill, including some from the Cordova area. Four testified against the bill representing the Upper Big Blue NRD, Lower Elkhorn NRD, Papio NRD and the Nebraska Sportsman’s Club. Turnbull has talked with Senators Stuhr, Kramer and Schrock. After talking with Senator Schrock, Turnbull said he felt it would be appropriate for this board to adopt the following resolution.

NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICTS EMINENT DOMAIN AUTHORITY

Whereas: The Legislature enabled Natural Resources Districts, through § 2-3229, to carry out 12 purposes, number 11 being “development and management of recreational and park facilities”;

Whereas: These 12 purposes have not been changed since the original enactment of the statutes creating Natural Resources Districts in 1969;

Whereas: Multipurpose projects may include several authorized purposes including recreation, without which certain projects would not be economically feasible;

Whereas: The public should have the right of public access on public lands and projects, built and paid for with the public’s money, as long as safety is not an overriding issue;

Whereas: Local control means local boards making decisions after weighing the facts including project purposes, siting, technical feasibility, benefits, costs, funding, advantages and disadvantages to area, public opinion, and impact to local property owners;

Whereas: The Natural Resources Districts have been given the authority of eminent domain to carry out their purposes because complete consensus of those affected by projects is not always possible;

Whereas: LB 709 would restrict the use of eminent domain by Natural Resources Districts for recreation facilities and works;
Therefore Be It Resolved that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors urges the Legislature’s Natural Resources Committee to kill LB 709.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Volkmer to adopt Resolution 2001-01 “LB 709 and Natural Resources Districts Eminent Domain Authority.” We approved the motion.

ITEM 15. COMMUNITY FORESTRY PROGRAM II FUNDING FOR CITY OF GENEVA.
Geneva’s City Administrator Bob Higel and city maintenance man Jim Quick gave a presentation about planting trees at the two parking lots that are adjacent to the Fillmore County Courthouse and also planting trees in the city park by the ballfield. The trees to be planted in these areas will be 6’ - 8’ tall and are Autumn Flame Maple, Red Sunset Maple, Sugar Maple, Patmore Ash, Autumn Gold Ginkgo, Flowering Crab, Bur Oak, Red Oak, Greenspine Linder, Clump River Birch, Thornless Hawthorn and Charticlaer Pear. The cities estimated cost is $2,000.

The District’s policy is to provide a 50% matching grant with a maximum of $1,000 and a minimum of $200 based on $1.00/capita. The population of Geneva is 2,310.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund 50% of the estimated cost of the trees and shrubs being planted at the city’s parking lots adjacent to the Fillmore County Courthouse and the city park in the amount not to exceed $1,000. ITEM 16. COMMUNITY FORESTRY PROGRAM I FUNDING FOR CITY OF YORK.

York City Administrator Jack Vavra and Jim Stansberry and Mary Evans from the York Senior Center presented the Committee with a tree planting plan for the new senior citizen’s complex to be constructed on the north side of the Community Center. These trees and shrubs will be planted along Grant Avenue, Eighth Street and Nebraska Avenue. The property is owned by the York School District, but the City will have a long-term lease on the property and will be the owners and operators of the Senior Citizen’s Center. The planting of the trees and shrubs will not take place until the spring of 2002. The estimated cost of this project is $8,670.82. The funds would be budgeted in the FY2002 budget.

The District policy for the Community Forestry Program I is that the District will provide a 50% matching grant with a maximum of $5,000 and a minimum of $200 based on $1.00/capita. The population of the City of York is 7,940. If this project is approved by the Board, an agreement between the City and the District will need to be written and signed.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District budget $4,500 in the FY2002 budget for the planting of trees and shrubs around the new Senior Citizen’s Center located adjacent to Grant Avenue, Eighth Street and Nebraska Avenue. We approved the motion.
ITEM 17.  CLARKS POND RESTORATION PROJECT IN THE CITY OF SUTTON.

Michael Yost and Jeff Palik of Olsson Associates and Pete Olson, Sutton’s City Administrator gave a presentation on Clarks Pond located in the City of Sutton.

Clarks Pond and the park area have been a great asset to the residents of Sutton and surrounding areas. In addition to ice-skating in the winter months, the pond had been used extensively for fishing in the summer months. Because of sedimentation, the pond currently has a surface area of .6 of an acre and a maximum depth of three feet. These degraded conditions have virtually eliminated the fishing and use of the pond. Impacts to the pond have also decreased the aesthetics of the entire park area.

The City of Sutton would like to expand the uses of Clarks Pond to include education as an outdoor classroom setting, and fishing. With the help of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln surface water quality extension program, local schools would be able to monitor water quality and sediment content in Clarks Pond before and after this project. The students would obtain a better understanding of watershed management concepts and the impacts of nutrients and sediments in runoff. These studies could be included as part of the schools’ curriculum. The Nebraska Game and Parks Commission would be able to stock Clarks Pond with various species of fish including bass, bluegill and channel catfish.

The watershed draining into Clarks Pond consists of approximately 159 acres of farmland and 28 acres of pastureland. Rainfall in this watershed is the only inflow to Clarks Pond. Sediment yield from this drainage area is estimated at 10 tons per acre per year. At this rate, the pond is filling up with sediment at .6 of a foot per year. A large detention cell and sediment storage basin is designed to be located upstream of Clarks Pond to provide some flood control and to reduce sediment and nutrient loading to Clarks Pond. The sediment storage in the detention cell will be 6 acre feet.

A wetland area is proposed to be constructed between Ash Street and Clarks Pond. The primary function of the wetland area will be to provide additional removal of sediment and nutrients. It will be constructed by building a small berm upstream of Clarks Pond. A structure will also be constructed directly north of Clarks Pond to control the water elevation in the wetland area. The wetland, which will be approximately 1/4 acre will be developed to promote a diversity of wetland plant species that will also provide unique habitat for biological organisms.

The project goals and objectives are as follows:
Goal 1. Improve the physical, chemical, and biological integrity of Clarks Pond.

Objective 1. Increase pond depth from the existing maximum of 3 feet to 12 feet over 25 percent of the pond’s surface area.

Objective 2. Stabilize 350 linear feet of eroding shoreline.

Goal 2. Maintain the physical, chemical, and biological integrity of Clarks Pond by reducing pollutant loading from the watershed, Objective 1. Decrease average annual watershed sediment loads to Clarks Pond from 800 tons per year to 200 tons per year.

The City is planning to receive $153,200 in Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality (NDEQ) - 319 Funds. $63,250 is to be received through the Community Lake Restoration Fund. The remaining $211,709 is the cost that the City of Sutton is left to pay. Any funds that the District would want to contribute toward the local share of this project would be budgeted in the FY2002 budget. If this project is approved by the Board, an agreement between the City and the District will need to be written and signed.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District budget $106,000 in FY2002 for the Clarks Pond Restoration Special Project located in the City of Sutton.

Houdersheldt stated he felt that $106,000 was too much for the size of the project. It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Jackson to amend the motion to read that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund up to 20% of the local share, not to exceed $40,000, in FY2002 for the Clarks Pond Restoration Special Project located in the City of Sutton.

Moore felt that if we are going to reduce the local share then we should use a 25% figure to remain consistent with our past funding on projects of this nature. Houdersheldt said he offered the 20% figure because he didn’t feel there was enough support from other board members to get 25%.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Eberle to amend the amendment to read that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund up to 25% of the local share, not to exceed $53,000, in FY 2002 for the Clarks Pond Restoration Special Project located in the City of Sutton. We approved the amendment.

ITEM 25. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM POLICY CHANGE.

The District’s current Land Treatment Program policy does not allow use of NRD funds for Practice NC-17, Irrigation Water Management. Only NSWCP funds can be used for this practice. Due to wet conditions, many of the earthwork practices for which funds are obligated, or could be obligated, will not be completed this fiscal year. This will leave a substantial balance of unused funds. As of the March Committee meeting there was an unobligated NRD fund balance of $16,170, and an unobligated NSWCP fund balance of $1,214.45.

The Projects Committee felt that allowing both NRD funds and NSWCP funds to be used for Practice NC-17 would allow more flexibility in the management of cost-share. If the policy is changed to allow Practice NC-17 to use either NRD or NSWCP funds, applications would still be filed initially as NSWCP, and state money would be used before NRD funds are used.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that the District’s Land Treatment Program policy be amended to allow either NRD funds or NSWCP funds to be used for cost-share on Irrigation Water Management Practice NC-17.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Jackson to amend the motion to read that the District’s Land Treatment Program policy be waived for the remainder of FY2001 to allow either NRD funds or NSWCP funds to be used for cost-share on Irrigation Water Management Practice NC-17. We approved the amendment.

ITEM 26. PAYMENTS OF NEBRASKA BUFFER STRIP PROGRAM FUNDS.

A total of 563.71 acres is currently under contract. The total annual payments on these acres are $41,588.22. The majority of contracts are for 10 years. Payments of $7,365.70 are now due on 14 contracts for the January through March quarter.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Brown that payments of Nebraska Buffer Strip Program funds be made in the amount of $7,365.70 for 14 contracts reviewed by the Committee. We approved the motion as part of the consent agenda.

ITEM 27. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICES FOR RANGE MANAGEMENT.

Bill Gilliam and Jan Joseph of NRCS were present at the Projects Committee meeting to explain Practice NC-10, “Pasture Planting or Range Seeding” and Practice NC-14, “Planned Grazing Systems.” Jan estimates there are 110,515 acres of rangeland and 57,884 acres of pasture/hayland in Fillmore, Hamilton, Polk, Seward, and York Counties. Jan also estimated that approximately 63,701 acres of the rangeland is in fair to poor condition, and 25,397 acres of the pasture/hayland is under low management. The Committee felt that both practices NC-10 and NC-14 should be eligible for cost-share in order to help preserve what little pasture and hayland remains in the District.

If the District approves these practices as eligible for cost-share, staff recommends that cost-share not be allowed on boundary fencing, suspended cross fencing (NC-14, Item A(2)), and rodent control (NC-14, Item C). Cost-share on these practices would be subject to the 75% rate, and maximum of $5,000 per landowner per year.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that the District’s Land Treatment Program be amended to include Planned Grazing Systems, Practice NC-14, and Pasture Planting or Rangeland Seeding, Practice NC-10, and that cost share be subject to the 75% rate and $5,000 per landowner per year maximum consistent with other Land Treatment Program cost-share practices, and that cost-share not be allowed on boundary fencing, suspended cross fencing (NC-14, Item A(2)), and rodent control (NC-14, Item C).
It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Buller to amend the motion that cost-share not be allowed on well drilling and casing (NC-14, Item B(1)(a)(b) and (c).

Gilliam told the board that if we eliminated well construction from the planned grazing system then we are restricting people who want to develop pasture land or range land. The question of how to water the livestock without a well was also raised.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Moore to refer the matter back to the Projects Committee. We approved the motion.

ITEM 28. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICE FOR SUBSURFACE DRIP IRRIGATION.

The motion to consider approving Drip Irrigation, Practice NC-17, as eligible for Land Treatment Program cost-share was held over from the February 15, 2001 Board Meeting.

The motion was made by Jackson and seconded by Brown that the District’s Land Treatment Program be amended to include Subsurface Drip Irrigation as eligible for NSWCP cost-share under the practice NC-17, and that the practice description, as reviewed by the Committee, be adopted. We approved the motion.

ITEM 29. SCHOOL CREEK FLOOD PLAIN MAPPING FOR CITY OF SUTTON.

Staff requested that the Interlocal Agreement between the District and City of Sutton be amended to extend project completion to June 30, 2003, and to modify wording in Section 7.02 so that amendments to the Agreement become effective upon approval by the District Board and City Council. Extension of the completion date is needed to allow more time to collect documents needed by FEMA and provide sufficient time for FEMA to respond to the City’s request for mapping.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin that the Interlocal Agreement between the District and City of Sutton, dated April 13, 1999, that provides for assistance in flood plain mapping, be amended to change the termination date, Sections 2.02 and 2.03, from June 30, 2001 to June 30, 2003, and to change the words “30 days after” in Section 7.02 to “upon.” We approved the motion.
ITEM 30.  BIG BLUE RIVER FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECT AT SEWARD.

Claim eight has been submitted for expenditures on the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project. The total amount of the claim is $191,508.06. FEMA’s share is $143,631.05. The City’s share is $23,938.51 and the NRD’s share is $23,938.50.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Luebbe that a payment of $23,938.50 from NRD funds be made to the City of Seward and that the District file a claim in the amount of $143,631.05 for the FEMA share of claim eight of the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project, and that $143,631.05 of the FEMA share be paid to the City when it is received by the District. ITEM 9. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICES FOR RANGE MANAGEMENT.

At the March 2001 Board Meeting the Projects Committee recommended including Practice NC-10, “Pasture Planting or Range Seeding” and Practice NC-14, “Planned Grazing Systems” as eligible cost-share practices in the Land Treatment Program. After some discussion by the Board this item was referred back to Committee for additional consideration.

The Projects Committee discussed the following concerns that were raised by the Board:

Q. If cost-share is provided for a stock well, would we be cost-sharing on wells that could be used for irrigation?
A. The well would be sized based on NRCS technical guidelines for stock wells. The NRCS determines well size based on number of animals and type of grazing rotation; this is generally five to six gallons per day per animal. The number of animals is based on acres of grassland in each rotation. A typical stock well has capacity between 50 gallons per minute and 100 gallons per minute. An irrigation well would generally be at least 500 gallons per minute.

Q. If cost-share is provided for a stock well, what assurance do we have that the well would not be used for other than livestock?

A. Our Land Treatment Program policy requires the practice to be maintained for the life of the practice. For NC-10 the expected life is 10 years, and for NC-14 the expected life is five years. Stock wells would be cost-shared under Practice NC-14. If the practice is abandoned, or altered to be out of compliance, within the design life, cost-share must be repaid. Using a stock well for a purpose other than stock watering during the five-year design life would require cost-share repayment.

Q. Will there be sufficient cost-share funds if we add practices NC-10 and NC-14?

A. At this time the demand for Practices NC-10 and NC-14 does not appear to be high. On this basis, there should be sufficient cost-share funds available.

Staff recommends that Practices NC-10 and NC-14 be approved as eligible for cost-share under the Land Treatment Program, and that cost-share be available for all components except boundary fencing, suspended cross fencing, and rodent control.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Volkmer that the District’s Land Treatment Program be amended to include Planned Grazing Systems, Practice NC-14, and Pasture Planting or Rangeland Seeding, Practice NC-10, and that NC-14 components for boundary fencing, suspended cross fencing, and rodent control not be eligible for cost-share, and that the cost-share rates for these practices be 75% of county average or 75% of actual cost, whichever is least, subject to the District’s policy of $5,000 per landowner per year maximum cost-share. We approved the motion.

ITEM 14. INTERLOCAL AGREEMENTS FOR NRCS FIELD OFFICES.

The District has shared the costs of field office clerks and technicians with the surrounding NRDs since July 1, 1972, when the NRDs started. This has been by an informal unwritten agreement. The Little Blue NRD has suggested an interlocal agreement for shared personnel services be signed by both NRDs for two reasons.

1 - To formalize in writing the long standing informal agreement
2 - To allow NRDs to exempt the field office salary costs from the two and one-half percent lid.

The exemption is possible because the Legislature encourages local governments to work together by allowing the costs associated with interlocal agreements to be exempted from the lid.

The manager recommends that an interlocal agreement be signed with each of the surrounding NRDs for field office staff costs, and that each agreement reflect the unwritten understandings with each NRD. The proposed agreements are with the Central Platte, Little Blue, Lower Big Blue, Lower Platte South, and the Lower Platte North NRDs. The main points covered in the agreements are:

- NRDs in the agreement
- which NRD has the staffing responsibility in each county
- the staffing responsibility which includes hiring, supervision, hours worked, pay rates and benefits
- how the cost of staffing is split between the NRDs
- how often the costs are reimbursed

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to approve the interlocal agreements for shared personnel services with the Central Platte, Little Blue, Lower Big Blue, Lower Platte South, and the Lower Platte North Natural Resources Districts as presented. We approved the motion.

We received two applications for the Burke Scholarship, one from Aurora and one from York. Jonathon Soper of Aurora has been selected to receive the scholarship. He will attend UNL to study wildlife biology.

ITEM 18. REQUEST FOR FUNDING TO LANDSCAPE YORK COLLEGE STUDENT PLAZA.

Todd Faller of Faller Landscaping and Nursery and Randy Givens with York College presented the Committee with a tree, shrub and native grass planting plan that the college wishes to plant in the spring of 2001. The area is to be located on the north side of the new student union and the planting is being designed by Todd Faller. The planted area would be used as a study area for the science classes as well as a gathering area for students to relax. The total estimated cost of the project is $6,606.50.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund the York College Student Plaza and Biological study area at a cost not exceed $1,660 for the tree, shrub and native grass plantings as designed by Todd Faller of Faller Landscaping and Nursery. We approved the motion.

ITEM 19. AGREEMENT WITH NEBRASKA DEPARTMENT OF ROADS FOR PLUM CREEK HIKING & BICYCLE TRAIL.
The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District is the grant sponsor for the Plum Creek Hiking and Bicycle Trail. The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District will need to enter into an Agreement with the Nebraska Department of Roads to construct a concrete hiking and bicycle trail with funds made available through the Transportation Enhancement Program located along Plum Creek on the east edge of Seward beginning at the city’s North Park on Karol Kay Boulevard and ending south of State Highway 34 on Columbia Avenue. Four pedestrian foot bridges will also be constructed along the trail where it crosses Plum Creek. The total project cost is $850,186.

The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District was successful in receiving a federal grant through the Transportation Enhancement Program sponsored by the Nebraska Department of Roads which will pay a maximum of 59% of the eligible cost, up to a maximum payment of federal funds of $500,000.

The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District is responsible for the remaining $350,186 or a matching share of 41% of the project costs.

The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District has also received a $100,000 grant through the Trails Development Assistance Fund sponsored by the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission for a matched share of 12% of project costs.

The City of Seward will reimburse the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District in the amount of $176,186 or 20% of the project cost.

The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District has agreed to pay half of the engineering costs not to exceed $37,000 and also contribute $37,000 to the construction of the project for a total of $74,000.

The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District will need to budget the engineering cost and a portion of the construction cost in the FY2002 budget and the remaining portion of the construction cost would be budgeted in FY2003.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Moore that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District enter into an agreement with the Nebraska Department of Roads for the construction of the Plum Creek Hiking and Bicycle Trail (Project #STPB-80(27) State Control #12557) along Plum Creek located on the east side of the City of Seward beginning at the city’s North Park on Karol Kay Boulevard and ending south of State Highway 34 at Columbia Avenue; and this project be designed and constructed in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Agreement with the Nebraska Department of Roads. The land that was previously farmed will be planted to grass and the entire quarter section will be managed as grass land and pasture in accordance with a conservation easement. The landowner would like to proceed with the project plan and is willing to enter into an agreement which specifies the landowner’s and District’s responsibilities. The conversion of crop land to grass and pasture will be done as either an EQIP or NSWCP (NC-10 and NC-14) land treatment cost share application. constructed on a cost share basis between the landowner and the District. In accordance with the project agreement, the landowner will reimburse the District for 25% of this cost and the District will provide engineering and pay for 75% of the cost. The Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality has approved an $80,410 grant to be used toward the District’s share of cost. Based on a cost estimate of $150,000, the landowner’s share would be $37,500, the grant would pay $80,410 and the District’s share would be $32,090 plus engineering cost, which is estimated to be $15,000.

In accordance with the project agreement, the landowner will continue to own the land and will be responsible for annual routine maintenance. The District will be responsible for design, construction, and major structural repair due to flooding or natural deterioration. The landowner will grant a conservation easement and easement for District to have ingress and egress rights on the entire SE¼ of Section 3, Township 8 North, Range 2 West for the purpose of construction, inspection, and maintenance.

ITEM 13. RATIFICATION OF AGREEMENT WITH STATE OF NEBRASKA GAME & PARK’S COMMISSION FOR THE PLUM CREEK HIKING & BICYCLE TRAIL.

The Nebraska Game & Parks Commission needed to show that their allocation of monies for trail projects had been allocated by June 1, 2001. John Turnbull contacted Board Chairman Wayne Hansen to discuss the matter. It was decided that John Turnbull, General Manager for the Upper Big Blue NRD, should sign the Trails Development Assistance Fund Project Agreement to prevent the loss of the $100,000 grant from Game & Parks and have the Committee and Board review the Agreement later.

Nancy Chitwood, who is the NRD Field Office Clerk at both the Aurora and Osceola NRCS offices, was presented with an engraved paper weight in appreciation for five years of service to the District. Nancy Schneider, Office Manager, was recognized with a laser engraved letter opener for her 20 years with the NRD.

ITEM 10. ADOPTION OF FY 2002 BUDGET.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Eberle to adopt the FY 2002 Budget. We approved the motion.

ITEM 11. REPORT OF EDUCATION AND PARKS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Bruns reported that the Education and Parks Committee met on August 7, 2001 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 12. UPPER BIG BLUE NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICT CONSERVATION AWARD.

Traditionally, the District sends its conservation award winners on as nominees for the Omaha World-Herald’s Master Conservationist. This year, we reversed the order and sent the Master Conservationist nominations in first.

The District’s nomination for the Master Conservationist Production Agriculture award is Lloyd Smith (great uncle) and Jeff (great nephew) and Melissa Scow of Shelby. Lloyd Smith died at home earlier this month at the age of 91. Jeff and Melissa Scow continue the family tradition of conservation started by Lloyd’s grandfather on the farm in Polk County.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Houdersheldt to present the 2001 Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District’s Conservation Award for Production Agriculture to Jeff and Melissa Scow. We approved the motion.
ITEM 13. LITTLE BLESSINGS PRESCHOOL OUTDOOR CLASSROOM GRANT APPLICATION.

Faith Lutheran Church operates a 60-child preschool, Little Blessings Preschool, in York. The preschool wants to develop an outdoor classroom and has applied for a matching grant under the District’s Outdoor Classrooms for School Grant Program. Prudence has been helping them with design options.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Volkmer to approve the Little Blessings Preschool’s application for outdoor classroom cost-share assistance under the Upper Big Blue NRD’s Outdoor Classrooms for Schools Grant Program for 50 percent of the local cost of vegetative materials and other related items with the amount paid not to exceed $800. We approved the motion.

ITEM 14. PAYMENT TO YORK COLLEGE FOR TREE AND SHRUB PLANTING AT THE STUDENT PLAZA.

On April 19, 2001, the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors voted to fund the tree, shrub and native grass planting, as designed by Todd Faller of Faller Landscaping and Nursery, at a cost not to exceed $1,660. The area will be used as a study area for science classes and a gathering area for students. The total cost of the project was $6,960.41. The estimated cost was $6,606.50. Twenty-five percent of the total project cost is $1,740.10.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District make payment of $1,660 for the trees, shrubs and native grasses planted for the York College Student Plaza located north of the Mackey Center Student Union. We approved the motion.

ITEM 15. PROPOSAL TO CONSTRUCT A SHELTER AT THE OXBOW TRAIL RESERVOIR.

Tom Kadavy representing the Recreation Center for the Village of Ulysses presented the idea of constructing a shelter at Oxbow Trail Reservoir located east of Ulysses. According to Tom, there is a lot of interest in Ulysses and the surrounding area that a shelter would be beneficial and would get a considerable amount of use. Tom stated that he thought he would get enough help to construct the shelter if the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District would purchase the materials. Once the plan and cost estimates are put together, the project would be brought to the NRD Board for approval.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District staff work with Tom Kadavy in planning cost estimates for a shelter at Oxbow Trail Reservoir located east of Ulysses. We approved the motion.

ITEM 16. PLUM CREEK TRAIL GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING, PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE FOUNDATIONS.

Proposals for geotechnical engineering were requested from Terracon, Inc. and Geotechnical Services, Inc. Each firm was provided a scope of work as the basis for their proposal. The following is a summary of proposals submitted:

Terracon’s rates per foot of drilling and testing are higher than those of Geotechnical Services ($15.36/ft. Vs $9.50/ft) and Terracon’s mobilization rate is also higher. Terracon proposed about double the amount of laboratory testing and engineering analysis. The actual number of feet of drilling might be greater than shown in the proposals, since the depth of drilling will depend on materials encountered in the field.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Dickinson that Geotechnical Services, Incorporated be awarded the contract for geotechnical engineering on the Plum Creek Trail pedestrian bridges at Seward, and that the District Engineer be authorized to approve additional drilling if necessary. We approved the motion.
ITEM 17. REPORT OF WATER COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Brown reported that the Water Committee met on August 7, 2001 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 18. *AQUIFER QUALITY WELL ABANDONMENT COST-SHARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FINAL PAYMENTS.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Brown to make cost-share payments for seven well abandonments totaling $2,589.88. We approved the motion as part of the consent agenda.

ITEM 19. PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE AQUIFER QUALITY WELL ABANDONMENT COST-SHARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.

LB 667, became law at the end of the legislative session. It includes language that restricts who can decommission a well. The law now requires a licensed water well contractor or pump installer to do this work except for driven sandpoint wells. Because of this change the staff recommends the District require a licensed water well contractor or pump installation contractor be used to qualify for cost-share under the AQWACAP program.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Regier to approve changes to the Aquifer Quality Well Abandonment Cost-share Assistance Program requiring that all activities, related to the proper decommissioning of a well, must be conducted by a licensed water well contractor or licensed pump installation contractor. We approved the motion.

ITEM 20. REPORT OF PROJECTS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.
Houdersheldt reported that the Projects Committee met on August 9, 2001 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 21. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM POLICY REVISION.

During the past three years of Land Treatment Program operation, 65.8% of cost-share funds have been expended on soil conservation practices, such as terraces, dams, and waterways. Irrigation water conservation and management practices have used 32.7% of the funds, and windbreak renovation and tree planting practices have used 1.5% of the funds.

Our current policy does not allow NRD funds to be used for irrigation water conservation and management practices (NC-17); only state funds (NSWCP) can be used for these practices. Staff recommends that this restriction be removed, and that NC-17 practices be eligible for either NRD or NSWCP funds. This change in policy will allow more flexibility in allocating cost-share funds. If the policy is changed as recommended, the staff will continue to allocate all NSWCP funds before using NRD funds.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Friesen that the Land Treatment Program policy be amended to allow both NSWCP and NRD funds to be used for NC-17, irrigation water conservation and management practices. We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICES.

The Nebraska State Legislature has appropriated $500,000 for cost-share on water meters in FY2002, and an additional $500,000 for FY2003. The cost-share is to be used for measurement of groundwater pumped for industrial, commercial, and agricultural uses in groundwater management areas located outside the Republican River Basin. The cost-share is not available for meters to measure ground water use from government or domestic wells. The Natural Resources Commission appropriated the $500,000 to the NSWCP cost-share program for each NRD with a groundwater management area, based on the number of registered irrigation wells in the management area. The Upper Big Blue NRD’s appropriation from this fund for FY2002 is $99,430.07 based on 12,596 registered wells. The Commission has not yet decided how unobligated funds will be reallocated at the end of this fiscal year.

Staff recommends that a cost-share practice be added to the Land Treatment Program for water meters. The following is a summary of the recommended water meter practice:

- Each landowner is eligible for cost-share on up to eight meters per year to measure groundwater pumping from commercial, industrial, and agricultural wells.
• The pumping rate from each well must be at least 50 gallons per minute
• The cost-share rate is 50% of county average cost, or 50% of actual cost, whichever is least
• Maximum cost-share per meter is $600
• Minimum cost-share per application is $100
• Only NSWCP funds will be used for this practice
• Landowners receiving NSWCP cost-share on water meters will continue to be eligible for an additional $5,000 maximum cost-share per year for other practices paid with NRD and NSWCP funds
• Landowners receiving cost-share for water meters will be responsible for reporting total water used each calendar year for a period of ten years. If the use is agricultural, the landowner will also be required to report acres irrigated and crop type Flow meters must meet the NRD’s groundwater management area specifications, and must be installed in accordance with NRCS technical guidelines.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Eberle that the District adopt an NSWCP Land Treatment Program cost-share practice for water meters. We approved the motion.

AYE: Brown, Bruns, Buller, Eberle, Friesen, Houdersheldt, Jackson, Joseph, Luebbe, Moore, Regier, Hansen

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Regier that the NSWCP practice description for cost-share on water meters, developed by the Projects Committee be adopted. We approved the motion.

ITEM 23. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM NC-17 IRRIGATION REPORTING.

Staff requested that the Board of Directors establish a policy for recovering cost-share funds from NSWCP NC-17 cost-share applicants who refuse to report their irrigation water use, and who do not respond to requests for repayment of cost-share funds.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Moore that the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources be requested to take action to recover NSWCP cost-share funds from NSWCP NC-17 cost-share applicants who do not report their irrigation water use, and who do not respond to requests for repayment of cost-share funds. We approved the motion.

ITEM 24. INDIAN CREEK PROJECT PROPOSALS FOR DRILLING AND TESTING.

Proposals for geotechnical engineering at two possible dam and reservoir sites were requested from Terracon, Inc. and Geotechnical Services, Inc. Each firm was provided a scope of work as the basis for their proposal. The following is a summary of proposals submitted:

<tr>
<th>Item of Work</th>
<th>Geotechnical Services</th>
<th>Terracon</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Mobilization $500 $1,700
Drilling and Sampling $3,420 $7,100
Laboratory Testing $1,220 $4,758
Engineering Analysis $1,260 $4,780
Collect Infiltration Data $5,200 $7,775
Total $11,600 $26,113

Terracon proposed to do 670 feet of drilling and Dutch Cone testing, and Geotechnical Services proposed 360 feet of drilling with no Dutch Cone testing. Terracon proposed 94 laboratory tests, and Geotechnical Services proposed 40 laboratory tests. The actual number of feet of drilling might be greater than shown in the proposals, since the depth of drilling will depend on materials encountered in the field.

Staff recommends that Geotechnical Services, Inc. be awarded the contract for preliminary feasibility geotechnical engineering on the Indian Creek Dam and Reservoir, and that the District Engineer be authorized to approve additional drilling if necessary.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that Geotechnical Services, Inc. be awarded a contract, in accordance with their proposal dated July 26, 2001, for preliminary feasibility geotechnical engineering and collection of infiltration data at two proposed dam sites located on Indian Creek, and that the District Engineer be authorized to approve additional drilling if needed. We approved the motion.

NAY: Jackson, Luebbe

Austin expressed concern that the motion didn’t include a dollar limit, in the event additional drilling was needed. It was moved by Austin and seconded by Buller that if additional drilling is needed the total cost is not to exceed $16,600 for the contract. The motion failed.

ITEM 25. INDIAN CREEK PROJECT SITE ACCESS FOR DRILLING AND TESTING.
The Board of Directors previously authorized staff to study the feasibility of two reservoir sites near Cordova. In order to determine foundation suitability, soil characteristics, and reservoir seepage rates, it is necessary for drilling and testing be conducted at each site. Staff reviewed the scope of work required for drilling and testing at the proposed upstream and downstream dam sites.

Although staff has obtained permission from some landowners to allow drilling and testing, permission is still needed on some lands. Staff requested that the Board of Directors decide whether or not to seek legal action, if necessary, to obtain access on lands where permission has been denied.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Volkmer that staff be authorized to proceed with legal action to obtain access for drilling and testing on the Indian Creek Project where voluntary access has not been granted. We approved the motion.

ITEM 26. LINCOLN CREEK PARKWAY PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE.

The foundation work is completed and all components for the bridge superstructure have been fabricated and shipped to the bridge site. The Leadership Center has agreed to fund the bridge railings, and Kansas Structural Composites will ship and install the bridge decking. Work remaining includes assembling the bridge components, lifting the bridge into place, and painting the superstructure with primer and finish coat.

Work completed to date was done with some grant money and some donated services. The City of Aurora is requesting that the NRD work with the City to fund and manage a construction contract to assemble, place, and paint the bridge superstructure.

A draft Interlocal Agreement was reviewed by the Projects Committee. It is proposed that the District provide staff to solicit bids from contractors, act as the contracting agency, provide construction surveys, provide quality control review during construction, and pay for 20% of the construction cost for assembling, painting, and placing the bridge superstructure. The City would pay for 80% of the construction cost for assembling, painting, and placing the bridge superstructure.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin that the District offer to assist the City of Aurora with completion of the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge across Lincoln Creek in accordance with the terms and conditions of the draft Interlocal Agreement reviewed by the Committee. We approved the motion.
ITEM 27. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Buller reported that the Executive Committee met on August 9, 2001 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 28. SALARY REIMBURSEMENTS FOR NRCS FIELD OFFICE PERSONNEL.

An invoice for $7,097.50 has been received from the Little Blue NRD for salaries for the Adams and Clay County NRCS clerks for the past 12 months ending on June 30. We have also been invoiced $4,095.20 by the Lower Big Blue NRD for salaries for the Saline County NRCS clerk and some part-time technician work for the past 12 months ending June 30. The Lower Platte North NRD has submitted a bill for $5,653.78 for salaries for the Butler County NRCS clerk and some part-time technician work for the past six months.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Hultman to approve payments of $7,097.50 to the Little Blue NRD for NRCS office salaries for FY2001 (July 1, 2000 - June 30, 2001); $4,095.20 to the Lower Big Blue NRD for NRCS office salaries for FY 2001 (July 1, 2000 - June 30, 2001); and $5,653.78 to the Lower Platte North NRD for NRCS office salaries for half of FY2001 (January 1 - June 30, 2001.) We approved the motion.

ITEM 29. FISCAL YEAR 2002 NARD DUES AND SPECIAL ASSESSMENT.

The NARD dues have been set for FY2002. The NARD budget was adopted at the June Association meeting. The amount payable is $15,730, $2,244 of which is the special assessment to make up for the shortfall in NRCS staff position funding.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Houdersheldt to approve payment of $15,730 to the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts for FY2002 dues and special assessment. We approved the motion.

The Nebraska Forest Services is no longer involved with the Nebraska Conservation Tree program. The NARD will be responsible for ordering trees from the U.S. Forest Service and the NRD will purchase their trees through the NARD.

The Education & Parks Committee reviewed the draft Interlocal Agreement between the NARD and NRD. The Interlocal Agreement will not be finalized until after the NARD Conference in late September. The Committee is asking the Board of Directors to authorize the Chairman of the Board to sign the agreement once it has been finalized, provided there are no major changes in the Agreement.

ITEM 13. *AQUIFER QUALITY WELL ABANDONMENT COST-SHARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM FINAL PAYMENTS.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Austin to make cost-share payments for eight well abandonments totaling $2,548.41. We approved the motion as part of the consent agenda.

ITEM 14. 2001 MONITORING WELL NETWORK RESULTS.

The Committee reviewed a graph showing the median nitrate level in the 12 management zones. The zones sampled in 2001 were 2, 4, 5, 9, 10, 11, 12. Zones 2 and 5 both have a median nitrate level of 8.3 parts per million. This is slightly lower than last year for Zone 5 but is an increase of 0.5 p.p.m. for Zone 2. The median nitrate in Zone 2 has risen from 5.8 to 8.3 in just 4 years. This rapid increase prompted the staff to look at what could be done to make residents in Zone 2 more aware of this and what they could do about it.

ITEM 15. PROPOSED 319 GRANT TO ADDRESS ZONE 2 NITRATE LEVELS.

In this project the NRD with cooperation from Cooperative Extension and NRCS would sample all of the domestic wells in Zone 2 over a two-year period. There are approximately 500 farmsteads in this area. Each participant would be provided with information and offered technical assistance on how they could address the nitrate contamination problem. The estimated cost of the three-year project is $118,099. The 319 grant would cover $70,858 of the cost. No new staffing is proposed. The application needed to be submitted by September 17, 2001. Therefore, the Committee directed the staff to proceed and asked the board to approve the submittal after the fact, or direct the staff to withdraw the application.
It was moved by Brown and seconded by Bruns to approve the submittal of the Rural Ground Water Quality Awareness Grant Application to the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality. We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. PAYMENT TO YORK INSURANCE AGENCY FOR ADDITIONAL INSURANCE PREMIUM.

York Insurance Agency informed the District on October 11 of a change in the premium on the liability, fire and auto insurance. The initial premium was $35,205. An additional premium of $1,934 is due for umbrella coverage over the linebacker liability policy. The umbrella coverage provided $2,000,000 over all of the auto, fire, and liability policy’s limits except for the linebacker policy. Its limit is $1,000,000. Employers Mutual placed the umbrella coverage over the linebacker policy on July 1, so the total coverage for the linebacker policy is $3,000,000. The linebacker policy covers directors and employees of the District and insures for wrongful acts, actual or alleged errors, misstatement or misleading statements, acts or omissions or neglect or breach of duty by district, directors or employees.

Turnbull and Schneider met with Scott Nelson of York Insurance on Friday, October 12. Scott said that his firm did not order the additional coverage. Mr. Nelson explained that the umbrella policy did not cover the linebacker policy in past years. It is up to the District whether to keep the additional coverage as written by Employers Mutual. However, our agent feels it might be prudent to have the higher limit of coverage. If the Board decides to keep the additional coverage the premium of $1,934 needs to be paid. Turnbull recommends that the District pay the $1,934 for the additional coverage.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Houdersheldt that the District approve the payment of $1,934 to York Insurance Agency for the additional umbrella insurance premium. We approved the motion.

ITEM 23. APPROVAL OF ELECTION SUBDISTRICTS.

The Executive Committee recommended adoption of Subdistrict Idea #4. The Executive Committee’s recommended plan does not require any existing board member to run against another existing board member, although two directors will be in different subdistricts. After some discussion Curt Friesen asked that the matter be held over until the October 18 board meeting, as provided in Operating Policy 9.

It was moved by Hultman and seconded by Moore that the district continue to have eight election subdistricts; to continue to nominate candidates from subdistricts and from the district at large who shall be elected by the registered voters of the entire district; and to immediately realign the Upper Big Blue NRD election subdistrict boundaries as shown in Subdistrict Idea #4. ITEM 13. NEBRASKA WATER CONSERVATION COOPERATIVE AND THE PIPING PLOVER CRITICAL HABITAT.

Stan Staab, General Manager of the Lower Elkhorn NRD, made a presentation to the Committee about the Nebraska Water Conservation Cooperative (Coalition). The Coalition was formed in 1993 to challenge the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission on instream flow water rights the
The Coalition membership consists of several NRDs, including the Central Platte and Lower Elkhorn NRDs, as well as power and irrigation districts and Nebraska Water Users.

The Coalition decided to be active in the Piping Plover critical habitat issue in Nebraska. The US Fish and Wildlife Service has announced their intent to designate an area from Lexington to the mouth of the Platte as critical habitat for the Plover. Other areas of the state along the Niobrara and Missouri are also being considered. If the designation is successful much of the Platte Basin will be impacted.

The draft environmental assessment by US Fish and Wildlife Service lists groundwater withdrawal as an activity adversely affecting the critical habitat of the Piping Plover. It was pointed out that this looks like an end run on the Cooperative Agreement between Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska and the Department of Interior.

The Coalition is recruiting other NRDs to join. The Coalition needs member districts for political and financial strength. Each partner has an equal vote and will share the expense to ensure that the US Fish and Wildlife Service proves all aspects of the critical habitat designation or ends their effort to make such designation. Stan Staab asked the Upper Big Blue NRD to join the Coalition through an Interlocal Agreement.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Upper Big Blue NRD join the Nebraska Water Conservation Cooperative (Coalition). We approved the motion.

ITEM 8. PAYMENT TO BETTGER BROTHERS FOR WILD NEBRASKA CONTRACT.

In November 2000 the NRD Board of Directors voted to accept the agreement with Bettger Brothers of Fairmont for the WILD Nebraska Habitat Program. The 40-acre tract is located in the NE ¼ of Section 25, T8N, R3W of the 6th P.M., Fillmore County, Nebraska. During this past year, 19 acres have been reseeded to a warm season grass mix. The Bettger Brothers are also eligible to receive $3/acre on 27 acres for public access and $15/acre for ground preparation on the 19 acres that were seeded to a warm season grass mix. It is policy under the WILD Nebraska program not to pay more than $80/acre for grass seed. In this case the grass seed was purchased at two different times, at two different prices. The first purchase for six acres of grass seed came to $91.25/acre. The second purchase of the same mix for the remaining acres came to $65.58/acre.

The Bettger Brothers will be receiving $120/year for public access on the entire 40 acres for the remaining nine years of the contract. They also have the option of planting trees and shrubs around the area, in which case they would be eligible to receive a payment for the trees and planting cost. The NRD share is $424.62.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District make payment of $1698.50 to the Bettger Brothers for the planting of warm season grasses and public access on their lands located in the NE ¼ of SE 25, T8N, R3W of the 6th P.M., Fillmore County, Nebraska under the WILD Nebraska program. ITEM 21.  CHANGES TO 457 DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN.

The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 passed by the US Congress allows significant changes to retirement plans and individual retirement accounts. Because of the detailed legal language involved in the Act, William Kutilek, one of Steve Seglin’s partners, was hired to review and rewrite the District’s deferred compensation plan to bring it into compliance.

The deferred compensation plan was originally adopted by the Board of Directors in November of 1997. Currently 10 of the 19 District employees defer about $17,000 of their annual wages through the plan. The total value of the plan on June 30 was $49,484, which is invested in various mutual funds of each employee’s choosing. The funds are managed by Gene Buhman, the Ameritas agent in York. The District does not contribute any money toward the plan.

The two main changes in the plan are (1) a major increase in the allowable amount (to a maximum of $15,000 from $8,000) that can be deferred each year, and (2) the ability of an employee to rollover money held in the plan to other qualified retirement plans.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Austin to approve the changes in the Upper Big Blue NRD’s Deferred Compensation Plan as recommended by legal counsel. We approved the motion.

ITEM 6. NRCS REPORT.

Bill Gilliam distributed copies of the 2001 Nebraska Report of Natural Resources Conservation Activities to the board. Gilliam pointed out that local cooperators Helen and Kent Blender are featured in the Wetlands Reserve Program section of the report. He advised the board that there are currently five WRP sites under construction in the District. Nebraska has received fund approval for the Great Plains RC&D and Prairie Land RC&D and they will be advertising for full time coordinators and part time secretarial assistance in the next few months. The locations of the offices have not yet been determined.

ITEM 7. NEBRASKA DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES REPORT.

Richard Jiskra advised the board that the NDNR submitted a report on carbon sequestration to the Legislature by the December 3 deadline. The submission of the report makes it possible for Nebraska to take advantage of funds through the Department of Agriculture, which might provide money for a demonstration project. He reviewed the Nebraska Resources Development Fund budget with the 4-5% reductions.

ITEM 8. INDIAN CREEK PROJECT.

Jayne Petersen addressed the board and provided written comments from herself and son Jon. The written comments stated their objections to the project in general, the possible dangers to themselves and neighbors as the result of road closures and their desire for the board to halt the project.

The board took no action on the matter. Chairman Hansen thanked Mrs. Petersen for her comments and advised her that the Projects Committee would be reviewing the geotechnical engineering data and any possible recommendations in the near future.

ITEM 9. EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION.

Ken Feather was recognized for 25 years of service to the District. He was presented with a
ITEM 10. REPORT OF EDUCATION AND PARKS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Bruns reported that the Education and Parks Committee met on January 8, 2002 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 11. FILLMORE COUNTY CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL REQUEST FOR SPECIAL PROJECT.

In October 2000, the Board approved a grant for an outdoor classroom for the Fillmore County Central High School under the District’s Outdoor Classroom Program. Under the program guidelines, the school is eligible for 50 percent of the local share of plants and related materials, not to exceed $800. To date, no money has been paid under this grant.

The complexity and expense of the project increased following a change in the location and design of the outdoor classroom. The NRD has provided design assistance on a berm and pond.

Because of changes in the scale of the project, the school is requesting that its outdoor classroom be considered as a Special Project.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue NRD provide a grant of $10,000 to the Fillmore County Central High School for its outdoor classroom and that: this grant replace the $800 grant previously approved; one-half ($5,000) be paid in FY 2002 and one-half ($5,000) be paid in FY 2003, and the Upper Big Blue NRD receive copies of receipts for all work and materials from the school before payments are made.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Houdersheldt to amend the motion to limit the grant to 25% of the local share not to exceed $10,000. We approved the amendment.

Question was called on the original motion as amended to read “It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue NRD provide a grant of 25% of the local share not to exceed $10,000 to the Fillmore County Central High School for its outdoor classroom and that: this grant replaces the $800 grant previously approved; one-half ($5,000) be paid in FY 2002 and one-half ($5,000) be paid in FY 2003, and the Upper Big Blue NRD receive copies of receipts for all work and materials from the school before payments are made.” We approved the motion.

ITEM 12.  FISCAL YEAR 2002 CORNERS FOR WILDLIFE PROGRAM.

The Corners for Wildlife program will continue as it currently exists: a) Landowners are responsible for 25% cost-share on material costs (50% on fabric weed barrier); b) Pheasants Forever pays for 75% of the material cost-share (50% on fabric weed barrier); c) Landowners receive a 5-year rental payment of up to $75 per acre; d) NRD’s plant the trees at no cost when 400 or more trees are planted; e) NRD’s bill Pheasants Forever 100% for the trees and fabric week barrier, landowners are then billed their share by Pheasants Forever; f) Landowner rental payments are administered by the local NRD from funds forwarded by Pheasants Forever.

At the present time, Pete Berthelsen of Pheasants Forever has outside monies from sources besides the Environmental Trust Fund to be spent on developing wildlife habitats in areas designated as the Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program (CREP) area. The entire Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District is designated as a CREP area. Since the lands within the District boundary are in the CREP, the pivot corners being developed for wildlife are eligible to receive a payment up to $75/acre for a 10-year period. The payments would be made annually for ten years.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Volkmer that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District participate in the Corners for Wildlife Program in FY2002. We approved the motion.

ITEM 13.  ROGER CHRISTENSEN CORNERS FOR WILDLIFE CONTRACT.

Roger Christensen has a pivot corner located in the NW ¼ of Section 12, Township 10 North, Range 7 West of the 6th P.M., Hamilton County, Nebraska. He wishes to seed the corner to a warm season grass mix and plant 675 trees and shrubs. This contract will be paid with Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program monies that are available in the Upper Big Blue NRD District through the Corners for Wildlife program. Roger will receive $75/acre for a ten-year period on this 5-acre pivot corner. The NRD will receive the monies for the payments through the Pheasants Forever Chapter before making payments to the landowner.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Hultman that the Upper Big Blue NRD accept the Corners for Wildlife Contract submitted by Roger Christensen for a ten-year period and authorize the chairman of the Board to sign said contract. We approved the motion.

ITEM 16. APPROVAL OF LATE WELL PERMITS.

While updating his well ownership records Gerald D. Hunnicutt discovered an unregistered well on property he purchased in the mid 90s. Upon contacting the well driller it was discovered that the well was drilled on June 5, 1994. The well owner did not get a permit at that time. Mr. Hunnicutt has applied for a late permit. No other NRD regulations are being violated by the existence of this well.

During a routine survey for improperly abandoned wells the staff found a well belonging to Marglad Inc. % Hugh Wilkins that was listed as abandoned in DNR’s records but was obviously still an active well. Upon contacting the tenant (Kurt Myers) it was determined that a well was drilled in the center of the quarter section on May 13, 1980 and registered as a replacement. Instead of abandoning the old well, as the law requires, the well was only capped. Approximately three years ago Mr. Myers and Mr. Wilkins agreed to install a new pump in the old well. This change requires the replacement well’s status to be changed to “new” and the original well status to be changed from abandoned to “active”. Since a permit was required for a new well in 1980, a late permit is also required to make that well legal. No other NRD regulations are violated by the existence of this well.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Austin that the late permits for a well owned by Gerald D. Hunnicutt in the SW1/4 SE1/4 Section 34-T9N-R8W, Hamilton County and a well owned by MarGlad Inc. in the SW1/4 Section 21-T6N-R2W, Fillmore County be granted. We approved the motion.

ITEM 17. COOPERATIVE AGREEMENT WITH VILLAGE OF BENEDICT FOR WELL ABANDONMENT.

Funds are available through the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality for decommissioning wells in wellhead protection areas. These are funds to supplement the NRD’s program so that 100% of the cost is covered. The cooperative agreement with the Village of Benedict provides that the NRD will pay an amount equal to our normal cost-share and the NDEQ funds will pay the balance. The Village will contract with a water well contractor for the abandonment of all the wells. The NRD and NDEQ will reimburse the village once the work is complete. Three wells have been identified.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Teegerstrom to enter into the cooperative agreement with the Village of Benedict for the proper decommissioning of abandoned wells in the Village’s wellhead protection area. We approved the motion.

ITEM 18. SAMPLING OF LIVESTOCK WASTE MONITORING WELLS.

SAMPLING OF MONITORING WELLS

LIVESTOCK WASTE CONTROL FACILITIES

January 2002

The District will sample monitoring wells at livestock waste control facilities as per the Department of Environmental Quality guidelines under the following conditions:

1. The wells must be constructed according to the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality “Guidelines for Ground Water Monitoring Plans at Livestock Waste Control Facilities.”

2. The wells must be a minimum inside diameter of 2 inches and accommodate a Grundfos Redi-flo 2 sampling pump.

3. The well must have been properly developed at the time of construction.
4. The wells must be accessible with a two-wheel drive pickup pulling a two-wheel trailer.
5. The facility owner must enter into a written agreement with the District for the services to be provided.
6. Contaminates sampled include Chloride, Nitrate and Ammonia. Other contaminates requested will be considered on a case by case basis.
7. The district will consider all requests on a case by case basis. Sampling at sites outside the Upper Big Blue NRD will be considered only if the NRD in which the site is located consents to allow the District to perform these services.
8. If any of the conditions above are determined by the district to be unsatisfactory, preventing the district from completing the sampling, the facility owner must pay for that portion of the services performed.

ITEM 21. LINCOLN CREEK PARKWAY PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE BIDS.

During December 2001, the NRD advertised for contractor bids to assemble and place the pedestrian bridge over Lincoln Creek at Aurora. A pre-bid meeting was held on December 20 for prospective bidders to view the project site and ask questions about construction and the bidding process. Contractor bids were opened on January 4, 2002.

Bids were received from VanKirk Brothers of Sutton and Diamond Engineering Company of Grand Island. The VanKirk Brothers’ bid is $77,250 and the Diamond Engineering bid is $66,275. The engineer’s estimate is $67,430. Staff recommends that Diamond Engineering be awarded the construction contract, pending approval of the Aurora City Council. In accordance with the Interlocal Agreement between Aurora and the NRD, the City’s share of the construction bid is $53,020, and the NRD’s share is $13,255.

ITEM 22.  INDIAN CREEK PROJECT GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING.

Preliminary geotechnical engineering for the Indian Creek Project is completed at two dam sites being considered. At the upstream site, foundation borings were taken at six locations on, or near, the proposed dam, with samples taken at five feet vertical intervals. Four additional shallow borings were taken at infiltration test locations. Infiltration tests were run at five locations within the area of the proposed upstream reservoir. At the downstream site, foundation borings were taken at five locations on, or near, the proposed dam, with samples taken at five feet vertical intervals. Eight additional shallow borings were taken at infiltration test locations. Infiltration tests were run at eight locations within the area of the proposed downstream reservoir.

Geotechnical Services, Inc. (GSI) provided reports of their analyses and findings for each of the proposed dam and reservoir sites. Based on findings in the geotechnical engineering reports, both the upstream and downstream sites are suitable for dam and reservoir construction.

Geotechnical engineering is only one component of technical feasibility. Additional analyses to be completed include reservoir seepage analysis based on infiltration tests, reservoir operations, verification of benefits, and economic analysis.

ITEM 23. JOHNSON CREEK SITE 10 - NDEQ GRANT.

Staff recently learned that the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality, Water Quality Division, has concerns about using recycled tire bales in projects located near streams or lakes. This fact was not brought to the staff’s attention at the time the NRD filed for an $80,000 recycling grant to incorporate bales of recycled tires in drop structures on the Johnson Creek Project.

At the time of the grant application, there were three manufacturers of tire bales permitted in Nebraska; recently NDEQ has revoked the permit for one supplier, and one additional supplier is going out of business in May. The remaining supplier is located in Chadron, Nebraska.

NDEQ has also raised some engineering questions about how the manufacturers are building the tire bales. The engineering staff has asked us to consider using stainless steel wire and consider an improved knot design for tying the wires. This requirement is not currently being incorporated in tire bales manufactured in Nebraska.

Considering the cost of hauling tire bales (222 - 5’ x 5’ x 3’ bales @ 1 ton per bale) from Chadron to Friend, and NDEQ’s concerns about how the bales are manufactured, and NDEQ’s concerns about using baled tires near surface water bodies, staff recommends that the District withdraw its grant application and consider other design options for the Johnson Creek Project.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin that the District withdraw its application for a Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality Recycling Grant on the Johnson Creek Project.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Hultman to amend the motion to read “and consider other design options for the Johnson Creek project.” We approved the amendment.

ITEM 13. SAMPLING OF LIVESTOCK WASTE CONTROL FACILITIES MONITORING WELLS.

The District has been asked to consider collecting water samples from monitoring wells at livestock waste control facilities. Samples would be collected two times per year. In January the Board sent the proposal back to Committee for clarification of a few points.

Moore asked DeBuhr to review the program. DeBuhr said that if the NRD receives a request from the owner of a livestock waste control facility to sample monitoring wells we will develop a contract with them for the sampling. Based upon a fee schedule the livestock waste facility owner will pay for the testing. It will not be subsidized in any way. The fees will cover the district’s cost to conduct the sampling. The NRD would only agree to do the work if there is not a private contractor available to do the work. Currently there aren’t many people in the private sector doing this type of testing because the demand is low. The NRD will only do the work for the owner of the facility. We will not take samples at the request of anyone else, such as a neighbor. The samples will be sent to a private laboratory for analysis and the results provided only to the facility owner. At the owner’s request a copy of the results will be sent to the Department of Environmental Quality, but only if the owner requests us to.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Hultman to adopt the Livestock Waste Control Facility Monitoring Well Sampling Program. We approved the motion.

ITEM 20. PROPOSALS TO STUDY SEALING PIONEER TRAILS LAKE.

Staff is continuing to develop a grant application to the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission for funds to develop a fishery at Pioneer Trails. Runoff into the Pioneer Trails reservoir typically varies from 200 acre feet per year to 500 acre feet per year depending upon rainfall and the reservoir storage capacity is 280 acre feet. Under existing conditions, the majority of runoff recharges to groundwater. As previously discussed in Committee, proposed modifications could include a combination of partial lake bed sealing to reduce the hydraulic conductivity from 3.5 inches per day, and installation of recycling pumps to reuse recharged groundwater in order to maintain a body of water to support fish and water-based recreation.

The Nebraska Game and Parks Commission visited the Pioneer Trails site in April 2001, and followed up with a letter requesting more detailed information to support our request for a grant.

Proposals have been received from two geotechnical engineering firms to evaluate alternative methods for reducing hydraulic conductivity at Pioneer Trails: Nickel Engineering $7,500 and Geotechnical Services Inc. $6,050. Staff recommends that Geotechnical Services, Inc. be hired to perform soils analysis and make recommendations on alternative methods for reducing hydraulic conductivity.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that Geotechnical Services, Inc. be hired to perform soils analysis and make recommendations on alternative methods for reducing hydraulic conductivity of the Pioneer Trails lake bed, in accordance with their proposal dated February 6, 2002. We approved the motion.

ITEM 21. INDIAN CREEK PROJECT.

Infiltration testing has been completed at both the upstream and downstream sites being considered for the Indian Creek Project. Test results indicated an average hydraulic conductivity of 2.3 inches per day at the upstream site, and 2.2 inches per day at the downstream site. Proposals were received from two geotechnical engineering firms to determine methods and costs to reduce lake bed hydraulic conductivity from 2.2 inches per pay day to 0.25 inches per day. The Nickel Engineering quote was $8,000 and Geotechnical Services Inc. quoted $6,050.

The Projects Committee voted not to proceed with soils and cost analyses for alternative methods of reducing hydraulic conductivity of the Indian Creek Project sites.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Jackson that the Indian Creek Project be suspended.

Angela Petersen addressed the board in opposition to the proposed sites for the Indian Creek Project. She asked the board to terminate the project and dispose of the data, rather than suspend the project. She expressed concern that if the project was simply suspended that it could be activated again at some later date.

Larry Moore explained that the Board has suspended projects from time to time for various reasons. A suspended project may be reactivated by the board of directors at any time. Conditions change over time such as people’s opinion of the need of a project, or different solutions for the project purpose may come up. A terminated project indicates that a particular site will not be considered again. This board cannot tie the hands of a future board, therefore projects are not terminated.

We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. REPORT OF BUDGET, PLANNING & LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Moore reported that the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee met on February 14, 2002 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 23. LEGISLATION.

Turnbull reviewed the current legislation with the Budget, Planning & Legislative Committee. Wayne Hansen testified for the Board on LB1066, the civil penalties amendment to the Groundwater Management and Protection Act. Turnbull testified for the District on LB 890, the bill that would allow changes in well registration records, such as ownership and location, without fees being charged by the Department of Natural Resources. Both bills were received favorably by the Natural Resources Committee.

LB1023 was discussed at length. It is now on general file with Committee amendments concerning the makeup of the Water Task Force. Concern was expressed by several directors about the lack of representation by groundwater interests on the Task Force. The Water Task Force Executive Committee is greatly overweighted toward surface water interests. It appears in the bill’s amendment that surface and groundwater irrigators will be equally represented even though 85% of irrigation in Nebraska is by groundwater, in addition to almost all municipal use from groundwater. It was pointed out that this is a concern because of the conflicts between surface and groundwater uses and potential solutions. LB108 addressed these conflicts in 1996 but some in the state do not think this is adequate. It was also pointed out that the older surface water right holders want to be able to go to a regulating NRD and “put a call on the water” which means that the District would have to shut off groundwater pumpers until the surface water right was restored to its full capacity.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin that because the Upper Big Blue NRD Board disagrees with that part of the Legislature’s Natural Resources Committee amendment to LB1023 in which groundwater interests are not adequately represented on the Task Force or its Executive Committee, the Board requests that the bill be amended to allow for groundwater representation in relation to its importance to irrigation, industrial and municipal use. We approved the motion.
ITEM 24. NEBRASKA HABITAT CONSERVATION COALITION.

The Coalition has billed the District $5,000 for this year’s contribution. The total commitment is for $15,000 over three years. These funds are going toward the economics study review and legal work concerning the Piping Plover critical habitat designation on the Platte River. The legal counsel for the Coalition has submitted formal comments to the US Fish and Wildlife Service opposing the designation.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin to approve payment of $5,000 to the Nebraska Habitat Conservation Coalition. We approved the motion.

ITEM 25. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Buller reported that the Executive Committee met on February 14, 2002 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 26. INVESTMENTS.

The investments for the month were reviewed. In light of the Projects Committee action of February 14, this Committee discussed the Indian Creek investments.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that the Indian Creek Sinking Fund investments, amounting to approximately $509,118.06, be transferred to the Future Dams investments. We approved the motion.

ITEM 27. FINANCIAL REPORT, JANUARY 1, 2002 THROUGH JANUARY 31, 2002,
AND CONSIDERATION OF EXPENDITURES FOR JANUARY 2002.

Turnbull reviewed the financial report for the period January 1, 2002 through January 31, 2002 that we had distributed. It was moved by Regier and seconded by Hultman to approve the financial report for January 2002 as presented, make payments of the accounts payable, and publish the expenditures. ITEM 8. PRAIRIE PLAINS RESOURCES INSTITUTE REQUEST FOR FUNDING FOR SOAR.

The Prairie Plains Resources Institute of Aurora has requested $1500 for their SOAR program, as they do each year. Funding was appropriated in the District’s FY2002 budget.

The SOAR Program is a nature discovery day camp based in Aurora, Nebraska. By using local field sites and an interdisciplinary curriculum including natural and physical science, history, art, agriculture, language arts and music, SOAR aims to create a deeper appreciation for where we live.

SOAR runs for two weeks in July. The first week is for children who have just completed grades 2-4 and the second for grades 4-6. Up to 60 students are enrolled for each week. Twelve older students (grades 7-12) serve as “peer leaders.”

The demand for cost-share assistance to decommission wells is more than 40 percent above last year at this time. If the current demand continues for the remainder of the fiscal year it will exceed $37,000. The staff recommends increasing the funding authorization for AQWACAP from $25,000 to $40,000.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Eberle to increase authorized funding for AQWACAP from $25,000 to $40,000 for FY2002. We approved the motion.

ITEM 14.  CONVERSION FROM GRAVITY TO SPRINKLER IRRIGATION COST-SHARE PROGRAM.

The Water Committee reviewed a proposal to provide cost-share for conversion from gravity to center pivot or lateral move sprinkler irrigation. The program would provide cost-share of 50 percent of the system cost up to $5,000. Implementation and funding rules for this practice are similar to the other irrigation practices funded under the existing NRD and NSWCP cost-share program.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Luebbe to adopt the Conversion from Gravity to Sprinkler Irrigation Cost-share Program.

Some board members disapproved of the district spending land treatment funds for a landowner to convert his operation from gravity to pivot. They felt that installing a pivot is a good management practice but that the landowner should stand the cost of conversion, since it is proven to reduce pumping costs and water use.

This brought about the question of whether or not this NRD should cost-share on any proven conservation practice, or if they should instead focus on new and innovative methods. It was suggested that before the next budget year the Projects Committee review the land treatment program practices in their entirety and bring any suggested changes to the Board for consideration.

The motion failed.

ITEM 17. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM POLICY.

The current land treatment program policies do not prevent a landowner from applying for cost-share on a practice one year and applying for additional cost-share the next year, or subsequent years, to expand that practice (i.e., terraces, drip irrigation.) In order to prevent applicants from obtaining excessive cost-share on a given parcel of land, staff recommends the following policy.

A landowner may receive up to $5,000 cost-share through the Land Treatment Program for a conservation practice installed on any 160 acre parcel, or group of connected parcels with an area of 160 acres, under his/her ownership. That landowner shall not be eligible for additional cost-share on that practice, on that parcel, or group of parcels, during the design life of the practice. Each application shall specify the practice and legal description of the parcel(s).

The design life varies by conservation practice.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Friesen that the District’s Land Treatment Program Policy be amended such that a landowner may receive up to $5,000 cost-share for a conservation practice installed on any 160 acre parcel, or group of parcels with an area of 160 acres, under his/her ownership, and that landowners not be eligible for additional cost-share on that practice, on that parcel, or group of parcels, during the design life of the practice, and that each cost-share application specify the practice and legal description of the parcel(s).

The motion was amended by Austin and seconded by Brown to read “that the District’s Land Treatment Program Policy be amended such that a landowner may receive up to $5,000 cost-share for a conservation practice installed on any 160 acre parcel, or group of contiguous parcels with an area of 160 acres, under his/her ownership, and that landowners not be eligible for additional cost-share on that practice, on that parcel, or group of contiguous parcels, during the design life of the practice, and that each cost-share application specify the practice and legal description of the parcel(s)”.

In June of 2001 the District applied for a Clean Water Act Section 319 Grant to conduct this project in Ground Water Management Area Zone 2. The grant request was not funded. Staff recommends that the district conduct a revised version of the project without grant funding. The project area included approximately seven townships in Hamilton County. This area has had the most rapid increase in ground water nitrate levels in the past three years. Staff would sample all of the domestic wells in the zone (approximately 500) over the next three years. With assistance from Cooperative Extension a packet of information would be made available to residents of the area on living with nitrates and what they can do to improve the situation. Items deleted from the original proposal are an independent survey of residents on the nitrate issue and the analysis of samples by an outside laboratory. Samples will be analyzed with NRD equipment.

Mr. Elge received NSWCP cost-share in the amount of $661.50 in November 2000, and failed to submit his irrigation water use report for 2001. He has not responded to our request for him to meet with the Projects Committee or repay the cost-share funds. The District’s policy regarding noncompliance states that “If the landowner fails to report his irrigation water use, and fails to repay the cost-share within 30 days of the notice to repay, the landowner will be requested to appear before the Projects Committee to explain his reasons for noncompliance, and he will not be eligible for cost-share from any NRD programs until he is in compliance.” Staff recommends that the District’s policy be enforced, and that the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources be notified that Mr. Elge is not in compliance.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Austin that Kevin D. Elge, 1208 W. Highway 34, Aurora, Nebraska, is ineligible for cost-share from any NRD programs until he is in compliance with the District’s Land Treatment Program policy on Practice NC17 that requires irrigation water use reporting, and that the Nebraska Department of Natural Resources be notified that Mr. Elge received cost-share in the amount of $661.50 in November 2000 from the NSWCP Program, Practice NC17, and that he is not in compliance with the District’s irrigation water use reporting requirements. We approved the motion.

There was some discussion about whether or not approval of this payment conflicts with the board’s policy prohibiting payments to cooperators for an amount less than $100.

ITEM 29. FY2003 SALARIES.

Turnbull reviewed his findings about comparable wages with the Committee. The data came from the Nebraska State Government Salary Survey which included information from the Central Platte, Lower Platte North, Lewis & Clark, Little Blue, Lower Platte South, Lower Republican, South Platte, Tri-Basin and Papio NRDs. The Board was provided a copy of the recommended salary schedule. Based on that information Turnbull recommended that most Upper Big Blue job classifications increase from 1% to 5.5% depending on the job market. The salary schedules set the minimum, midpoint, and maximum for each position. Individual salaries and wages then need to be within those limits.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman to approve the changes in the midpoints of the salary schedules as presented to stay in line with the job market, and that such changes and adjusted salary schedules become effective on July 1, 2002. We approved the motion.

ITEM 7. NARD LEGISLATIVE UPDATES MEETING REPORT.

John and Rod attended the NARD Legislative Updates meeting that was held in Grand Island on July 18. Gayle Starr of NDNR discussed their budget and related issues. The State Budget Office is advising the Governor on proposed budget cuts for the Legislature to consider during the special session. It is expected that the Governor’s proposed cuts will be made public within the next week. The NSWCP fund has already been cut by 31% from the original appropriation. It was confirmed today that some NRDs have submitted NSWCP claims for final payment and under a directive issued by Roger Patterson the claims are not being processed by NDNR. They will not consider making payments of obligated funds until after the Governor and the Legislature have finalized the budget. The UBBNRD received written notification about three weeks ago of a $104,000 appropriation from the NSWCP fund. We already have about $41,000 of NSWCP funds that have been authorized. It is doubtful at this time that any of the work has been done because crops have not been harvested, but the district will need to decide what will be done with these applications if the NDNR refuses to make payments. We have not received any official notification from the NDNR that claims are not going to be paid.

Moore asked whether the district should notify the landowners who have already been authorized that their funding may be in jeopardy. Turnbull told the board that we will not authorize any additional NSWCP funds until we know the outcome of the special legislative session. He recommended that the board not take any further action until we know the outcome of the legislative session.

Nebraska Department of Natural Resources board member, Richard Jiskra, addressed the board.
He indicated that the NDNR is holding payment of claims until they know the amount of funding the NSWCP program will receive. He was optimistic that it will not be cut too severely. He also indicated that we may see cuts in other programs as well, for example the well decommissioning fund and water meter fund.

ITEM 8. REPORT OF EDUCATION AND PARKS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Bruns reported that the Education and Parks Committee met on July 9, 2002 and presented the committee’s report.

ITEM 9. WILD NEBRASKA PROGRAM PUBLIC ACCESS.

It is currently District policy that public access must be allowed in order to participate in the WILD Nebraska program. There has been a decline in the number of cooperators enrolling in the program. The decline may be due in part to the public access requirement and not having an annual payment. If an individual is interested in allowing public access he may be paid an additional $3.00/acre.

Improving land enrolled in the Wild Nebraska Program without requiring public access will still benefit overall habitat conditions in Nebraska. Ninety-seven percent of the state is privately owned land and we need to recognize that many land owners wish to maintain control over who hunts on their property. The 2002 WILD Nebraska Participant Survey indicated that 65% of participants allowed full access to their lands while 31% allowed access to nearly everyone who asked. Several NRDs offer extra payment for public access.

During the ten-year WILD Nebraska contract the landowner is not allowed to lease or sell any recreational rights on the area. To do so would be a breach of contract and the landowner could be required to pay back all program funds received.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Jackson that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District not require public access on lands that we enroll into the WILD Nebraska program. We approved the motion.

ITEM 10. AGREEMENT WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OF ROADS FOR THE PLUM CREEK HIKING AND BIKING TRAIL.

Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail Project No. STPB-80(27)
An Agreement between the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District and the State of Nebraska Department of Roads has been drafted. Staff is currently working on final design of the Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail to be located on the east side of Seward.

During final design, the State of Nebraska Department of Roads determined their bridge construction work would begin later than anticipated. The District and the City of Seward expect the bid prices to come in at or below the engineer’s estimate. It would be in the best interest of both the District and the City if the State of Nebraska Department of Roads includes as a separate item in their US Highway 34 Project No. EACSTPD 34-6 (129), State Control No. 12206 Seward East, the portion of the Plum Creek Trail project that lies within the US Highway 34 right-of-way. With this inclusion the District and the City of Seward will not have to extend their contract to encompass the highway right-of-way portion.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors enter into the agreement with the Nebraska Department of Roads for the purpose of advertising for bid letting, constructing and construction inspection on that portion of the Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail that lies within the right-of-way of US Highway 34 and being a part of Project No. EACSTPD 34-6-(129) State Control No. 12206, Seward East; and authorize the Chairman of the Board to sign said agreement. Provided the District can insert a clause that the District has the right to reject the portion of the bid that entails the Seward Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail in conjunction with Project EACSTPD 34-6-(129), State Control No. 12206, Seward East. We approved the motion.

ITEM 11. ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION PERTAINING TO THE AGREEMENT WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OF ROADS ON THE PLUM CREEK HIKING AND BIKING TRAIL.

Upon entering into the agreement with the State of Nebraska Department of Roads for the Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District will need to adopt a resolution stating its desire that a portion of the trail be let and constructed under the designating Project No. EACSTPD 34-6(129) State Control No.12206; and further it becomes a part of the agreement as Exhibit B.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors adopt the resolution pertaining to the agreement with the Nebraska
Department of Roads for the purpose of bidding, constructing and supervising construction of that portion of the Plum Creek Hiking and Biking Trail which lies within the road right-of-way of US Highway 34 Bridge Project No. EACSTPD 34-6(129), State Contract No.12206, Seward East and authorize the chairman of the Board to sign said resolution. WHEREAS, the purposes for implementing of the provisions of the Ground Water Management and Protection Act have been significantly modified since its initial passage; and

WHEREAS, the costs of activities associated with the enforcement of the regulations promulgated under the Act have risen with inflation; and

2002 NARD Annual Conference
Submitted by the Upper Big Blue NRD

WHEREAS, ground water conservation is a significant statewide natural resource concern; and

WHEREAS, the USDA Environmental Quality Incentives Program provides technical, educational, and financial assistance to eligible farmers and ranchers to address soil, water, and related natural resource concerns on their lands in an environmentally beneficial and cost-effective manner; and

WHEREAS, EQIP provides funding for converting from furrow irrigation to more efficient center pivot systems; and

WHEREAS, several thousand applications for EQIP funds have been received statewide for conversions to center pivots; and

WHEREAS, the cost share rate of 50% will only allow for a few systems to be converted; and

WHEREAS, the lower cost share rate of 25% would still be an incentive to convert from gravity to pivot irrigation and allow for twice as many systems to be funded;

Hansen asked Rod DeBuhr, Water Department Manager, to act as Hearing Officer. Rod provided complete copies of the Upper Big Blue NRD Ground Water Management Area Action Plan for those at the hearing. He reviewed the proposed changes to the plan. At the bottom of page 6 the following paragraph was added to the introduction explaining the purpose of the changes.

“In response to the needs of communities in the District, to address groundwater contamination of public drinking water supplies the district reviewed the Action Plan in 2002 and incorporated an option for a public water supplier and residents in a wellhead protection area to work together to develop a program of action to address those concerns.” And the effective date of the revised Ground Water Quality Action Plan will become April 1, 2003. The reason for the April 1, 2003 date is that once the changes to the action plan are approved by the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors the NDEQ has 180 days to review the changes.

The next change to the plan is found on pages 21 and 22 and details how a Wellhead Protection Management Area would be developed.

IV. Wellhead Protection (WHP) Management Area

A. How Initiated

1. A WHP Management Area may be designated when requested by a Municipality. Such a request will be considered only if:

   a. The median nitrate level in the municipality’s wells exceeds 5 mg/l, and
   b. The municipality has adopted a Wellhead Protection Area Plan and such plan has been approved by the State of Nebraska as per the Nebraska Wellhead Protection Act.

B. How Designated
1. Within 90 days after acceptance of a request, the District shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of an equal number of representatives from the municipality and farmers in the WHPA and at least one representative representing the District.

2. Within one year following its creation, the advisory committee shall submit a report to the District recommending whether or not a WHP management area should be designated. If the report recommends such designation it must also include recommendations on the management activities that should be implemented. The committee may also make recommendations to the municipality concerning modifications to its WHP Plan.

3. The District shall hold a public hearing concerning the designation of a WHP management area and amendments to the District’s Groundwater Management Area rules and regulations in accordance with the Groundwater Management and Protection Act.

4. Following the public hearing, the District may adopt or reject a resolution designating the WHPA as a WHP management area and adopt or reject amendments to rules and regulations.

C. Length of WHP Management Area

1. The discontinuance or modification of a WHP Management Area will be subject to review every five (5) years.

D. Restrictions Clause

1. If a WHP management area is, or at a later time becomes, part of a phase II or phase III management area, the WHP management area rules and regulations shall not be less restrictive than those of the larger management area.

Marty Link of the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality presented written testimony in support of the proposed changes to the Ground Water Management Area Action Plan. Her testimony read as follows.

“This testimony is in support of the changes proposed for the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources’ Ground Water Management Area Action Plan.”

“The Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality (NDEQ) originally designated this Ground Water Management area on September 23, 1993. The original Action Plan was approved by NDEQ on September 14, 1994. Changes have been made to the Plan since then. The revisions proposed now will assist municipal water supply systems in their efforts to protect their ground water based drinking water supplies in their Wellhead Protection Area. A well thought out process and public involvement procedure has been proposed.”

“NDEQ encourages and supports all efforts at protecting the state’s ground water resources, not only in rural areas but also in Wellhead Protection Areas, which supply drinking water to a more concentrated population. Please continue to coordinate any activities with the Department as needed and call on Ground Water Unit staff for assistance.”

“We would like to take this opportunity to thank the Upper Big Blue NRD for your progressive attitude and activities in support of protecting the state’s ground water resource.”

Chairman Hansen asked if anyone else present would like to comment on the proposed changes to the Action Plan. There were no comments and Chairman Hansen officially closed the hearing at 7:50 p.m.

ITEM 22. CONSIDERATION OF POTENTIAL PHASE II MANAGEMENT AREA.

The Water Committee reviewed the results of the summer 2002 nitrate samples collected from the wells in the GWMA#2 groundwater monitoring network.

The results of the summer 2002 nitrate sampling indicate that the median nitrate level in management zone 5 is 9.5 mg/l. The trigger level for a potential phase II management area is 9.0 mg/l. The other criteria for determining if phase II management is needed are; 1) less than 60% of the corn and sorghum acres are soil sampled for nitrogen to a depth of 3 feet and 2) less than 60% of the irrigation is being scheduled using an approved irrigation scheduling method. The NRD’s regulations call for reports to be filed by the operators of land in zone 5 to determine if these criteria are being met.

Management Zone 5 includes the following townships in York County; T10N-R1W (Beaver), T10N-R2W (Leroy), T11N-R1W (Waco), T11N-R2W (New York), T11N-R3W (Lockridge), and T11N-R4W (Bradshaw).
The staff recommends that the Board declare Management Zone 5 a “Potential Phase II Management Area” and authorize the staff to proceed with the potential Phase II reporting as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 19, Paragraph 5.01.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Moore that the Board of Directors hereby declares Management Zone 5, which includes the following townships in York County and “Potential Phase II Management Area”; T10N-R1W (Beaver), T10N-R2W (Leroy), T11N-R1W (Waco), T11N-R2W (New York), T11N-R3W (Lockridge), and T11N-R4W (Bradshaw), and hereby authorizes the staff to proceed with potential Phase II reporting as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 19, Paragraph 5.01. ITEM 8.  FISCAL YEAR 2003 TREE PROGRAM.

The NARD has received tentative cost information for trees and shrubs ranging from $348.00 to $393.00 per thousand and cottonwood root cuttings at $510.00 per thousand. The District sells an average of 500 cottonwoods per year. In FY2001 the cost to the District for nursery stock was $448.50 per thousand from Halsey. The average cost for all suppliers was $431.30 per thousand. In FY2002 the average cost for trees from NARD was $293.00 per thousand and the average cost for all suppliers was $329.00 per thousand. In fiscal years 2001 and 2002 the Upper Big Blue NRD customer prices were 55¢ per tree and an additional 35¢ each for planting. After reviewing the tentative prices from the NARD, it is recommended that the price of the trees remain at 55¢ each and the cost for planting remain at 35¢ per tree for a total of 90¢ per tree.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District set the planting cost for FY2003 at 35¢ per tree and the cost of the trees and shrubs be set at 55¢ per tree; further if the tree and shrub cost comes in higher, the NRD staff is authorized to adjust the tree and shrub cost accordingly. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12. CONFINED AQUIFER DELINEATION PROJECT.

Rod and John reported on their meeting with representatives of the UNL Conservation and Survey Division concerning study needs to better define confined aquifers. CSD has prepared a proposal for Phase I of a project. The goal of the project is to “Provide information and data to assist the UBBNRD board and staff in the development of policies for areas in the District where confining conditions create large changes in water levels.”

The questions the project activities will attempt to address are; 1) Where are the problem areas and can they be predicted? 2) What are potential management strategies that can be employed? and, 3) Can we address question 1 and 2 with available data?

The total cost of the proposal is $10,990. The staff feels this project will provide valuable data whether or not any regulatory solutions to this problem are adopted. The staff also feels the price is very reasonable.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Hultman to enter into an agreement with the UNL Conservation and Survey Division to conduct the Phase I-Confined Aquifer Delineation Project at a cost not to exceed $10,990. The motion was approved.

ITEM 15. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM COST SHARE PRACTICE.

Staff presented a proposal to the Projects Committee for cost sharing on sprinkler systems. The program would combine practices for pivots and lateral move equipment, nozzles, buried pipelines from the well to the sprinkler, and flow meters. The maximum cost share would be $5,000 for any combination of these practices, and the sprinkler system owner would be required to operate and maintain the system for 10 years. The sprinkler system owner would also be required to schedule irrigation and report water use for a period of three years. Either the landowner or operator could be the applicant for cost share. After some discussion, the Committee decided to forward the program for Board consideration.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Luebbe that the program, reviewed by the Committee, for conversion from gravity irrigation to sprinkler irrigation be approved for cost share under the Land Treatment Program, and that this program becomes effective upon approval by the Board of Directors. The motion failed.

ITEM 16. BIG BLUE RIVER FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECT LEVEES.

On September 5, 2002, the District received notice from the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency that FEMA has authorized the District to proceed with preliminary design and environmental assessment for the proposed levees.

The environmental assessment will include evaluation of the existing site, wetland inventory and expected wetland impacts, review of existing documents for historical and archaeological impacts, identification of endangered species, and inventory of required environmental permits. Proposals for preparing the environmental assessment have been received from EA Engineering, Science, and Technology, Inc. ($17,500), Terracon, Inc. ($29,000), and Olsson Associates ($43,894). Staff recommends that EA Engineering be hired to prepare the environmental assessment, and that award of contract be held until FEMA authorizes the Phase I study and appropriates adequate funding.

It was moved by Jackson and seconded by Austin that EA Engineering, Science, and Technology, Inc., Lincoln, Nebraska, be awarded the contract for preparing an environmental assessment for the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project Levees at Seward, in accordance with their proposal dated October 1, 2002, and that the contract for these services not be awarded until the Nebraska Emergency Management Agency and Federal Emergency Management Agency provide adequate funding and authorize the District to proceed with the Phase I study. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12. RECHARGE LAKE FISH RENOVATION.

Recharge Lake in York was initially stocked in 1990. The prescribed stocking plan for largemouth bass and bluegill was followed and natural reproduction should have maintained the populations. Stocking of channel catfish was done in 1995.

The fish population at Recharge Lake was sampled for the first time since the lake was built. Four species of fish were sampled. Largemouth bass were not sampled. The present population of common carp indicates that they were introduced fairly soon after the lake was built and that largemouth bass would be of low density. The sampling of bluegill, white crappie and channel catfish indicated both low density and poor size populations.

The NRD was contacted by Game & Parks about chemical renovation of the fish population at Recharge Lake. The present plan is to discontinue pumping water into the lake and to allow the lake to slowly drain throughout the summer of 2003. Following chemical renovation the lake would be restocked with approximately 100 adult largemouth bass, 4,900 fingerling largemouth bass, and 49,000 ten-inch channel catfish. The ten-inch channel catfish would be stocked annually.
It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Teegerstrom that the Upper Big Blue NRD work with the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission in renovating and restocking Recharge Lake. We approved the motion.

ITEM 13. COMMUNITY NATIVE GRASS PLANTING PROGRAM.

This program offers financial assistance to communities for the development or improvement of city or village properties where the establishment of native grass would be beneficial. Such areas may include, but are not limited to lands surrounding waste water treatment lagoons, lands within a wellhead protection area and areas suitable for wildlife habitat improvement.

ELIGIBILITY:

The city, village or public entity must submit a work plan for native grass planting. Guidance from district staff is recommended. The plan must include a) the number of acres to be planted; b) the native grass seeding mixture to be used; c) a map showing where planting is to be located; d) a timetable for completion of the project; e) an estimate of the total project cost. The city, village or public entity must sign an agreement stating that it will maintain the planting for a minimum of five years. The city, village or public entity must agree to match funds provided by the District.

FUNDING:

The District will provide 50 percent of the local matching grant with a maximum of $1,000 and a minimum of $200. Funding is based on the type and quality of the project. The amount of District funding available is dependent upon the annual budget.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Volkmer that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District adopt the Community Native Grass Planting Program as written. We approved the motion.

ITEM 24. DEVELOPING PIONEER TRAILS LAKE FOR FISHING.

In April 2001, the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission indicated an interest in assisting the District with development of the Pioneer Trails Project for fishing. A maximum grant of 75% is available from NGPC if the project meets their criteria. The NGPC requested the District to submit a site plan showing lake contours, watershed hydrology, an estimate of watershed sediment yield, and preliminary engineering plans and costs for pumping facilities and lake sealing. During the past year the District hired Geotechnical Services, Inc. to study and make recommendations for methods to reduce lake infiltration rates; their study was delivered in August 2002.

Based on a reservoir operations study using GSI’s infiltration rate reduction method for 95% compaction, and an adjusted average initial infiltration rate of 1.32 inches per day, staff recommends that a project be implemented combining pumping and seepage rate reduction. The existing, unadjusted, infiltration rate is 2.27 inches per day. The recommended lake maintenance level is 26 surface acres and 134 acre feet; these maintenance levels are about 50% below conservation pool design levels. It is expected that the reservoir will vary between maintenance level and full conservation pool, depending on runoff from the watershed. The estimated project cost is $235,000. Staff recommends that the District file for a 75% NGPC grant ($176,250) to assist the District with development of a fishing lake at Pioneer Trails.

The Committee also discussed the possibility of working with the City of Aurora to complete the Lincoln Creek pedestrian bridge. District staff will discuss this with the City to determine their interest.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Hultman that the District submit an application to the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission requesting a 75% grant to assist the District with development of a fishing lake at Pioneer Trails. We approved the motion.

ITEM 26. CITY OF YORK REQUEST FOR ASSISTANCE ON HIGHWAYS 34 & 81 DRAINAGE.

Representatives from the City of York were present at the October Projects Committee meeting to request financial assistance with drainage improvements adjacent to Highways 34 and 81 within the City limits. The City’s engineer, Kirkham & Michael, presented the proposed design and project budget. The estimated project cost is $611,630.

Staff recommends that the District assist the City with this project, and that a cost share rate of 25% of project cost would be in line with assistance the District has provided to other communities.

It was moved by Houdersheldt and seconded by Regier that the District offer to assist the City of York with their Lincoln Avenue Drainage Project, located adjacent to Highways 34 and 81, as presented by Kirkham & Michael Engineers at the October 2002 Projects Committee meeting, and that the level of assistance be 25% of project cost, not to exceed $153,000, and that the District reserve the option to pay its share of cost over two fiscal years, beginning no earlier than July 1, 2003. The District has agreed to supplement the funding of the project by contributing an additional $16,690 of in-kind services for a total not to exceed $93,690.

Since the District is the lead agency on this project, the Department of Roads has assigned the responsibilities of operation and maintenance of the trail to the NRD. This makes it necessary to amend the Interlocal Agreement with the City of Seward to cover the required operation and maintenance of the trail required by the Nebraska Department of Roads.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Regier that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District enter into the supplemental agreement Amendment #1 of the Interlocal Agreement with the City of Seward as written and authorize the Chairman of the Board of Directors to sign the Agreement. ITEM 15. PLATTE RIVER ECONOMIC STUDY.

Turnbull discussed meetings he has attended concerning an economic study of the impacts of the Three-state Cooperative Agreement on Nebraska. The Department of Natural Resources had planned to fund the study, however, due to the state budget cuts the Department can’t fund the study. Their Director, Roger Patterson, has requested that NRDs, Power Districts and other entities fund the study.

The study would look at the economic impacts of the Cooperative Agreement program on the Platte River, including the management of groundwater for surface water right protection. The economic impact of no program or regulation would also be studied.

An interlocal agreement is being drafted with will include the funds each sponsor agrees to contribute for the study, which will cost approximately $150,000.

Staff recommends that the Upper Big Blue NRD participate in the interlocal agreement and contribute $5,000. The Upper Big Blue NRD will not be greatly impacted by the New Depletion Plan, especially if the plan can be restricted to the river basin divide.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Houdersheldt that the Upper Big Blue NRD participate in the interlocal agreement for the Platte River Economic Study to look at the impacts of the Three-state Cooperative Agreement program and the New Depletion Plan and further to contribute $5,000 to the study effort. ITEM 21. NUSS DAM IRRIGATION REQUEST.

Ron Nuss of Sutton has requested permission to irrigate approximately 33.2 acres from the Nuss Dam located in the SW 1/4 of Section 5-T8N-R5W, Clay County. The District holds the storage permit for the reservoir. Such requests are rare, but other NRD built structures are used in this manner. Rod has contacted the two other land owners adjacent to the reservoir and asked them to contact the NRD if they had any concerns or objections to this activity. There were no objections.

The staff recommends that the District file an application for a permit to appropriate stored water in the Nuss Dam for irrigation of approximately 33.2 acres by Ronald Nuss in the SW 1/4 of the SW 1/4 and the SW 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Section 5-T8N-R5W with the conditions that Mr. Nuss reimburse the NRD the $50 filing fee and that Mr. Nuss discontinue withdrawals from the reservoir when the water level reaches the lowest outlet, or at any other time the District determines that further withdrawals are not in the District’s best interest.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Volkmer that the District file an application for a permit to appropriate stored water in the Nuss Dam for irrigation of approximately 33.2 acres by Ronald Nuss in the SW 1/4 of the SW 1/4 and the SW 1/4 of the SE 1/4 of Section 5-T8N-R5W with the conditions that Mr. Nuss reimburse the NRD the $50 filing fee and that Mr. Nuss discontinue withdrawals from the reservoir when the water level reaches the lowest outlet, or at any other time the District determines that further withdrawals are not in the District’s best interest. ITEM 15. JOHNSON CREEK SITE 10.

Staff presented a summary of engineering alternatives that have been considered for controlling erosion along Sand Creek at the Johnson Creek Site 10 project in Saline County. The original plan, developed by the NRD staff, called for realigning a portion of the Sand Creek channel and construction of several drop structures to control flow velocity. The NRCS and Corps of Engineers determined that 0.9 acres of wetland in the existing channel would be affected, and the Corps rejected the realignment plan. The University of Nebraska Biological Systems Engineering students were given an opportunity to study the problem, and a plan was developed using smaller drop structures within the existing channel alignment, however, this plan did not address the velocity and erosion from high flows.
After reviewing all of the previous recommendations, and considering the federal agencies’ concern with wetland impacts, staff recommends that no channel improvements be implemented at this time, and that we focus on land treatment practices for pasture and range management and construct one diversion and two small dams.

ITEM 8. 2002 FARM BILL CONSERVATION INNOVATION GRANTS.

Section 1240H of the 2003 Farm Bill was added as a Senate amendment to provide up to $100 million in EQIP funding for innovative conservation grants for fiscal years 2003 through 2006. Bob Bettger, Congressman Osborne’s liaison, said that funding will probably not be available until 2004, and that the USDA NRCS state office will likely be the agency reviewing grant applications. The grant program will require 50% local matching funds. Bob also said that NRCS is preparing a grant application of their own on methane gas processing.

The District staff requested authorization to prepare a grant application for installing drip irrigation on approximately ten parcels of farm land to be converted from gravity irrigation to drip irrigation. The field size for this grant program would be a quarter section, or slightly smaller, to allow for the larger conversions that would otherwise not fit the conventional land treatment program. If the USDA approved the District’s grant application, the District would administer the grant and provide 50% cost share to landowners. The landowners would be required to pay the 50% local match.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that staff is authorized to prepare a "Conservation Grant" application in accordance with provisions of the 2002 Federal Farm Bill. We approved the motion.

ITEM 9.  LINCOLN CREEK PARKWAY PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE BIDS.

Bids for construction of the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge at Aurora were received on April 1, 2003. Contractors who submitted bids were required to be pre-qualified with the Nebraska Department of Roads as either General Contractors or Bridge Contractors. Bids were received from Diamond Engineering ($72,595) and VanKirk Brothers ($90,500).

The City of Aurora requested that bid items 7, 8 and 9 for placement of earth fill, rock rip-rap and one culvert pipe be deleted from the contract; the City is planning to perform these items on their own. After deleting items 7, 8 and 9 the total bid prices are Diamond Engineering $68,450 and VanKirk Brothers $75,500.

Staff recommends that the District accept the bid from Diamond Engineering, adjusted for deleting items 7, 8 and 9 and that Diamond Engineering be awarded a construction contract for $68,450.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Austin that Diamond Engineering be awarded the construction contract for assembling and placing the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge, in accordance with their bid dated April 1, 2003 and that bid items 7, 8 and 9 be deleted from the contract, and that the contract price be $68,450 after adjustments. Staff recommends that our Interlocal Agreement with the City be amended to require the City to pay the first $48,450 of construction cost.
It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that Article III, Section 3.01, of the Interlocal Agreement between the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District and City of Aurora, dated February 20, 2003, to construct the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge, be amended such that “The CITY agrees to reimburse the DISTRICT for all construction costs up to $48,450.” We approved the motion.

In a phase II management area each operator is required to do the following:

1. Attend an NRD approved best management practice training session.
2. Collect 3 ft. soil samples on lands where continuous corn/sorghum are grown.
4. File an annual report with the District.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Moore that Ground Water Management Area 2, Zone 5 be designated a Phase II management area and authorize the staff to proceed with implementation of Phase II requirements. We approved the motion.

ITEM 22. INTERLOCAL AGREEMENTS AND ACCOUNTING.

Staff reviewed the Plum Creek Trail project accounting. In order to comply with the board motions setting separate maximums on engineering and construction, it is necessary to track the two NRD cost share items separately. It is further complicated by the number of agencies involved in funding the project and the different ways we have to account for their shares of the costs. Some funding was received in a lump sum while the remaining funds are not reimbursed until the District submits a claim to that agency. On more than one occasion we have had to adjust the percentage of project total paid by each agency to keep everyone within the total maximums they have agreed to pay. This makes filing the claims more difficult than it needs to be.

In order to simplify things in the future, staff is recommending that once the board determines the maximum NRD contribution for a project that the maximum apply to all items covered by the interlocal agreement.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Brown that in all future projects and agreements that have a maximum contribution established, the NRD apply that maximum on the sum of all items and services that are included in the project or agreement, not on the individual items or services. We approved the motion.

ITEM 8. VILLAGE OF FAIRMONT DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENTS.

At the March 2003 Committee meeting, representatives from the Village of Fairmont presented their plan to improve drainage within the village. Lalit Jha, JEO consulting engineer for the village, presented the detailed planning that has been done. Jacky Nichols, president of the Village Council, explained the need for drainage improvements and made a request that the NRD consider providing financial assistance to the village. The Committee requested the village prepare a time line and budget for the project, and provide the District with an estimate of construction cost per year, as well as an estimate of the portion of the cost to be paid by the village.

On April 21, 2003, the village submitted their proposed budget and time line for construction. The village estimates that project construction will be done over a five-year period, beginning in March 2003, and will be completed in August 2009. The total estimated construction cost is $466,272 and the village is requesting the District contribute $233,136 (50%) toward construction costs.

After reviewing the village’s proposal, and considering intergovernment cost share provided to other communities, staff recommends that the District provide 25% cost share to the Village of Fairmont.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Volkmer that the District provide intergovernment cost share assistance to the Village of Fairmont for construction of drainage improvements to be constructed in accordance with the time line, budget, and engineering plan presented by the Village and JEO Engineers and that the District share project costs at the rate of 25% of actual expenditures, not to exceed $117,000, subject to the Village agreeing to act as lead agency for the project and be responsible for operation and maintenance of completed facilities at their expense, and that the Village and District enter into an Interlocal Agreement for the project.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Hansen to amend the motion to read 25% of the local share of actual expenditures. We approved the amendment.

ITEM 16. CITY OF HENDERSON LAKEVIEW PARK RESTORATION PROJECT.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund the Lakeview Park lake restoration project located in Henderson in the amount not to exceed $34,564.

Volkmer expressed his concerns that the proposed restoration project includes O & M on a structure that the NRD cost-shared on in the past. He asked whether the City of Henderson was required to maintain the structure at their own expense. Volkmer asked whether or not the General Manager had researched the matter as requested.

Turnbull indicated he had not yet done that, but he thought the lake in Henderson was originally constructed sometime around 1976 or 1978, which would have been just shortly before or after the time he and Bitner began working for the NRD. Bitner and Turnbull said they knew that the district put some money into the project, but couldn’t say how much cost share was paid, or what the agreement with City of Henderson said without doing some further study.

Bitner did say that the project in general is not considered operation & maintenance. The spillway and the dam are all new construction and not rehabilitation of the old dam. The sediment basin upstream is also new. The project does include dredging the lake but in addition we would be placing riprap for erosion control and providing fish habitat.

Hansen thought the expected design life of the project and the amount of cost-share provided by NRD should be looked at since the original project was put in nearly 30 years ago.

It was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Austin to refer the matter back to the Education & Parks Committee. We approved the motion.

ITEM 17. A & R CONSTRUCTION COMPANY SEMIMONTHLY PAY REQUEST.

A & R Construction Company has requested that they be paid on a semimonthly basis for any progress payment that exceeds $10,000. This would be in agreement with the Nebraska Department of Roads state specifications as stated in subsection 108.07 for the construction of the Plum Creek Trail.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Brown to approve semimonthly progress payments to A & R Construction for the Plum Creek Trail project as per the Nebraska Department of Roads contract specifications; to direct staff to submit semimonthly claims to Department of Roads for reimbursement; and further, to authorize the General Manager to approve and make those semimonthly payments which come due prior to the regularly scheduled board meetings provided that (1) the progress payment request exceeds $10,000, (2) the payments do not exceed the original contract amount without change orders, (3) the payments do not constitute the final payment or release of retainage; and (4) the Department of Roads reimburses the District semimonthly and (5) funds do not have to be borrowed in order to make the semimonthly payment.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Bruns to amend the motion to read “…to direct staff to submit semimonthly claims to Department of Roads and City of Seward for reimbursement.” We approved the amendment.

ITEM 20. CITY OF HENDERSON LAKE RESTORATION PROJECT.

At the May 22, 2003 board meeting the motion to help fund the Lakeview Park lake restoration project was sent back to committee for clarification regarding responsibility for O&M on the dam which was construction in 1978. In July 1977 the District signed an agreement with the City of Henderson to fund 25% of the estimated project cost of $18,000 to construct a small dam. The NRD’s share was not to exceed $4,500. No mention was made regarding responsibility for project O&M.

On November 16, 1978 the UBBNRD board voted to make the first and final payment on the project in the amount of $2,219.75. It was also agreed that upon payment of $2,219.75 by the district the agreement between the NRD and City of Henderson, dated July 1977, would be terminated.

Staff recommends funding the Lakeview Lake Restoration Project located in the City of Henderson in an amount not to exceed $34,546.00, which is 25% of the local share of $138,255.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Friesen that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District enter into an agreement and fund the Lakeview Park Lake Restoration Project located in the City of Henderson in the amount of 25% of the local share, not to exceed $34,564. We approved the motion.

ITEM 23. PAYMENT TO A&R CONSTRUCTION FOR PLUM CREEK TRAIL.

A & R Construction Company submitted a claim for work on the Plum Creek Trail project in the amount of $57,409.14 for the period May 1-15, 2003. Ten percent retainage in the amount of $6,553.25 was deducted leaving a payment of $50,855.89 to be made to A & R Construction Company. Approximately 38% of the project has been completed. Under the terms of the contract the contractor has requested that a semi monthly progress payment be made whenever earnings exceed $10,000 in the first or second half of the month. The board has authorized the General Manager to approve any semi monthly payments to the contractor which are due prior to the board meeting. This was a semi monthly payment and therefore doesn’t require committee or board action.

The board reviewed the following summary of expenditures on the Plum Creek Trail project which includes the semi monthly payment (claim 8) approved by the General Manager.

Turnbull showed the board that the NRD share of funds remaining to be spent includes $19,545.35 for construction and $20,139.95 for engineering. The total NRD share of funds remaining to be spent on the project is $39,685.30.

According to our agreement with the City of Seward the District was to contribute up to $37,000 for construction and $56,690 for engineering, the Department of Roads would pay 59% of eligible expenses up to $500,000, Nebraska Game & Parks Commission would contribute a grant of $100,000 and the balance would be paid by the City of Seward.

We received the $100,000 grant from Game & Parks last fiscal year and purchased a certificate of deposit in order to earn interest on the money until it was needed to pay claims. The certificate just recently matured and was cashed. When we began filing claims for reimbursement we did not charge a percentage of the funds from Game & Parks against the claim amounts because the funds were still invested and earning interest. Instead, we applied funds from NDOR, City of Seward and the District toward those claims. This caused the percentages for each sponsor to get out of balance. We attempted to correct the percentages when filing claim six. We ran into a problem with NDOR because they pay a straight 59% of expenses regardless of any other funding received by the District. As a result the District cannot adjust the claims to get at all of the funds allocated for engineering. The Manager is recommending that staff be allowed to continue to file claims to utilize all funds from other sponsors, and be allowed to allocate expenses to the NRD share of construction or engineering funds as needed, provided we do not exceed the total of $93,690.

ITEM 25. LATE WELL PERMIT.

A well located in the NE 1/4 of Section 20-T8N-R10W in Adams County was drilled without a permit. The well registration was filed with DNR at the time of drilling. The registration showed the well was located in the Little Blue NRD. The error was just recently discovered by DNR. At the time the well was drilled, the owner was Richard Burr, Sr. The current owner is Richard’s son, Todd Burr. In order for this well to be a legal well by statute, a late permit is required. Todd Burr requested that the NRD waive the $250 filing fee because this was an oversight that occurred 12 years ago when he was not the owner of the well.
It was moved by Brown and seconded by Jackson to waive the $250 filing fee and authorize the staff to approve a late permit for the well located in the NE 1/4 Section 20-T8N-R10W, Adams County (G-73030) owned by Todd Burr. We approved the motion.

ITEM 13. VILLAGE OF FAIRMONT INTERLOCAL AGREEMENT.

At the March 2003 and May 2003 Projects Committee meetings, representatives from the Village of Fairmont presented their plan to improve drainage within the Village. Lalit Jha, JEO Consulting Engineers for the Village, presented the detailed planning that has been done. It was moved by Austin and seconded by Bruns to adopt the FY2004 Budget for the purpose of public hearing.

Turnbull reviewed the proposed FY 2004 Budget, including the computations for the lid limit, interlocal agreements and capital expenditures.

At their July 15 meeting the Budget Committee instructed the General Manager to prepare estimated costs for NRD to take over design and inspection of both the NRD and NSWCP land treatment programs. Turnbull and Bitner reviewed the information provided to the Projects Committee for consideration in April and reviewed Turnbull’s updated summary. It was estimated that it would cost between $211,000 and $225,000 per year, including overhead, to hire three additional full time and one part time NRD technicians and to increase the part time secretary to full time here in the NRD office. This estimate does not include any changes to the current field office clerks’ positions. If the NRD decided not to fund field office clerks in Fillmore, Hamilton, Polk, Seward and York Counties the estimated cost would be between $135,000 and $148,000 per year.

Buller wanted to know if we used the $135,000 - $148,000 cost estimate and took the $50,000 proposed transfer to the sinking fund and the $5,000 budgeted for the Platte River economic study and applied them to the estimate what percent increase we would be looking at. Turnbull estimated it would be roughly a 7-8% tax increase.

Moore said despite the lack of work being done by NRCS staff on the districts land treatment program, due to federal programs such as EQIP, CREP, etc., he questioned the advisability of adding additional staff when we may be faced with water shortage problems in the near future and the costs of implementing programs to manage those problems.

Bryan Euse, Liaison District Conservationist at the York NRCS, reviewed the current workload for NRCS staff. He said that since he started work on May 5 he has spent 70-80 percent of his time on EQIP. Bryan feels that the EQIP program and the NRD and NSWCP land treatment programs need to work together. Many landowners are currently waiting to find out if they will receive EQIP funding before signing up for the NRD or NSWCP cost-share programs. Bryan also said that when he had worked with other NRDs in the past it was not necessary for the cost-share practices to be designed before they were submitted to the NRD and before funding would be authorized. In his opinion this requirement is partly responsible for the slow down in the appropriation of land treatment funds. There was some discussion about design requirements and ways to streamline the design process. Bryan suggested that he meet with John and Jay and discuss possible solutions to get the necessary work done.

Turnbull said that even though Bryan has only been here a short time he has some good ideas he wants to try and implement in the field offices. We are also still waiting to hear the outcome of the technical service providers and competitive outsourcing bidding. Turnbull suggested that we leave things as they are for now and that he and Jay work with Bryan to streamline the processes to make them work better.

The motion to adopt the FY 2004 Budget for public hearing was approved.

ITEM 7.  FY 2004 BUDGET HEARING.

Chairman Houdersheldt opened the budget hearing at 7:37 p.m. He informed those present that the Notice of Budget Hearing and Budget Summary was published in the York News-Times on August 6, 2003 for the purpose of hearing support, opposition, criticism, suggestions or observations of taxpayers relating to the District’s FY 2004 Budget. Houdersheldt appointed the General Manager, John Turnbull, to act as Hearing Officer and to present the proposed FY 2004 Budget.
Turnbull reviewed the 2003-2004 State of Nebraska NRD Budget Form and advised the board that no changes have been made to the document since the board approved it for the purpose of public hearing. The total property tax request is $1,277,733.15. Total funds available are $3,559,990.95 and operating expenses are $1,309,981.87. Capital improvements including sinking fund are $2,030,709.08 and other capital outlay of $19,300. Total disbursements are $3,359,990.95 with a $200,000 cash reserve. The tax needed is $1,205,408.63 plus 1 percent County Treasurers’ Commission of $12,054.09 and 5 percent delinquent tax allowance of $60,270.43 for a total of $1,277,733.15.

Turnbull asked if there were any questions or comments. There were none. Houdersheldt closed the hearing at 7:50 p.m.

ITEM 9. REPORT OF PROJECTS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Bruns reported that the Projects Committee met on August 12, 2003 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 10. VILLAGE OF McCool JUNCTION DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENTS.

Stan Johnson with Miller & Associates presented his firm’s plan to improve drainage within the Village of McCool. The Village of McCool is requesting that the NRD provide financial assistance for the drainage improvement project. The total estimated project cost is $486,200 which includes street paving, stormwater drainage, and project administration. The Village has obtained a $249,600 Community Development Block Grant from the State. The engineer’s estimate of project cost is shown in the table below.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that the District provide inter-government cost share assistance to the Village of McCool Junction for construction of drainage improvements to be constructed in accordance with the time-line, budget, and engineering plan presented by the Village and Miller & Associates Engineers, and that the District’s share of project cost be 25% of actual expenditures for the local share of the stormwater drainage component, and that the District’s share of cost not become due before July 1, 2004, subject to the Village agreeing to enter into an interlocal agreement with the District and act as lead agency for the project and be responsible for operation and maintenance of completed facilities at the Village’s expense.

Volkmer expressed concern that a maximum dollar limit on NRD cost share wasn’t stated in the motion. Twenty-five percent of the local share of the stormwater drainage component would be $44,150. The figures provided for the project are only estimates and could increase and Volkmer felt we needed to put a limit on the financial assistance the NRD would be expected to contribute.

It was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Hansen to amend the motion to read “... and that the District’s share of project cost be 25% of actual expenditures, not to exceed $44,150, for the local share of the stormwater drainage component.”

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Moore to amend the amendment to say not to exceed $50,000. The amendment was approved.

ITEM 12. NEW LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM PRACTICES.

In June 2003, the Water Committee recommended that the Projects Committee consider amending the Land Treatment Program policy to include cost share on water meters and sprinkler irrigation systems. At the July 2003 meeting, the Projects Committee considered a recommendation to include water meters and sprinkler irrigation systems (pivot and lateral move systems) as part of the NC-17 Irrigation Water Management practices. The Committee tabled this item until their August meeting. At the August Projects Committee meeting the item was removed from the table and forwarded to the board for approval with recommended changes.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Dickinson that the Land Treatment Program policy be amended in accordance with staff recommendations to include cost share for water meters and sprinkler irrigation systems.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Volkmer to divide the question to vote separately on the matter of cost share for water meters and sprinkler irrigation systems. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12a. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM COST SHARE ON WATER METERS.

The motion being considered “That the Land Treatment Program policy be amended in accordance with staff recommendations to include cost share for water meters.”

Friesen questioned cost sharing for water meters when, because of the declining water table, meters may soon become mandatory in the UBBN RD. He wanted to know if all land owners would be entitled to cost share on meters, or just a select few would get the cost share funds. He stated that water meters don’t save water unless used as a management tool to schedule irrigation. Currently the NRD requires water use reporting for all NC-17 practices for a three-year period. Friesen suggested that if we cost share on water meters we might want to consider requiring an Irrigation Management Short Course instead of reporting data for three years.

Dickinson asked what the maximum cost share amount was on water meters and the maximum cost share if the person applied for more than one meter. Bitner stated the maximum cost share per meter is $600 and the total maximum cost share for any NC-17 practice, or combination of practices, is $5,000.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Brown to limit cost share to one water meter per landowner per year.

Dickinson didn’t want to see the cost share on meters be limited to just landowners. He felt the operator should be able to get cost share funds as well. There was some discussion about how the cost share limits would apply to landowners and operators. Friesen said he wanted to spread the cost share money out to as many individuals as possible, and not have a landowner get cost share on four or five meters.

Bitner advised the board that according to the committee recommendation either the landowner or operator could apply for NRD cost share funds on NC-17 practices. However, under the state program only the landowner may apply for NSWCP cost share funds, unless special approval is given by the NDNR. Bitner suggested that if the intent of the amendment is to limit the number of meters that an applicant could receive, it would be better to limit the cost share to one meter per year and not specify whether the applicant is the landowner or operator.

The question was called on the amendment. The amendment failed.

ITEM 12b. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM COST SHARE ON SPRINKLER IRRIGATION SYSTEMS.

The motion being considered “That the Land Treatment Program policy be amended in accordance with staff recommendations to include cost share for sprinkler irrigation systems.”

Hansen asked whether we would cost share on used pivots. Bitner said according to the Land Treatment Program guidelines we do not cost share on used equipment. Someone asked whether that was a state policy for NSWCP funds or an NRD policy. Bitner informed them that it applies to both, since we have always followed the state guidelines. He also pointed out that pivot and lateral move sprinklers are not eligible for NSWCP cost share. If we approve the amendment to the NC-17 practices, cost share on sprinkler irrigation systems would be paid from NRD funds.

The question was called for. The motion was approved.

Construction on the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge is approximately 67% completed. Staff recommends payment of $8,080 ($808 of which is to be withheld as retainage) to Diamond Engineering for work completed in July 2003.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Luebbe that Diamond Engineering be paid $8,080, $808.00 (10%) of which is to be withheld as retainage, for construction work completed in July 2003 on the Lincoln Creek Parkway pedestrian bridge in Aurora, in accordance with the construction contract. ITEM 14. BOARD ACTION ON IRRIGATION RUNOFF COMPLAINT.

Following the formal hearing in the matter of Hinrichs vs. Aulrich, staff presented the following cease and desist order for the board’s consideration.

WHEREAS, a complaint was filed against Franklin A. Aulrich on July 17, 2003 by Lyndell Hinrichs, alleging that irrigation runoff was occurring from the SE 1/4 of Section 27, Township 8 North, Range 9 West, Adams County.

WHEREAS, Chapter 46-656.11 of the Nebraska Revised Statutes, grants the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District the authority and responsibility to control or prohibit surface runoff of water derived from ground water irrigation, and:

WHEREAS, the District has adopted District Rule 4 for the enforcement of said statute, and:

WHEREAS, a formal adjudicatory hearing was held on August 21, 2003, in accordance with District Rule 3, in the matter of this complaint, and:

WHEREAS, the evidence presented at said hearing clearly shows that Franklin A. Aulrich did, on July 17, 2003 allow irrigation runoff from ground water irrigation to occur, in violation of 46-656.11 N.R.S. and District Rule 4.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors hereby orders Franklin A. Aulrich to cease and desist from allowing irrigation runoff to continue from the SE 1/4 of Section 27, Township 8 North, Range 9 West, Adams County, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT Franklin A. Aulrich submit a Schedule of Compliance in accordance with the District Rule 4, Chapter 10 and that said schedule include permanent structural measures to prevent irrigation runoff in the future, and:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the required measures to prevent future irrigation runoff shall be in place and functional not later than June 15, 2004.

THE UPPER BIG BLUE NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICT BOARD OF DIRECTORS adopts and approves this CEASE AND DESIST ORDER on August 21, 2003.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Brown to adopt the resolution as follows:

WHEREAS, a complaint was filed against Franklin A. Aulrich on July 17, 2003 by Lyndell Hinrichs, alleging that irrigation runoff was occurring from the SE 1/4 of Section 27, Township 8 North, Range 9 West, Adams County.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Board of Directors hereby orders Franklin A. Aulrich to cease and desist from allowing irrigation runoff to continue from the SE 1/4 of Section 27, Township 8 North, Range 9 West, Adams County.

Turnbull advised that the last paragraph which reads “THE UPPER BIG BLUE NATURAL RESOURCES DISTRICT BOARD OF DIRECTORS adopts and approves this CEASE AND DESIST ORDER on August 21, 2003.” needs to be included in the motion. With the approval of the second the paragraph was added to the motion.

Houdersheldt asked if the paragraph which reads “BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the required measure to prevent irrigation runoff shall be in place and functional not later than June 15, 2004” wasn’t needed as well. Austin didn’t wish to include it.

DeBuhr said that if the board doesn’t want to make it mandatory at this time for Mr. Aulrich to have to put in permanent structural measures he would suggest they adopt the cease and desist order as it was proposed, but strike the words ‘permanent structural’ from the order. He explained that according to the District’s Rule 4, if the board issues a cease and desist order, a schedule of compliance is required.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Dickinson to amend the motion to include the following: “BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT Franklin A. Aulrich submit a Schedule of Compliance in accordance to the District Rule 4, Chapter 10 and that said schedule include measures to prevent irrigation runoff in the future, and: BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the required measures to prevent future irrigation runoff shall be in place and functional no later than June 15, 2004.” The amendment was approved.

ITEM 22.  AQUIFER QUALITY WELL ABANDONMENT COST SHARE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY CLARIFICATION.

The current program policy for AQWACAP provides that the program is to follow the same criteria as the NRD’s policy on other cost-share programs. Under NRD policy, municipalities are not eligible for land treatment cost-share so it has been the policy that municipalities are not eligible for AQWACAP cost-share. It was recently brought to the staff’s attention that neighboring NRDs do cost-share on municipal wells. After reviewing the requirement of eligibility to receive state water well decommissioning funds, it appears the NRDs cannot exclude any category of wells from their decommissioning program.

The staff recommends that the District amend the AQWACAP program to clarify that cost-share assistance is available to all categories of wells.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Hansen that the District amend the AQWACAP program to clarify that cost-share assistance is available to all categories of wells. The motion was approved.

ITEM 30. STAFF REORGANIZATION.
Turnbull is recommending that the two vacant public information positions be eliminated and two new positions be created, and that the budget for public information be split between Administration and the Water Department.

One of the new positions would be a Public Relations Specialist that would report right to the General Manager. The job would entail the promotion of the District’s programs through public contacts, presentations, and publications. The responsibilities would be to coordinate and conduct information and education programs and activities and advise the General Manager on public relations matters.

The other new position would be a Conservationist in the Water Department. It would be much like an extension agent’s work, only concentrating on water and water quality. The job would be to conduct the water quality training sessions, and advise farm owners and operators on irrigation water management and practices, as well as, other land treatment conservation programs. The job would include a lot of one on one work with farm operators, as well as group presentations. The individual would not be a technician and would not be expected to design or layout practices, but rather to coordinate between the farmer and our staff or other agencies.

Neither position would be an entry level job. Marketing of the District programs, as well as promotion of the Board of Director’s philosophies, would be of prime importance.

The Executive Committee discussed the immediate need for changing the direction of the District’s public relations efforts. The committee also discussed the projected workload of the Water Department with the implementation of ground water quantity regulations on top of the Phase II work of the ground water quality management area. The importance of a conservationist dealing with water users was pointed out.

Turnbull presented a Staff Organization Chart with proposed changes to streamline the organization. The office is shown in a true support role, rather than a separate department. The public relations effort is absorbed into Administration and the Water Department.

The question was asked about committee structure reorganization to match the new staff organization. Turnbull presented a draft committee structure which streamlines the committees. The Budget and Legislative Committee functions would be handled by a strengthened Executive Committee. The forestry, parks, and wildlife functions of the Ed and Parks Committee would be picked up by the Projects Committee. The general public information functions would be overseen by the Executive Committee, while the conservation position would fall under the Water Committee. The new structure would have three committees: Executive, Projects & Programs, and Water & Regulations. If the Board decision is to reorganize the committees, Operating Policies 14, 15 & 16 will need to be amended in the near future to reflect those changes.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Austin that the staff reorganization be approved with the creation of a Public Relations Specialist position and a Conservationist position, in place of the current Public Information Specialist and Public Information Department Manager; and that the reorganization be effective September 1, 2003. Further, that the Board Committees be reorganized into an Executive Committee, Projects & Programs Committee, and a Water & Regulations Committee, effective January 1, 2004.

Moore requested that since this motion would effect existing district policy it be held over for 30 days.

ITEM 31. FINANCIAL REPORT, JULY 1, 2003 THROUGH JULY 31, 2003, AND CONSIDERATION OF EXPENDITURES FOR JULY 2003.

Turnbull reviewed the financial report for the period July 1, 2003 through July 31, 2003 that we had distributed. It was moved by Hansen and seconded by Dickinson to accept the financial report for July 2003 as presented, and approve payments of the accounts payable, and publish the

ITEM 8.  FISCAL YEAR 2004 PROPERTY TAX REQUEST HEARING.

Houdersheldt opened the fiscal year 2004 Property Tax Request Hearing at 7:37 p.m. He informed those present that notice of this hearing was published in the York News-Times on September 4, 2003 as required by law. The purpose is to hear support, opposition, criticism, suggestions or observations of taxpayers relating to setting the final tax request at a different amount than the prior year tax request.

Turnbull explained that every year the district sets a recommended tax rate and submits it to the York County Clerk who verifies the information and certifies the tax levy to be collected by all nine counties. The Upper Big Blue NRD’s fiscal year 2004 budget has a property tax request of $1,277,733.15. The final valuations for the district total $4,829,015,761. Last year’s tax request was $1,261,847.37 with a tax rate of 0.02694. The current year’s property tax rate would be 0.026131 to generate $1,261,847.37. The property tax rate needs to be 0.026459 to generate the $1,277,733.15 to fund the FY 2004 budget. Turnbull recommended the board adopt the following resolution to set the tax request for FY 2004.

Resolution

WHEREAS the FY 2004 Budget for the Upper Big Blue NRD, as adopted by this board of directors on August 21, 2003, has a property tax requirement of $1,277,733.15;

WHEREAS the final total valuation of the NRD is $4,829,015,761;

WHEREAS the FY 2003 Budget (prior year) required a tax request of $1,261,847.37 and a property tax rate of $0.02694;

WHEREAS the FY 2004 (current year) property tax rate would be $0.026131 to generate $1,261,847.37.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by this Board of Directors on September 18, 2003, to set the FY 2004 tax request at $1,277,733.15 for the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District which will require a property tax rate of $0.026459.

Houdersheldt asked for comments from the public. There were none. The hearing was officially closed at 7:45 p.m.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Friesen to adopt the resolution to set the FY 2004 Property Tax Request. The motion was approved.

At the August 2003 board meeting, the NRD Board of Directors agreed to provide up to $50,000 cost share to the Village of McCool Junction for storm sewer and drainage improvements within the Village. An interlocal agreement was prepared by the District staff and reviewed by the Village Council. Staff recommends that the NRD Board Chairman be authorized to sign the agreement.

The total estimated project cost is $486,200, and includes street paving, stormwater drainage, and project administration. The Village has obtained a $249,600 Community Development Block Grant from the State. The engineer’s estimate of project cost is shown in the following table:

ITEM 15. PIONEER TRAILS FISHING LAKE DEVELOPMENT.

Staff recommends that the District proceed with development of a fishing lake at the Pioneer Trails Project. Since the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission staff declined the District’s request for cost share assistance, it is recommended that the fishing jetties, gravel spawning beds, and sediment basin be deleted to reduce cost. Staff recommends that 17 acres of the lake bed be treated by tilling, treating with 0.5% Soda Ash, and compacting with sheep’s foot roller to reduce seepage, and that a 1,000 g.p.m. well be installed to recycle recharged ground water to maintain lake level. Staff is requesting authorization to obtain detailed proposals from several contractors for the Board to review.

It was moved by Nuss and seconded by Austin that staff is authorized to obtain proposals from contractors for installing one groundwater well and sealing 17 acres of the lake bed at the Pioneer Trails Project, in accordance with the engineering report dated February 2003.

There was some discussion regarding the cost of operating the well to maintain the lake level. Staff estimated that the cost the first year would be about $7,800. The cost would decrease over a five-year period to about $1,400. Concern was expressed about drilling a well to maintain the lake for recreation, when we are experiencing drought conditions across the district.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Bruns to amend the motion to strike the words “installing one groundwater well and.” The amendment was approved.

ITEM 16. PRELIMINARY DESIGN OF KEZAN CREEK DAM.

Staff reviewed the status of the proposed Kezan Creek Dam near the Village of Garrison. Two potential sites have been considered by the Board. It is recommended that staff be authorized to prepare preliminary design of the Kezan Creek Dam at the downstream site. Preliminary design will include detailed mapping, dam site location and grading plan, identification of roads, land areas, and landowners affected by the dam and reservoir, collection of rainfall and runoff data, watershed hydrology, and preliminary geotechnical engineering. Drilling and testing will be conducted to determine embankment stability, foundation stability, reservoir seepage rate, and soil suitability. Staff will prepare a preliminary design report, including engineering recommendations, project cost estimate, and benefit vs. cost calculation. If the preliminary design is acceptable to the Board, staff will request authorization to seek grant funds to help with building the project.

It was moved by Nuss and seconded by Hansen that staff is authorized to prepare preliminary design of the Kezan Creek Dam, downstream site, as reviewed by the Committee. The motion was approved.

The total amount earned by the contractor is $47,809.60. The District will withhold 10% retainage in the amount of $4,780.96 leaving a payment of $43,028.64 to be made to A & R
Construction Company. This is a semimonthly payment made by the General Manager which requires no committee or board action.

A & R Construction Company has submitted a claim for the Plum Creek Hiking & Biking Trail Project for work completed from August 17-31, 2003. Approximately 66% of the project is completed at this point in time. The total amount earned by the contractor is $14,477.00. The District will withhold a 10% retainage in the amount of $1,447.70 leaving a payment of $13,029.30 to be made to A & R Construction Company.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Regier that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District approve a payment of $14,477.00 to A & R Construction Company, and that $1,447.70 be withheld as retainage, for the work completed from August 17, 2003 to August 31, 2003 on the Plum Creek Hiking & Biking Trail located along Plum Creek east of Seward. ITEM 20. PAYMENT TO FILLMORE CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL FOR OUTDOOR CLASSROOM.

On November 18, 2001, the District entered into an Interlocal Agreement with Fillmore Central High School to provide assistance to help construct an outdoor classroom which would also be shared with the Heritage Nursing Home. Since the total project cost exceeded $800.00, the Board of Directors voted to make this a special project. The Board voted to fund the project at 25% of the local share not to exceed $10,000. On July 18, 2002, the District made a partial payment of $2,000.00. On January 16, 2003, the District made another partial payment of $5,463.50 leaving a balance of $2,536.50. Fillmore Central High School has submitted their final bill in the amount of $2,536.50 for the work completed on the outdoor classroom. The bills for the work completed amounted to $19,594.50. The amount of work and material donated by community sponsors amounted to $9,447.69 leaving the school with a total cost of $10,146.87 to pay.

ITEM 23. NITRATE TEST RESULTS FOR 2003.

In 2003 wells in zones 1, 2, 5 and 6 were sampled. Test results show that the median nitrate level in zone 1 dropped from 7.1 to 5.1 ppm, while the levels in the other zones increased. The largest increase was in Zone 6, where the median level went from 7.7 ppm to 9.0 ppm.

ITEM 24. POTENTIAL PHASE II MANAGEMENT AREA.

The results of the Summer 2003 nitrate sampling indicate that the median nitrate level in management zone 6 is 9.0 mg/l. The trigger level for a potential phase II management area is 9.0 mg/l. The other criteria for determining if phase II management is needed are; 1) less than 60% of the corn and sorghum acres are soil sampled for nitrogen to a depth of 3 feet, and 2) less than 60% of the irrigation is being scheduled using an approved irrigation scheduling method. The NRD’s regulations call for reports to be filed by the operators of land in zone 6 to determine if these criteria are being met.

Management Zone 6 includes the following townships in Hamilton County, T9N-R5W (Farmers Valley), and T10N-R5W (Beaver) and the following townships in York County; T9N-R3W (Hays), T9N-R4W (Henderson), T10N-R3W (Baker) and T10N-R4W (Brown).

The staff recommends that the Board declare Management Zone 6 a “Potential Phase II Management Area” and authorize the staff to proceed with the potential Phase II reporting as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 19, ¶ 5.01.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Austin that the Board declare Management Zone 6 a “Potential Phase II Management Area” and authorize the staff to proceed with the potential Phase II reporting as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 19, ¶ 5.01. The motion was approved.

The staff reviewed changes recommended by the Department of Natural Resources, including typographical errors and minor clarifications.

The Water Committee changed the allocation from 38 inches to 65 inches for the first ground water use period and changed the length of the first ground water use period from three years to five years. They also removed any language from Rule 5 that would allow the carryover of unused allocation or acres reduction allotment. They changed the schedule for the installation of flow meters from a four-year schedule to a two-year schedule. The reporting trigger level in Chapter 8, paragraph 04 was changed from six feet above the 1978 level to three feet above the 1978 level.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Dickinson to adopt the September draft of Rule 5, as amended by the Water Committee, for the purpose of holding a public hearing.

There was considerable discussion about flow meter maintenance. It was noted that the draft did not specify how long a meter could remain in place without routine maintenance and calibration of the meter.

It was moved by Friesen and seconded by Austin to amend the motion to direct the staff to come up with a periodic schedule for maintenance and calibration of flow meters. The amendment was approved.

After a great deal of discussion it was moved by Jackson and seconded by Volkmer to send the matter back to Committee for further consideration. The motion was approved.

ITEM 28. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT.

Regier reported that the Executive Committee met on September 11, 2003 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 29. FURNACE AND AIR CONDITIONER REPLACEMENT.

Turnbull requested quotes from three firms in York for replacement furnaces and air conditioners in the main building. Even after follow up calls to York Heating and Air Conditioning and William F. McCormick, Inc., only one firm submitted a quote, J & R Heating and Air Conditioning.
J & R Heating and Air Conditioning’s quote is for the installation of three Lennox 92.5% high efficiency gas furnaces and three high efficiency air conditioners (410A refrigerant instead of Freon), including the removal and disposal of the old equipment, for $14,270. J & R also submitted an alternate with air conditioners with a lower efficiency rating for $13,107. J & R is able to have the work completed by the end of October. The Committee felt that over the long run the high efficiency air conditioners would be better.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Austin to accept the quote from J & R Heating and Air Conditioning of York, Nebraska, for the purchase and installation of three Lennox 92.5% high efficiency gas furnaces and three Lennox high efficiency air conditioners (model numbers as per the written quote) for a total cost of $14,270. The motion was approved.

ITEM 30. AUTOCAD SOFTWARE UPGRADES.

Our current AutoCAD software will no longer be supported by AutoCAD after October 1. If the District upgrades the software now, the cost will be $5,800. After October 1 the District would have to buy new software without an upgrade and the cost would be several thousand dollars more.

The AutoCAD Map, Land Desktop, Civil Design, and Survey Design components all need to be upgraded. DLT Solutions of Herndon, Virginia has quoted GSA pricing of $5,800 for AutoCAD and the needed components. The funds are in the FY 2004 budget.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Brown to approve the purchase of the AutoCAD upgrade for the AutoCAD Map, Land Desktop, Civil Design, and Survey Design components from DLT Solutions of Herndon, Virginia for $5,800. The motion was approved.

ITEM 31. PURCHASE OF DRAFTING PLOTTER.

The current drafting plotter needs to be replaced because it does not have enough memory to handle large complicated drawings and air photos. Additional memory can’t be installed on the current plotter. The Water and Projects Departments both use the plotter for reproducing drawings, maps, and graphics. Bitner proposes that the current plotter be kept for use, for simpler drawings and maps.

DLT Solutions has quoted $6,301 for a 42” HP Design Jet 800 PS Printer. That is GSA pricing. The funds are in the FY 2004 budget.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Austin to approve the purchase of the 42” HP Design Jet 800 PS Printer from DLT Solutions, Herndon Virginia for $6,301. The motion was approved.

ITEM 32. STAFF & STANDING COMMITTEE REORGANIZATIONS.

At the August 21, 2003 Board of Directors meeting management presented a recommendation to restructure the office staff and committee organization.

The current Public Information Department would be eliminated. Two new positions would be created. One of the positions would be a Public Relations Specialist who would report directly to the General Manager. Their job would be to promote the district’s programs, present information and education programs and advise the General Manager on public relations matters. The other education position would be a Conservationist in the Water Department. The conservationist would conduct water quality training sessions, advise farm owners and operators on irrigation water management and practices and land treatment conservation programs.

The Office Department would no longer be a separate department, but would move to a support role.

The board of directors’ committee structure would be reconfigured to coincide with the changes in staff organization. The current Education & Parks Committee would be eliminated. The Parks Committee programs would be combined with the Projects Committee and become the Projects & Programs Committee. The Education Committee functions would be split between the Executive Committee and Water Committee. The Water Committee would become the Water & Regulations Committee. The Budget Committee would be eliminated and the committee’s responsibilities would be incorporated into a newly structured Executive Committee.

The matter was held over until the September 18, 2003 board meeting for consideration.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Brown that the staff reorganization be approved with the creation of a Public Relations Specialist position and a Conservationist position, in place of the current Public Information Specialist and Public Information Department Manager; and that the reorganization be effective October 1, 2003. Further, that the Board Committees be reorganized into an Executive Committee, Projects & Programs Committee and a Water & Regulations Committee effective January 1, 2004. The motion was approved.

ITEM 17. GROUND WATER MANAGEMENT AREA 1 FOR WATER QUANTITY. REVIEW OF REGULATIONS - RULE 5.

Brown reviewed the proposed changes, including the appellation of Rule 5 from wells of 100
G.P.M. or more to wells of 50 G.P.M. or more to be consistent with state law, adding criteria for meter maintenance, and adding criteria for designation of ground water use reduction acres.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Hansen to adopt the October draft of Rule 5, as amended by Committee, for the purpose of holding a public hearing.

DeBuhr told the board that the draft needed to be changed to reflect changes made by the Water Committee that were mistakenly left out of the draft. The Committee changed the allocation for the first water use period from sixty-five inches to thirty-nine inches.

On page 5-23, Chapter 15A, Paragraph 01 needs to be corrected to read “Amount of ground water allocated - The allocation for the first ground water use period shall be thirty-nine (39) acre inches for each certified ground water use acre.”

On page 5-27, Chapter 16, Paragraph 01 needs to be corrected to read “A municipal user shall limit ground water use to two hundred seventy-four thousand (274,000) gallons per capita served, plus thirty-nine (39) inches per acre for one-third (1/3) of the non-agricultural lands within the municipal jurisdictional limits for the ground water use period.”

Subparagraph 01.01 should read “A municipal user shall receive an allocation of thirty-nine (39) inches per acre for the ground water use period for irrigated agricultural lands that it serves. This allocation shall be added to municipal user’s total allocation.”

On page 5-29, Chapter 17, Paragraph 01 should read “An other user shall limit his or her ground water withdrawal during the ground water use period to one hundred (100) percent of his or her withdrawal for the three (3) year period prior to the first ground water use period.”

DeBuhr also told the Board that the Water Committee had instructed staff to work on page 5-15 to add language to explain what was meant by “average ground water level” and “1978 level.” He reviewed the proposed changes with Committee members prior to the board meeting. He explained the changes to the Board and asked that they amend page 5-15 to include the changes.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Hansen to amend Rule 5 by adding the words “The base is assumed to be zero (0)” to Chapter 9, Paragraph 02.01 and adding the following paragraph “02.02a. The 1978 level was determined to be 6.33 feet below the base level.” The amendment was approved.

LEGAL NOTICE OF HEARING.

Houdersheldt advised those present that the Notice of Public Hearing was published on October 24, October 30 and November 6, 2003 as required by law in the York News-Times.

APPOINTMENT OF HEARING EXAMINER.

Rod DeBuhr:
This chart that you see in front of you is an average ground water level chart for the Upper Big Blue NRD. That same chart is also on the back of the blue summary that was handed out, so if you’re having a hard time seeing this far away from it, it is on there. The Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District has been a groundwater management area for quantity, for control of ground water quantity, since 1977. The first rules and regulations were adopted in 1979 and those, or revisions of those, have been in effect the whole time. What we are proposing, what we’re talking about and taking testimony about here, are amendments to those regulations. On the blue sheet you have a summary of what the major changes in these rules are. Everyone here should have that, they were handed out as you came in. Also, there were a limited number of complete regulations available. If you’re having a hard time sleeping at night and you need something to read, you can read the complete set. Some of the changes - up until a few years ago the Legislature said that wells of 100 g.p.m. or more were regulated by ground water management area laws. That recently changed, a few years ago to 50 g.p.m. and while we’re doing this update we changed that portion of it. So any well that pumps more than 50 g.p.m. is subject to these regulations. That includes irrigation wells, industrial wells, municipal wells and so on. If wells pump less than 50 g.p.m. and you have more than one well and the combined total is over 50 for one purpose and one location, like say a feedlot has three 49 g.p.m. wells, that’s considered one well. You can’t get around the regulations by having a well less than 50 gallons per minute. On well spacing we are not proposing any changes. The existing regulations are 1,000 feet between neighboring wells and if you have an existing well that was drilled before the regulations first went into effect in 1979, and it’s less than 1,000 feet from a neighbor’s well, it can be replaced. You just can’t get any more than 50 feet closer than you were before. Ground water transfer regulations. We have existing regulations, but we are not proposing to change any of those. They allow you to transfer water to an adjacent section, but limit that transfer to an equal number of acres, as are in the tract where the well is located. If, for example, you have an 80-acre tract in one section and want to pump water across the road to another 80-acre tract that’s acceptable, but you are limited to 80. If you have 80 to start with, or 160 if you have 160 on the other tract. That is an existing rule, there is no proposed change. The change for transfers are now that industrial, municipal and other users would also be subject to transfers with some exemptions that are provided for in state law. Currently the Upper Big Blue NRD’s regulations have two triggers. We refer to them as the reporting trigger and an allocation trigger. The reporting trigger - when that level is met then all ground water users would be required to report acres, wells and that sort of thing. And that currently is this green line, or the middle line, on the chart that you have on the blue paper. These regulations are proposing to raise that line one foot to the red, or purple line here. The purpose for that primarily is to give us more time to complete the reporting and implement installation of flow meters, if it’s necessary. It was felt that there may not be enough time between these two lines to get all of that accomplished because of the number of people and number of wells that we’re working with. Also, at that time, if the water level were to fall to that reporting level, it would require that the producer make a choice between an allocation or an acreage reduction option that is proposed in these regulations, and I’ll talk a little bit more about those in a minute, when I get to that section. Once the water level falls to this reporting trigger, if that occurs, and that is approximately 3.71 feet below where we were this spring. So the water level would have to drop another 3.71 feet to trigger the first phase, the reporting phase. At that time, anyone who chose the allocation option, who owned a well in the north half of a section, would be required to install a meter. The following year anyone owning a well in the south half of a section would be required to install a meter. Those who chose the acreage reduction option would not be required to have meters. Under the allocation and acreage reduction option – let me back up. If the water level were to drop an additional 3 feet, this three feet between the purple and the read line, then we would reach the allocation trigger. Once that begins, once we reach the allocation trigger, the allocation and acreage reduction options would begin the following calendar year. So from the spring of a given year, say the spring of 2006, or whatever the year is that we hit this, if we hit it, then the following January we would start, that restriction would start. The first allocation set in the proposed change is 39 inches for three years, or an average of 13 inches per year. The existing rules are 48 inches, which was the allocation that was set back in 1979 initially. If you choose the acreage reduction option, you would be required to not irrigate 10 percent of your irrigated acres, as an option to the allocation. Irrigated acres will be based on county assessor’s records, those that are taxed as irrigated. Also, the regulations, it’s not in the summary, but they do allow for pooling. In other words the water use, or the acres reduction, does not have to be field by field. If you have three pivots and two gravity fields for example, you can average the water use over the entire acreage. The same would be true of the acreage reduction. You could take all of it out of one field or whatever you chose, with some minor limitations. There have to be minimum blocks, block sizes. I believe that concludes the summary. Just for your information, I failed to say that the people that are sitting up front here are the board of directors of the NRD. They’re here to hear your comments. They should all have name tags in front of them. What we will do now is accept testimony. We will not be answering questions as you give your testimony. If you wish to pose a question for the board to consider that’s great, but it’s not a question and answer session, it’s a public hearing for the purpose of receiving testimony. As you come forward, we would ask that you come forward and sign your name and address so that we can — print it please - so we can get it in the record properly. All of the testimony will be transcribed and typed out so the board has an opportunity to review it and read it. Also, if you have written comments with you if you could turn them in that would be wonderful. They will be included with the transcript. We will also, I’ll repeat this at the end, but we will also leave the record open for additional written comments through the 26th of November, the day before Thanksgiving, through the close of business on the 26th. I would also ask whoever, after the first person has come up, if the next person who wants to testify can come up and sit in the chair and get signed in so we keep this flowing as smoothly as we possibly can. So with that, when you come up state your name clearly and spell it if you would also, so if we can’t read somebody’s handwriting, or whatever, we get it right. We want to get everything right. So with that I invite whoever wants to be first to testify to come on up.

Dennis Richters:

My name is Dennis Richters. I’ve got a cold so I might have trouble talking as long as I would like. You guys have got a terrific job to do here. You’re responsible for a tremendous resource, you’re not responsible to me as an irrigator, or any other irrigator of any other segment, it’s a resource for the citizens of the state that you’re responsible for. Now, I’m not sure any of you should get reelected, because if you do your job right, you’re gonna have everybody so damn mad at you, you’re not going to get reelected. But again, it’s the resource that you need to protect. I think everything you’re doing is fine. You’re on top of things, but when we get to the acreage reduction option, I have a problem with that. We’re looking for a painless way to do this. And it’s just like a tax, and there’s no painless tax. And when you drop 10 percent of the acres, and we can pool our acres, for instance my son and I farm together, and say we’ve got 10 pivots, anywhere from 850 to 500 g.p.m. Now which pivot do you think I’m going to give you? I’m going to give you the one that’s got 500 g.p.m. I’m not going to cut back much, I’m probably going to irrigate with the other ones another 10 percent, maybe even 20, and so the goal of saving water isn’t going to happen. So I’m opposed to doing it that way. I don’t think we can check it, I don’t think it treats everybody the same in fairness and equitable – it’s part of your job. You’re also talking about moratoriums. I think they’re counter productive. They’re unfair. I was born in the 30's. I’ve irrigated since the 50's so what I’m telling somebody is I used your water, you’ve helped me out by not irrigating, but I’m never going to let you use any. So I’m opposed to moratoriums and if you suggest there’s going to be a moratorium you’re going to have a whole bunch of wells come in ahead of time. It’s happened in every other NRD. It creates more wells than it saves and I just don’t think that’s fair. As for me, you bite the bullet and we meter everybody. And I know there would be a lot of bureaucracy, a lot of money involved, but you allocate. If we’re at a certain level and we’re still mining the water, which we have no right to do, we pump less. And if the water table comes up, we pump more, or we’re allowed to pump more. But we can talk about pivots, economics, fuel price, everything, but the water table is going down. We’ve all got a right to use it. We don’t have a right to abuse it. We’ve all seen cases of water running away, end guns and that, and if we run that through a meter everybody’s going to see that number, and we’re going to do a lot better than we’re doing now. A lot of improvement has been made. I’m proud of agriculture. But I’m sure we can do a lot better than we’re doing now. And when that number goes by and we look ahead two years we’re going to say ‘I can find a way to do with less’. Maybe we’ll look west for a thunderhead, I don’t know, but we’ll find a way to do a better job. And, again, you meter and you allocate. It’s in my mind the only fair way to do it. You guys have got a heck of a job to do. I’ve got a friend, Clayton Luekow at Holstein, and Clayton has a saying “I can live with less water. I cannot survive with no water’. So the water table going down isn’t the NRDs fault, it isn’t the board’s fault, it’s the weather. If we do meter and allocate and if it rains and we didn’t have to, we’ve wasted some time, some money, some effort, and that’s a mistake. If it doesn’t rain, or we keep pumping this thing dry, then that is a terrible mistake, so I’m more than willing to meter and allocate and like I said I know there will be bureaucracy and money spent on it, and it will be a pain, and you’re going to have a hell of a lot of people mad at you, but in a way that’s your job. The greatest risk that NRDs have is failing to act, to have the courage to act. And there’s going to be a lot of people like me who say we should act and they’re not going to look you up and say thanks. But the ones that don’t think we should act are going to look you up. I’m probably not telling you anything you don’t know already. But that’s my feeling, be fair, treat everybody the same. The 10 percent acreage reduction doesn’t mean we’ll save one drop of water. I’m just opposed to that. And I would like sometime, on this other users thing, 100 percent of historic use based on the last three years, I’d like to have somebody give me notice and say what other users are. I’m a little—I don’t want ag to lose another step on the ladder. I need that defined sometime. Anybody got any questions or anything? Evidently I’m going to be the only speaker, because there’s nobody in the other chair here.

Rod DeBuhr: Thank you.

Roger Siebert:

My name is Roger Siebert and I suppose you all know who I am. I’m from Henderson, Nebraska. And I remember in about 1977 we had a meeting like this and I think it was John Turnbull’s first day on the job. Am I correct? And I was sitting right beside him and we had quite a meeting. Well anyway the moral of the story is I think, I get the feeling from some of the board members that they’re not in favor of the 10 percent allocation. I personally am in favor of the allocation of the 10 percent. The number one reason why the one power line that goes through the district, which is a big main one, I drove up and down that power line, and I would guess, and you can probably contradict the acres, but there’s about 20,000 acres underneath the power lines that are subject to no pivots. We have Lincoln Creek, Beaver Creek, and the Blue River and all three of those have approximately 10,000 acres each on both sides that are basically subject to no pivots because of power lines, small fields, little fields, big fields. And so for that particular reason I hope that the board leaves that on the agenda. It’s in there now, but I understand that it could be taken out after the meeting. I think the rules that we have right now are a good set of rules. I think that there was a lot of thought put into them. I sometimes feel that we shouldn’t try to fix something that isn’t broke. We are right now, today, at prehistoric levels on water table. We have one particular farm that we rent from a lady that’s got a power line through it, it’s got two 30 acre fields, there’s no way you could put a pivot on there. So we irrigate more than 15 inches every year. So I took the opportunity to take the water table on that well that was drilled in 1955, it was 21 feet. We’ve pumped for 40 years, more than 15 inches on that farm. That water table is exactly at 21 feet today, yet. So we’re asking this lady, basically to farm her ground dryland or try to irrigate sandy soil on 15 acres of water, and she can’t. We know she can’t. But where did our water stay? Our water didn’t get wasted. The corn only uses 15 inches so basically our water went right down to the ground level where it came from. We’ve had our nitrate level checked on these wells. And the nitrate levels on these particular wells are in perfect shape. So I don’t know how you feel that you’re treating this lady fair when she has not made the water decline one inch. But she is willing to go on the 10 percent allocation. Farm 10 acres of dryland wheat or whatever it may be, so I hope that we leave that in there for all the land, it comes to a total of probably 60,000 acres in the district, just off the top of my hat, that cannot have a meter, I mean cannot have a pivot on it. I think sometimes that a particular farm like that, that irrigates by gravity, that has a reuse pit, where all the water table never leaves the farm, I’m not so sure that he’s wasting any more water at 20 inches than the pivot is at 13. Because a pivot at 13 inches is some of it evaporating in the air, where I think that the gravity, it goes right back into the soil where it came from. And I remember one time when I was on the board we argued for six months to a year about whether we should buy directors’ chairs. And it took quite a hassle to buy a bunch of directors’ chairs. Now we want to spend, according to the figures, at least 13 million on meters. I check with the underground pipe that I had on my particular pivots, and granted I’ve got mostly pivots, over half of my wells will have to have new underground pipe. And I know when we touch the old one, it’s going to be rusty, it’s going to break, so it needs a new one. It’s going to cost me about $1000 per well, besides the meter. I wish that the board would do an impact study of what we are really going to spend. How many people are we really going to employ? How many pickups are we going to buy? How many 4-wheelers are we really going to buy? Because when we bought the chairs, we went through that ten times, how much were they really going to cost and what we were going to do. But here we’re talking about spending ten to twenty million dollars and not even have a study done. At least I haven’t seen the figures of how much this program is going to cost to implement. How much is the program going to cost to run? So I think the program that is on this board is a very good program. The only thing that I think we should change on that program is add the 10 percent set aside for these 60,000 acres. Somebody put in underground, what they call soaker lines, underneath the ground just on a lawn. And it doesn’t even work on the lawn. The hoses are already plugged up. So these small fields are not proven to be taken lightly by going to a soaker hose type irrigation system in there. And so I hope you leave the program basically the way it is and add the 10 percent set aside and give me a cost of what this program is really going cost before you vote on it. Thanks for your time.

Stan Buehr:

My name is Stan Buehr from Henderson. Does this work?

Rod DeBuhr:

That’s hers.

Stan Buehr:

I talk pretty loud and my voice carries pretty well. I too am opposed to these changes. I think the rules that were put in 1978 or 1979, whatever it was, were excellent rules, with a lot of time put into them. I know one of the reasons why they want to raise the level by one foot is because they do not think they will have time to put meters on for all the additional wells that we’ve had. But back in 1979 surely the foresighted people that put in the rules realized that by time 2003 would come around there would be a lot more wells. So if they thought it was doable then, it’s probably doable now. The reason I’m against raising it a foot (there are a couple of reasons for you to think about) one, it’s going to be an economic, I hate to say the word disaster, but economic hardship. Because agriculture already is on a tight budget. We’re already on a real slim budget and it’s not making a lot of money. So this would be a real deficit. For instance every farmer probably has about twelve wells and each one would cost at least $1000 to put meters on. So that’s $12,000 that you spend with no return, and that would be tough for the farmers to do. And it’s also a negative impact on the local economy. I think if we can avoid the meters that would be a great way to do it. I think the rules that were put in were good. Let’s live with them and keep it up and see what happens. Pray for rain. And maybe we’ll never need meters. So to spend the money and not need them would be bad, in my opinion. And the money that would need to be spent, it’s like Roger (Siebert) pointed out. It’s the 4-wheelers you’d need to buy. The personnel.
The pickups, the 4-wheel drive pickups, etc. It would have a real negative impact on the local economy. The other thing I have is that we’re looking at this thing after a three year, approximately three year drought. It’s like me looking at a corn market. Let’s say the corn markets been around $1.90 and $2.00 for two years. And then I say ‘corns never going to go higher’. So I’m going to sell two years production for $1.95, because it’s never going to go higher. That’s the same thing we’re doing here. We’ve had three years of drought and some people say we’re going to have drought for 15 more years. So we got to do something. Well, we’re three years closer to a lot of rain. That can happen. You know it could rain tomorrow. It’s raining in Lincoln today. So I think it’s dangerous, it’d be dangerous for me to make those long term decisions when the corns been down at $2.00. Just like it’s dangerous to make this long term decision when we’ve had a three-year drought. Then I’m concerned. Another concern I have is the young farmers. You hear all kinds of farm organizations speaking about they want to support young farmers, encourage young farmers, because we’re and aging population. And what are we doing by putting in regulations? We’re telling them your freedom is gone. Some of your freedom is gone. It’s making it tougher economically for them. And so we are not encouraging young farmers. What we are encouraging is what I call the Wal-Mart society. Or the Ted Turner society. Where you make things tough and so you have bigger and bigger farmers. And what happens then? Smaller and smaller schools. Schools can’t handle it. The businesses can’t handle it. So it’s a long term big economic impact it the point I’m trying to make. The other thing I want to talk about is what happens after we reach allocation. Do you realize that going from 16 inches per year down to 13 is a 19 percent reduction? That is huge. That’s a huge reduction.
From a plan that was made 20 or 30 years ago with great scientific background, now to reduce it by 19 percent like that. I don’t know, maybe you’ve done a lot of study on it, I don’t know. But to me that’s a huge drop from 16 to 13. And again, who would it affect? The smaller farmers who are living on a tight budget. And they would have to leave and so you have bigger and bigger farmers, etc. So I’m concerned. I think the rules that were put in were good. We should live with them. It’s like changing rules in the middle of the game; we don’t do it. Let’s stay with what we have. They’ll work and we’ll live with them and everybody will be a lot happier. The other thing on the allocation, I forgot this one point. On the domestic well thing, I’m concerned about that. Let’s say you have some young farmers that get excited about farming and they can’t get enough land to make a living. So they want to get into raising turkeys or any kind of livestock production. They’d have a hard time getting another well. And I am concerned about those restrictions for the domestic wells. I’ll check my notes, but I think I’ve covered everything I wanted to cover. Thank you very much.
Luke Jacobsen:

First of all I’d like to thank the board for this opportunity that you’ve given everybody to present what they have to say. And as a former director, oh, I’m sorry, my name is Luke Jacobsen from Marquette. I’d like to say, as a past director of the Upper Big Blue NRD I know what it’s like on that side of the table too. And I appreciate the challenges that you’re going through. And I would like to compliment the board. I think, probably opposed to Stan (Buehr) there a little bit, that I think it’s a proactive move on the board’s part to recognize the situation that we’re in. There’s been some comments that things have gone along pretty good. That we really haven’t affected our water table too much and we’re still in pretty good shape, so why do any changing. I would say that in my area, east of Marquette, we’re already there. We’re at the point where we have impacted irrigation. I’ve got a neighbor north of me that is running three wells on one pivot. And this year he had about half the pivot that didn’t even have water coming out of the nozzles. And that’s a sad situation to have a virtually new pivot there. Three wells, and I know they’re not all bad. I’ve got a well that was put in about 1965 that originally pumped 1,000 g.p.m. It pumped that way until the mid 70’s. Irrigation development in our neighborhood has depleted that to the point where I was running out of water the last two years. So this spring we added a second well on that pivot. At this point, with two wells, I finished the season pumping less than 500 g.p.m., with two wells. So we have significant cost there. The problem is this notion that we can continue. We’re contracting irrigation to the point where we’ve got fringe areas that are going to keep withdrawing. I’ve got a lot of neighbors that are pulling out of irrigated corn and they’re putting wheat in. Now you could say that’s not strictly due to loss of water, but I think that has a very strong impact, because wheat is not as thirsty a crop as what corn is. And it uses it at a different time. So early in the season when they have the water we tend to run out in August. I think you’re going to help the tax assessor of this district if you try to spread this water out. I think one thing about Nebraskans in times of shortage we should pitch in and share. And if we contract our irrigated acres it’s going to diminish the taxing ability, ultimately, of our assessors. And I think eventually that will happen. They’re going to have to recognize, for example, that all irrigated land is not the same. At this point in Hamilton County if it’s irrigated, it’s taxed one way, if it’s dryland it’s taxed another way, and there’s nothing in between. So that’s been my experience. I’m afraid at some point if we keep going down this path there’s going to have to be recognition that one piece of irrigated land, if you can pump 10 g.p.m. per acre on one farm, that is not equal to a farm that pumps 3 g.p.m. per acre. So you have a difficult time producing the same kind of crop. Regarding the 10 percent, when I first heard this idea I thought maybe that’s a good option. But I would agree with the first speaker. I don’t think this is going to be a significant, going to make a significant difference. If you consider and 80 acre piece of ground that’s gravity irrigated and somebody puts on 24 inches, which is not unreasonable that they could use that much, without runoff, really without wasting water. Let’s assume that 24 inches, if you use that same number of acre inches and put it on the 72 acres, that is 90 percent of what you started out with, you would be putting on 26.7, roughly, inches. So if they use the same amount of water, is that conceivable? In a dry year I think that’s very conceivable that those wells would not be slowed, they would not be stopped. And it could easily use the same amount of water on 90 percent of the acres. Even under a pivot situation, if you opted 10 percent out of a pivot, maybe you take a couple pivot corners out what you were formerly irrigating, and the pivot would continue to run. It’s doubtful that it’s going to stop just because those acres are withdrawn. So I think this is, I applaud the board’s efforts to try to have some impact here, if you insist on giving this option of acreage reduction, I would suggest you need to consider upping that percent. I’m not sure where the 10 percent came from, but it does not look like and equitable type of acreage reduction, based on going from say 20 to 24 inches down to 13 inches. That’s a very severe reduction. I don’t know why anybody would opt into this, the allocation, if they can reduce acres. Thank you.

Joe McCarthy:

My name’s Joe McCarthy, I live at 1114 Road 8, York. I’ve resided in section 26 since 1937. Two items here that I wish to address. The first one is flow meters. Run this by you. I have a meter on the REA pole out in the yard. I’ve got a meter on my natural gas line across the road and you know what I do once a month? I pay a bill. Now you put water meters on all those wells and guess what. Don’t say this isn’t in the program, because I don’t think you’ll have anything to say about it. And right down that Platte River – Scottsbluff, North Platte, Kearney, Columbus, Fremont, Lincoln, Omaha. Who owns the Nebraska Legislature? Those people all pay a water bill every month and nothing they’d like better than to see you do the same. So look before you leap. Do not put meters on those wells. Another issue I’d like to address is water allocation. One of my wells was dug in 1956. Now you’re going to allocate me the same amount of water as the one that was drilled two miles west of me last week? That’s discrimination. If you’re using a bench mark of 1978, well use the bench mark. How about I suggest that all the wells prior to that be grandfathered? If you’re going to use water allocation, use on the wells that’s been drilled since. Don’t blanket the whole area. That ends my comments. Thank you.

William Plock:

My name’s William Plock. I live in Hastings, Nebraska. One thing I’d like to address – I feel like this other guy, that the rules were set and not to be changing the rules in the middle of a football game. But I also want to go through some things here on your chart about the water table. Your water table and the number of wells you had in 1961, when this data was started, you had 3,500 wells. In 1978 when you had the lowest possible that year you had approximately 9,100 wells. Then you move over here to 1987 when there’s a lot of rain again, you had 10,000 wells and you move across over here to 1991 was the all-time high. You had 11,200 wells approximately, and as far as I can figure out you got about 13,221 wells by Nebraska Department of Resource. I went down to check out some of their data. Then I took some of your charts to kind of put it together. To me if you take a 40-year cycle your right back where you started 40 years ago on you water table and rainfall. Plus you’ve got over 10,000 more wells today that you had in 1961 when this data was accumulated. So the overall district has not really gone down, outside of the last three to four years we’ve had bad, dry years. So if you go through a 40-year cycle, to me it’s not anything to really get excited about, because you’re going to have your rain and go back up. Even though we’ve got more wells. We’ve got 7,000 more wells in 1999 and the water table still went up. But you had years in there when you had good rain and then the years you didn’t. Well just like now, we’ve had since, a bad two or three years of lower rain fall than normal. So the chart doesn’t tell the whole story. But you look at the wells and the well water hasn’t really significantly dropped. Even with 10,000 more wells than you had 40 years ago. You had a 40-year cycle there. So we do have good underground recharge so I don’t think it’s a crisis situation where you got to go in and start putting a lot of this stuff in the overall district. But I think one thing you’re a little slow in doing is, you need subdistricts like in Eldorado Township over in Clay County and School Creek, where you’ve already got significant water loss. You need to go in and start doing your studies now. And you got water loss up in Butler County. Let’s see, there’s about 170 wells that I can figure out in Eldorado Township and 170 wells in School Creek that are active, there’s more, but the active wells. There’s only about 66 up in Butler County in the two townships up there that I can come up with that were a problem with the water table dropped already significantly. Those areas ought to be addressed now and start the studies and monitoring more wells. My understanding that you do about four to 5 percent wells for an area like over there in Eldorado Township. I think there’s four or five wells. I think the monitoring ought to be moved up to 5 percent which would be almost 10 wells. And the same thing with School Creek, to move up the monitoring, to more of them and then start looking at meters in those areas and not treat the whole NRD as one unit. Narrowing down your subdistrict where you’ve already got problems and start addressing those problems, before you start a whole area, like I said, an impact study where you’re going to start implementing everything. Okay, and the next thing, I’m against a moratorium on well drilling because it doesn’t give people the opportunity down the road once it’s triggered you can’t come back and drill wells. If you trigger it next year there’s no way anybody can develop land or put in water, future pivots. So that is a hardship on the well drillers along with the farmers. If you should inherit land or anything down the road that you want to develop, or you trade land and you want to develop some of it, there’s no way in the future, once that’s triggered, any provision whatsoever to go ahead and do that. And also the gravity guy, there’s no way that a gravity farmer, like this year, can get by on that allocation. They’re going to run 30 inches of water primarily on those, like this year. There’s no question a pivot can do it on 13 inches if they really want to and still produce 200 bushel corn. But then the gravity guy, he’s going to have to leave his land lay idle every other year or every third year to meet that allocation. Then the real kicker comes as your overuse penalty. You’re going to kill the gravity guy. You’re just going to slaughter him to death. You’re going to put him out of business. You’re going to break him, because you’re going to take the water at twice the rate he was using to begin with. So that penalty - must have been somebody in Lincoln that dreamed that up. I don’t think any farmer would do that, because they’re your neighbors. You know they’ve got pivots and they’ve got gravity, pretty much everybody’s got some of both. So you’ve got to treat the gravity guy, give him a little, give him a change. Any young guy, or guys who want to farm, there’s no way they can do it, because you’re going to put them out of business once you activate that. And then, also, on these wells like we’ve talked about, young farmers want to go out and put in house wells. One thousand feet between house wells is too far, but 1,000 feet to me between a house well and an irrigation pump should be that far apart. Because there are a lot of house wells going dry, but if you’ve got a house well against a house well I can see 500 feet maybe, but 1,000 feet is a long way between a house well on one side of the road and the other. But if you’ve got an irrigation well there then you need to have that protection for a house well. I think almost 1,000 feet away from any pumping, major irrigation pumping. I want to thank the board for their time. Thank you very much.

Norman Luebbe:

I’m Norm Luebbe. I’ve heard the glad and I’ve heard the sad here today, and there’s probably a little of both. I was on the water conservation boards when they were created. I think Rod probably could fill me in on years on that. I’m sure. But I was on that water conservation board for over 30 years in Seward County. And there were a lot of inroads made back then. There was a pilot project we had at Polk, Nebraska. You remember that Rod? And that particular project it hasn’t been talked about, but its profile in the soil is basically full, 90 percent full. At that time it was a very dry year, I can’t tell you what year it was, but it was prior to 1978. And with 13 inches we raised a bumper crop up there. So we started the year with a full profile. I guess the point is we’re talking about different kinds of soils. You’ve heard from all over the watershed. And there’s all kind of land. Now in the area where I’m at we have heavy soil. A lot of soils around York and Hamilton County, there’s a lot of light soils that don’t hold the moisture. Five years ago I bought a farm and it’s 155 acres on the land. Half of it was irrigated from one well and the other half from the other well. Those wells, and these wells are not in deep water here we’re talking 125 feet deep, and they put out 1,000 g.p.m. Each one of them would in the area where I’m at, which is good water. That’s the way that piece of land was irrigated, with two wells. When I bought it, I put a pivot on it. I run one well. I run 750 g.p.m. and this year I’ve never seen the corn, in my life, as I have this year. We didn’t have a lot of rain, by the way. Had very little rain and I’m about four miles south of Seward. Very little rain down in that area. But I’ve never seen the corn so good and I know I didn’t pump 13 inches on that soil. One other thing that feeds into this, and I know a lot of guys are probably conscious of this, and a lot of them are doing this practice, no-till. No-till has done wonders for us, in dryland and in irrigated. So I think sometimes we have to look at what’s happening around us. Are we ruining our moisture by the tilling that we’re doing? So these are just some of the things that I wanted to talk about. And I’m not in favor of putting, or leaving a 10 percent lay, and going with no meters on those particular wells. I don’t know how you’re going to make an adjustment there for the fellows that have problems like that, but I think that if we’re talking about conserving water we have to work on this together, it’s a project that we all have to look at. It is a resource that’s God given and it’s something that we have to look at. After we got to the lowest level in 1981, in Seward County, we saw four wet years after that. And our water came right back up to where it was in 1953. And that’s really all it takes. If we get rain, things will turn around. But I want to commend you fellows for being on the board, for doing the things you’re doing. It’s a thankless job, but I think it’s necessary and we’re on the right track. With that I guess I’ll let somebody else speak. Thank you.
David Richert:

My name is David Richert. I farm down in the southwest corner of Butler County. I just had a couple comments I wanted to make. One of the speakers mentioned we’re mining our water. Well, the last 40 years we’ve seen just a slight increase in water. We’ve got basically no net change in the water level. So I don’t really see how we’re mining it if it’s just the same as when you first started monitoring it. Also, I’m one of those young farmers they’ve been referencing. I’ve only been out of the University a few years. And I hear some of these guys talking about having 12 wells per farmer, well I don’t know how many times I’d have to multiply before I’d get anywhere near that level. But, you put a 10 percent reduction allocation, how am I going to do that? Go to one landlord and tell him ‘well I think we’ll take a little bit off yours, because the other landlord, I can’t take anything off his very well’. That’s going to be kind of tough to do. And also, another point I want to make is the new objective that they list in this newsletter is “to encourage, promote and regulate the efficient management and conservation of ground water.” Well I’ve been dealing with government for a little while and if I ever heard of an oxymoron it’s regulate and efficient. You’ve put an allocation of water. Just for an example of what inefficiencies can be induced by increased regulations, you put a specific allotment, how many inches I can use in three years. Well if it gets to year three and I haven’t used up my allocation I’m going to pump heavy and get that subsoil profile as full as I can and get that allotment used up. That isn’t really going to conserve much water. And another thing, when I was at the University they, in one of the ecology classes they talked about a tree ring study of the droughts for the last 1,000 years in the Great Plains. And whether or not that’s accurate, my professor thought it was accurate. He said the average drought cycle from rain to drought to rain again for the last 1,000 years in the Great Plains is 12 years. We’re looking at, we’re three years into it, if this is average we’re through the worst of it by now. We’re going to be working back up. I think that’s the main points I wanted to make. There are natural cycles and they come and go. We haven’t changed our water level. We’re just on the down side of the up-cycle. We’re still where we’ve been. And increased regulations – I’ve never heard of any example where that ever increased efficiency. Thank you for your time.

Don Petersen:

I’m Don Petersen from Exeter. There’s a couple of things I’d like to comment on. First being flow meters. I don’t remember. Somebody will have to help me out, but 15 or 18 years ago a couple of the offices here in York, the Soil Conservation Office or somebody, supplied water meters. I don’t remember too much about the statistics, if they were cost-shared or what. I know we had to keep track of the rainfall for a couple of years. But my comment on those water meters is they were very short lived. Maybe today they have improved them, but after I don’t know how many people in York County would have taken advantage of this, but after they were all out, everybody found out that they were manufactured for a certain inside diameter pipe. Well I bet you if you went to all the wells here in this district you might have a hundred or more sizes diameter pipe. And there all close, within a fraction, but fractions count when you’re counting gallons of water over a three-year period. So I guess what I’m trying to say is if we’re going to be stuck with flow meters I think a little bit of money should be invested to start out every well in the district on a fair footing. And these flow meters should already be inserted in a pipe suitable for an 8 inch well or 6 inch well, or whatever. And everybody have a certain length of pipe, be it stainless steel or whatever. And cost share that. I’m sure the NRD has enough money in their kitty. They could help the farmers out on that. I hope you understand my proposal. Because I think it’s really necessary that everybody has that same pipe. I know I’ve talked to one well driller who also told me that it depends on where you install them. He said they will not read the same vertical pipe as if you install them horizontally. I don’t know a thing about that. I’ve also heard that if a pipe isn’t quite full they don’t register accurately compared to a pipe that’s full. My second comment is I think if you’re going to water restrictions or allow so many inches of water for three years, to give you an example I think that if somebody had five pivots and he wanted to plant milo on one of them and he only used five inches of water that particular year on that pivot of milo, that he be allowed to use the remainder of those gallons on the other four pivots. Maybe that is your intention, because I think in the long run that will curtail water usage because there’s always a possibility that if a rain did come you wouldn’t need all of your 39 inches, or whatever’s recommended. The last comment I’d like to make is the fact that I got a distant cousin who lives in Tampa, Florida, been there most of his life. I don’t know if any of you are familiar with it, in the last few years it’s basically gotten really dry there. But this took place several years ago. They had all sorts of water restrictions. In town they couldn’t water their lawns and all this and that. And he drove by a large cemetery there in the suburbs of Tampa. They had all sorts of sprinklers going. It made him angry and he got a hold of the right authorities, it took about three days, but they didn’t pump any more water on the cemetery. So I think maybe there are places here, even in our district, where there are some things that are more important than others. And I think that should be looked at. I thank you fellows.

Greg Buehr:

My name is Greg Buehr. I farm in York County. And I thought it would be important that the younger generation say something at this hearing. The first thing I notice when I look at this chart, and I look where we are, average ground water level. We’re at the average level. I just hope we’re not doing something too soon or we’re doing something too emotional. But there are some other things that we need to consider. I start feeling like the bad guy. As a young farmer I’m putting atrazine in the water. I’m putting nitrates in the water. I’m using up all the water. After awhile you start feeling like ‘Well what am I do? Am I destroying this thing?’. Then when I look at it, I myself don’t use atrazine because it’s not cost effective. I don’t use any more nitrogen than what I need, because I can’t afford to. And the same thing with water. And I just wonder if some of these things, there might be some things that can be done, for example what’s being done with the nitrates. Forcing people to do soil tests and so forth. I wonder if some of those things couldn’t be done with water. For instance, I hire a crop consultant. Why do I pay the $7.00 per acre for a crop consultant? So he tells me how much water I need. He saves me more water. There are more times he tells me to shut off than he tells me to pump. Another field
I have a lot of runoff that comes down through the field. I wanted to put a reuse pit in to catch this runoff. I was told I could not get assistance because it was not my runoff. It was a neighbor’s runoff. There’s a few loopholes like that. And another thing is incentives for pivots. I’ve got 80 acres of land. I rent it. I can’t afford to buy a pivot to irrigate 80 acres. I would love to have a pivot on there. And I wonder if there aren’t some incentives maybe the NRD could put forth to encourage pivot use, even on 40 acre tracts. You know, like Roger says, there’s a lot of land underneath pivots, well in some cases there’s places where a 40-acre pivot or even an 80-acre pivot would work. Not only do you save the water, but look, if you don’t irrigate the corners you’ve got 5-7% set aside. You’re accomplishing two things at one time. And the thing that really bothers me, having young kids, I like the trees, I like the outdoors, I want the water to be around. I want the trees to be around. I want the habitat to be around. And then I have neighbors who take land by the creeks and pull the trees. Beautiful areas. Level them off and sink wells. I always wonder if some type of regulations couldn’t be done to prevent some of these things. I’ve had two different pieces next to the farms I own that have been destroyed. Beautiful trees have been destroyed. Land that shouldn’t be farmed, because of the severity of the slopes, and so forth. I wonder if some type of regulation couldn’t stop some of that needless drilling. It’s land that shouldn’t be producing corn anyway. And here you got new wells being sunk and corner systems being put on there. It seems like the water could be better spent somewhere else. The more regulations that come into farming, the less fun it is. Just like my four-year-old. He wants to play a game and I tell him all the rules. All of a sudden he says this isn’t fun anymore. I don’t over irrigate because I want to. I don’t put on more fertilizer because I want to. I can’t afford to. If you want to stay competitive in this game you’ve got to cut your costs everywhere you can. I would love to have all pivots. I’d love to spend less money on water. But you can’t justify some of those things. I wonder if the money could be better spent on getting people to put in pivots. Low interest loans. Grant money. I don’t know what it would take. But I think there are some other alternatives that could be considered. Thanks.

Don Adams:

Good afternoon. My name is Don Adams. I’m the Executive Director of Nebraskans First. Which is a statewide coalition of ground water irrigators dedicated to protecting Nebraska’s ground water for agriculture. I’d like to comment on Greg’s testimony which hit the nail on the head. The problem now that is being falsely created in this state, in the Omaha World Herald and Lincoln Journal-Star and newspapers like that in the editorial page are facilitating this myth that somehow ground water irrigation is a problem in this state. And somehow irrigators are abusing our resources, damaging water levels, damaging endangered species and there’s got to be some strict regulations put on it. The fact of the matter is that ground water irrigation is the salvation of this state. And we’ve got to come to terms and defend it and recognize that. But for ground water irrigation, and that irrigates 85 percent of all irrigated acres in this state, eight million I believe, this state would be a desert just like it was back in the 1800’s. Instead because of ground water irrigation the state is a world class producer. It has a lot to due with sustaining the communities of Lincoln and Omaha. If they’d only come to grips with that. Now, you guys on the NRD have a tough job. Nebraskans First has always supported the NRD system and local control of ground water. Unlike any other state that I’m aware of we regulate ground water at the local level and not the state level. It’s a tough job, and probably right now tougher than being on the school board. What we don’t want is the state to creep in and gain more and more control, and ultimately end up in a situation that Kansas now has to endure, where they have a water czar who with the stroke of a pen can end ground water irrigation and shut down a well with threat of criminal penalties. I will say that this NRD, and the farmers in this NRD, are actually lucky, because you’re not in this critical habitat area along the Central Platte, that the endangered species act has created an ultimate nightmare for us with programs looming on the horizon, such as the Cooperative Agreement and others that seek to hand over control of the Platte River, border to border in this state, to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service for them to manage under what they call adaptive management. The Upper Big Blue NRD is outside of that area and you should be thankful that you’re not ensnared in this endangered species act stuff, that’s on the verge of killing us. The drought has created the feeling that life as we know it is over. And the fact of the matter is, the drought will end, rivers will fill, streams will fill, dams will fill, reservoirs will fill.
Water levels will rise back to the historic high levels. This is a fact that will happen. We are very leery of meters. An individual who testified before said that once you get the meters you have a mechanism to tax. I have heard this down in Lincoln many times. I deal with the Legislature on a regular basis. And now with the state’s budget problems, believe me, they are looking at that as a source of revenue. You get meters that will come next. We oppose moratoriums absolutely.
Temporary suspensions are one thing, but an absolute moratorium is another. It sends a chilling signal to farmers and producers that the beginning of the end is at hand. And it sends a chilling message to their children and grandchildren that their future in agriculture is dim. Moratoriums are also contrary to the correlative rights doctrine that governs this state’s ground water regulations. Which is a share and share alike concept. And it times of shortage, unlike surface water irrigators, ground water irrigators bear the brunt equally until the problem is resolved. So we oppose a moratorium. Again, this drought is creating this frenzy out there. Fortunately, you’re not the situation of the Republican River NRDs. All three of those NRDs are under very strict regulations and moratoriums now, but that’s because of the 1943 interstate compact that was entered into with Kansas, Colorado and the Department of the Interior. And the reason those NRDs have a moratorium is because of that situation. That’s not to be confused in any way with what’s happening here, or even in the Central Platte. I had a lobbyist of the League of Municipalities come up to me and tell me in Lincoln a year or two ago that Nebraskans First wouldn’t be happy until people in the cities turn on their faucets and dust comes out. This is what we’re dealing with down in Lincoln. And this is why we need to do what we can to inform the people of this state how important irrigation is. I would say if you have problems in this NRD, isolate the problems, the problem areas and subdistricts, rather than a blanket regulatory scheme covering the entire NRD. Water experts have told me that the responsible management of a ground water reservoir is in times of drought and dry years to draw down the reservoir, so in wet years you can recharge the reservoir. That is proper management of a ground water resource.
And that’s why we’re so fortunate to be blessed with it, because it will rise. One last thing. I pulled out a map, a USGS map of the High Plains Aquifer, for the period 1980 - 1999. And it shows in Texas and in Kansas that the ground water tables are really falling. You can see the red and the yellow. But when you come up to Nebraska, and really in this NRD, for that twenty-year period the ground water levels have actually risen ten to twenty feet, or more. This is the big picture that I believe needs to be looked at when planning for increased regulation of ground water irrigation. I think that should sum up my comments. This is a big thing. I ask that you carefully analyses this, carefully listen to everybody that has testified. And I’m sure that if more people would come up and testify you’d probably learn that it’s probably 85 to 90 percent that are opposed to this. One last thing. I’ve worked with John Turnbull a number of years. Right now he’s on the Water Policy Task Force, which is a massive state program, with forty-nine members; environmentalists, city people, and government bureaucrats. John is a strong outspoken defender of ground water irrigator’s rights. It’s not a real popular position in this task force that is put together. I attend every meeting and I will vouch that I know he is doing all that he can to support and defend ground water irrigation rights in this NRD. I would like to commend him for that. Thank you very much.

Delayne Eberspacher:

Good afternoon. My name is Delayne Eberspacher from Cordova, Nebraska. According to the graph that you gave us I’d like to speak on some trend lines first. From 1961 to 1981 you can see a definite trend line down as to where you imposed these regulations. And then from 1981 to 1999 there is a definite trend line up in the ground water levels. And as one of the previous speakers said before, the number of wells has tripled, at least, in those years. In your graph, in the drought years that I see here. I count no more than three years of a continual trend line down. Excuse me, four years with a trend line down. And then in that four years one of those years was flat. I fear this NRD is feeling pressure from the state and other sources to great bureaucracy in what the meters and new regulations are going to impose. And I feel that this doesn’t apply to this NRD. As the previous speaker said, the Republican River Valley where all the water restrictions are on, that dates back to a compact which has nothing to do with up here. I fear that we’re just going to be creating more bureaucracy and a lot more headaches. Number two is the money issue. How much money is this going to cost us? And where is it going to come from with the state in the financial position that it’s in? Who’s going to play Peter because the NRD wants to be Paul? We want to create more jobs and buy a lot of new machinery to regulate us. And we already have those in check from 1978. And I don’t feel we should be changing anything. I definitely oppose the moratorium, because, as was said before, this is going to spur on a whole new waive of well drilling really fast. And I can attest to that from the Republican River Valley where the well restrictions are now in. Last fall at this time we were waiting for two new wells to get put in. And we were put off two months because the well drilling company had all their rigs south putting in as many as fast as they could before those came on. And it’s going to do the same thing here. Ultimately who’s going to benefit from this? The meter companies? That’s talking big dollars for a few people. And they have a lot at stake here and I’m sure they would like to see all this go into effect. Where as I said, we’re basing this on a trend line that really hasn’t established itself yet. Yes, we’re going down. There’s no doubt about that. But as the previous speaker said, it will rise, it will rain. We will come back. This is much like the grain markets, you are going to have a lot of downs and you’re going to come back up. And to raise the new triggers, I think we’re way too early in doing so. I think we’re creating bureaucracy where we do not need to. Thank you.

Tim Alfs:

My name’s Tim Alfs from Shickley, Nebraska. I’ve got several different positions why I’m here. One is I’m a farmer, well driller, school board member, and a very concerned citizen for the state of Nebraska. First of all, I’ve got to applaud you members for showing up today. I went to the Central Platte NRD’s meeting in Central City. There was not one, or at least not one that spoke up and said he was for the moratorium, not one showed up there at that meeting. How many people are going to read the minutes of what’s said here or at that meeting? I was disappointed in them. They made up their minds and that was it. I’ve got to commend you for showing up today. And be willing to listen. I’m also a big believer in local control. If we send this to the state, we’re going to get the shaft. That’s all there is to it. One thing I don’t understand is why we’re changing the rules that we made, the 1978 readings, why are we changing that? If it was good back then why all of a sudden the big change because we’ve had some drought weather? We have a recording well in our office. We’ve showed big declines in dry years and we’ve had a lot of increases in wet years. That’s just the way it is. If it doesn’t rain, we’re going to have some down trends. Other thing. Why just the regulations on more than 50 gallons? I know it’s kind of a petty thing, but you drive by some of the country and you see people watering their yards. And I mean they’re lush green. If we’re going to have to shut off, or limit how much we’re going to water, maybe we should do that also on those wells. Also, again, why the change to the 39 inches versus 48 inches? I don’t understand that. I asked one board member about it. If we can bank these inches that we don’t use. If we don’t use the full 39 inches in three years can we move those forward to the next three years? Other NRDs do it. We have some property in Perkins County. They keep a printout of how many inches they’ve been using for the past number of years and keep pulling them forward. In dry years you get to use them in wet years, if you don’t use them you bank a little more, and move on. One thing, I’m sure Rod (DeBuhr) just overlooked it, but he said this was a summary of the sheet. I guess not only on Rod, I talked to a couple other members, they weren’t aware there was a moratorium if we got into allocation. There’s no way of getting back out of it. I was disappointed that Rod didn’t bring that up. But I understand, I’m not a very good public speaker by any means, and a person might get nervous. I get nervous, and I can see other people doing it also. But why after levels have recharged and regained, why can’t we develop? Maybe somebody’s grandfather wasn’t in favor or irrigation. That’s fine if he doesn’t want to irrigate, that’s fine. But if his grandson, or grandkids want to irrigate, why should they not have the opportunity to capture some of our natural resource? I’m a little biased. My grandfather started drilling in 1940. And I feel that he put a lot of effort, he cared for the communities, he put a lot of money into the communities, the surrounding area. The areas that have irrigation prosper. That’s all there is to it. It creates jobs. If we get to a point where we can’t develop, I’m not going to need as many people as I have. And there are other people who aren’t going to need them. So that’s going to stop the new business and in turn lack of sales tax. It’s going to put a hamper on sales tax. Property tax. If you do a deduction of 10 percent, if you can’t irrigate that, then your property taxes should go down. In turn that’s going to put a hurt on the schools. I’m on a school board also. Money is one big issue on that also. It’s going to limit income potential of the schools. One individual said that, one of the board members that I was talking to said that if even if we adopt it as is we can always vote it in to start development. I disagree. You’ve got the environmentalists. They’ve got a lot of money to put injunctions on putting this back in order where you can develop or add acres to it. They’re going to throw a lot of money at this. One other point. Why not sub areas? If you have a broken foot you don’t put a full body cast on and you never take it off. Why can’t we do sub areas? If there’s an area that has a problem we need to fix it. We cover a fair territory. Not every area is the same in the aquifer. There’s some confined aquifers out there. I hope you take a look at. I also received a letter back in May from DNR, Department of Natural Resources, Roger Patterson. The way I interpret it is as of, I don’t remember what the date was, but basically you cannot increase the production of a well that you have. If you have a poor developing well you cannot increase that ability. Correct me if I’m wrong. I’ve got a copy of that at the office yet. I wish I would have brought it but I didn’t. That was in regard to the Lower Republican from what I understand. It basically, we had the opportunity to go down there and drill for two months down there, I opted not to, to serve the customers we have. Basically what they were doing down there was drilling holes. They weren’t taking their time and doing the proper testing that they should. They just wanted a well so it was considered irrigated so they were protected. But now Roger Patterson decided that wasn’t going to happen. They aren’t going to be able to increase it. That’s the way I interpreted that rule. I hope, again, you guys have a tough decision ahead of you folks. I hope you make the right decision and read the whole, item to item, Rule 5, or whatever you call it. I hope everybody knows what’s in that thing before they vote for it or against it. You need to know what’s in there. Thank you.

George Wochner:

Good afternoon gentlemen, I sat at this table 30 years ago, testified at the same kind of a hearing.

Rod DeBuhr:

I need you to state your name please.

George Wochner:

My name is George Wochner. I live at Bradshaw, Nebraska. I’ve been irrigating since the day I was born, in 1943. I’ve got a well on my farm that was drilled in 1943 and it measures today the same as it did then. I’ve got another well that the NRD has measured every year since 1980 when it was drilled. I don’t know where you guys get these figures and I guess I don’t understand it. Because according to your figures that you send me that well, in 1980, measured 88.5 feet and in the spring of 2002 it measured 68.5. Now is that a 20 foot rise or am I reading it wrong?

Rod DeBuhr:

If that’s what it says, that’s what it is.

George Wochner:

Well, I mean, you measured it and that’s the way I read it. So, here you got it, and, and I realize that in 2002 it’s down three feet from what it was in 2001, because 2002 was dry. But, I don’t understand your figures and I propose that you leave the rules that you have the way they read today. No changes. Because how can you change something when you haven’t even tried them yet? You haven’t been in this situation. You don’t know what they’re gonna do. The way it looks to me, apparently they worked for a little while here until a dry year came along. Something happened to keep the water coming up didn’t it? Was it your rules? Was it this paper that made the water come up? I don’t think so. I don’t think this paper’s gonna stop this water from going down either is it? There’s a few other things that I’d like to address. I’ve got a wetland that’s about, oh I suppose seven miles from me. This summer our fine government drilled a well on there and they pumped the basin full of water because it was dry. Now, we’ve got water declining and were gonna pump water for ducks and geese? I’m sorry gentlemen, you put an allocation on me and I go watch that pump, pumping water for ducks and geese I’m gonna pump water on my corn aren’t I? I think I will. And I’ll see you in court. Now you’re opening a can of worms here gentlemen and I hope you’re ready to enforce them. And it doesn’t say anywhere in here what you’re going to do if these rules are broken does it? How are you gonna enforce them? What’s gonna happen to you if you don’t do them? I don’t think you’ve looked at that have you? You’re throwing rules out but you haven’t decided what your gonna do if we break them. Okay gentlemen, that’s all I’ve got to say and thank you for your time.

Rod DeBuhr:

Is there anybody else who wishes to testify?

Darrel Thieszen:

I just want to affirm what the past..

Rod DeBuhr:

What’s your name?

Darrel Thieszen:
My name’s Darrel Thieszen. I want to affirm what the past speaker said about the Game and Parks Commission drilling wells to pump water for the geese. The same thing happened in Section 25 - Brown Township (T10N-R4W) and that was kind of discouraging to me and I think it’s inconsistent with water conservation. Thank you.

Kris Stengel:

My name is Kris Stengel. I farm around Sutton. I know you’re not going to answer any questions, but I would like to address one question to the crowd. The Board back in 1978, I was six years old. I didn’t know any of them. Some of them are probably gone by now, but they probably knew what they were doing when they did it. Everybody here knew the rules going into this. The rules were established. We all play by the rules. How many constituents here, since they represent us, think the 1978 rules should be stuck with? I for one do, with no changes. We don’t change the rules half way through the game and I’ve just started. I hope.

Gerald L. Ochsner:

My name is Gerald Ochsner. I feel for you gentlemen that are on this board. I myself was on the Clay County Groundwater Board for 18 years which goes back quite a way. I personally feel that what was setup, originally, we probably should try first before we alter anything. We haven’t tried it yet, so why don’t we try it and then we still could change down the line. I do feel that the time’s going to come when this water level is going to decline and we’re going to get metered, one way or the other. I had the opportunity and I don’t know if Mr. Turnbull was on the NRD at York yet or not, but approximately 30 years ago I was on a fact-finding commission to Roswell, New Mexico. And, if you gentlemen had been along and seen what was going on then, I think that everybody in this room would appreciate what you gentlemen are working on. I had the opportunity to go to a coffee shop with the rest of the fact-finding board that morning, and I’ll call him a Texas cowboy. He was old as I am now and he said “you gentlemen better be taking care of your water in Nebraska or you gonna just look like us Texas cowboys. We’re all dried up and shriveled away because we didn’t know how to take care of our water.” There were areas in this district that I visited where they would pump the water on one side of the road and the land was valued at $3,000 an acre. On the other side the water rights had been sold to the cities and municipalities and the land was worthless. It went back to sagebrush and cactus. I don’t think we want to see that happen in this area. So I do feel that we could go along with the original regulations and try them and if they don’t work change them at a later time. I know we’re all concerned that when these rules get put on they’re gonna stay. But there is one thing on your one page that says that allocations will stop when the water level regroups it’d be higher than the two feet from the point of these allocations starting. So, if we do leave that in there we don’t have the total fear that if water rises that we will be back in this allocation. There will be a chance to get back out of it. But I personally feel that the original rules should be tried and used first and if they don’t work go back and try something else. Thank you for your time.
Royce Jaeger:

My name is Royce Jaeger and I live at 1414 Road 10. That puts me right in the six townships in York County where you’re talking about a well drilling moratorium. Well my first plan of action is I’m going to go to the county commissioners come spring and protest my valuations. I’ve been there enough I don’t think I’ll get brushed off too easily. There is a valuation on dryland farm ground that it has a potential to be developed. Right now, if you don’t go any further, you’ve already put a cloud on that right to develop it. It’s just like in the grain markets. Rumor is what makes it go up. In fact, it’s what makes it go down. And if you put on your well drilling moratorium, what are you gonna do for us that have a well cave in? We lose our crop in the middle of the year? I think somebody’s gonna get held responsible for a loss. Because dads had wells on there before you people were in existence and I kind of got it figured they’ll be some other people that’s got those wells and there will be a test on the grandfather clause to see if someone doesn’t get held responsible for revoking that. Another thing I kind of noticed here is that people are coming up here saying, protesting the rules and since you’re a political subdivision of state government. Normally the way our government operates is that the people give the power to the state and they listen to what they say. I’ve read the state constitution and the people gave the state the right to appropriate all natural flowing streams. Now, my understanding is, from the dictionary, that’s surface water. So I’d like someone to explain how natural flowing streams got transposed into underground water. And then there is an article in the constitution that says the state shall have control of all the natural salt springs, coal, oil and other natural resources. Or does the state now consider all our ground theirs and we only lease it when we buy it?

Jeff Obermier:

My name is Jeff Obermier. I just want to comment. I beg of you guys to look at the financial responsibilities you place on some of us producers to comply with these. I’m a young farmer. Approximately 50 percent of my acres, irrigated acres are gravity. Small fields, river bottoms, railroad right-of-ways, some of them are fairly feasible to pivot irrigate, others of them are not. If it was, if was I financially able to comply with these water conservation regulations I would have already done it. Things are tight in the agriculture economy. Every penny counts. Speaking as a young farmer with 50 percent gravity irrigated, if these things went into implementation, I don’t believe I could stay in business. Not only could I not afford the meters to meter my irrigation water. I’d have to either set aside 10 percent, which would adversely affect my income, or I would have to put a pivot up, to be able to get by on 13 inches of water. Which could be done, except for the cost of the pivot. A lot of my land is rented. So, part of the responsibility would fall onto the landlord to pay for the pivot and so forth. But, I do believe that would affect my cash rental rates, or my share crop rental rates, that all comes back into the equation. Even with the programs you guys have implemented through the Conservation Service and so forth with cost-sharing, there just isn’t enough excess income in agriculture to make some of these changes that would need to be made to make this feasible. Looking from a financial standpoint, from my point of view, the 10 percent acreage reduction would be the best way to go in my operation. Do I feel that’s the most conservation minded way to go? Absolutely not. I’ve got irrigated fields where, if I laid 10 acres, 10 percent of the acres set aside as dryland, I couldn’t irrigate them before with the gravity well I had. You know I wouldn’t, I’d pump 24 hours a day, seven days a week in a dry year like this year on the remaining 90 percent. That’s all I have really. Thank you very much.

Rick Reinsch:

Good afternoon. My name is Rick Reinsch. I’d like to thank you, the board members, for the opportunity to address you. I too am going to restate the point. I really don’t understand why we’re here. There were regulations put in place in 1979 that were well thought out. They have not been tested. Not even proved. So I don’t understand why we’re trying to make more strict restrictions, when we haven’t even tested out the restrictions or regulations that were put in place in 1979. Another thing, another point that I think that needs to be brought up here, which was interestingly enough I think, brushed over, was the question about irrigation development. I hear the word moratorium brought up here many times. This is worse than a moratorium. Irrigation development means that a present well could not irrigate additional acres after you impose this. This actually makes a moratorium look good. I’m going to challenge the board members to re-look, rethink, these proposals. I really don’t see the reason for it. And I think the board needs to look at it a little bit differently. I think instead of giving away your water rights, which you’re asking us to do here, or when you enforce or increase your regulations. I think you ought to look at trying to protect the current water rights you have. There are many people outside this district that are willing to take them away from you. And in time, they’re going to challenge you and they’re going to try to do that. So I think you ought to fight tooth and nail to keep what you have in place. Again, I thank the board for the opportunity to speak to you.

Rod DeBuhr:

Ardeen Zierott:

My name is Ardeen Zierott. I live at Hampton and we know that our economy is based on our irrigation, our crops and what we’ve got. Let’s get down on our knees and pray.

Russ Regier:
My name is Russ Regier. I’m from just north of Henderson. I’m not much of a public speaker. I’m objecting to the changing of the 40, going away from the 48 inches of water. I don’t care for the 10 percent allocation or the meter reduction. For one if choose the 10 percent reduction, and your water is still going down after the three years, what happens then? Do you come back and reduce that another 10 percent after the three years if the water’s going down? Instead of 10 percent dryland we’re up to 20 percent dryland already and so on and so forth. The economics on that is just, you can’t really figure that all in or can’t see once how much we’re going to lose on that. As far as the meter restrictions, meters are basically a tool to know what you’re putting on or what you’re doing, as far as controlling it. I have gravity irrigation. I have pivot irrigation. I have, together with a couple of neighbors, we have four pivots that we run. I have five wells that are still gravity. Just the economics, not only of saving the water that we have with pivot, I know Roger (Siebert) eluded to the acres that can’t be put under pivots, but I think in time there’s enough acres yet that can be still put under pivots from what we had in gravity. When water came about here in ’57 or in the 50’s, everything was gravity at that time. Since, when it was, 60's or so, pivots started coming in, we could start saving water by being more economical with a pivot on there. I’d like to know, in the last 10 years, the number of wells that have gone in. How many have been pivots? How many of them are gravity? You know, just in that, we’re reducing anytime we put a pivot on. You’re reducing the water automatically from gravity. Not only the water consumption, but as far as the cost of running the thing. The wells I have, gravity wells, I run 292 Chevy engines on them. The pivots are 350 Chevy. One I have tandem 292's running on it. This last year, just the cost alone on natural gas, I have all natural gas, the lowest was $23.17 to $25.23 an acre to run the pivot. My gravity irrigation ran from $28.19 and acre to $34.75 an acre. That right there, you can see the difference in the cost of gravity. As soon we can save enough money, in a year or two or so, we’ll try to put pivots on. And not only to reduce our expenses, but also to save the water. Because with a pivot, the three that we ran – I had meters on them this year. Two were with the EQIP program and one the NRD had us put a meter on. And I was running 11 to 12 inches of water on that this year. And had 190 to 200 bushel corn on it. On my gravity irrigation I don’t have any meter on those. But I went back and dug out some old records from the early 70's when we have meters then. And I’m sure that they haven’t changed anything. Those ran anywhere from 25 to 32 inches per gravity well. And I don’t think that has changed much on that from then until now. So, changing it from gravity to pivot we’re already a better steward of our water consumption. Not only between the 10 percent but on some of these wells we’ve reduced it by 50 percent of what we used and still had 200 bushel corn on there. Thank you.

Mike Allen:

Good afternoon. My name is Mike Allen. I am from Ayr, Nebraska. 10490 South Baltimore Avenue. I am a fourth generation Nebraska farm family member. I sit on the water well standards and contractors licensing board, by the Governor’s appointment. I work in the industry of irrigated agriculture. I have for 19 years. But mostly I’m a concerned citizen. Over the last several months I’ve come forward and testified at a number of these hearings in a number of different NRDs. And I’m sympathetic to the pressure that is being applied to our NRD system by outside political interests. And I understand that’s what you’re up against. In the Republican River Basin it was a lawsuit with Kansas that caused irrigated agriculture’s access to our waters to go down the river. On the Platte River system it’s the endangered species act. Initiated by the FERC relicensing of Kingsley Dam ten years ago. And now in the Upper Big Blue I can’t see that it’s anything other than it seems to be the rage of the day. This moratorium issue has gotten a good foothold in this state. In the Central Platte they’re asking the directors of the NRDs to ignore their own scientific data that does not support the measures they are proposing. I’ve heard it asked here a number of times today. What’s precipitating this? That in 1979 a body of rules were passed, and regulations, that your constituency seems to be comfortable with. And now, significant, dramatic changes are being proposed. I can certainly understand after a period of time that rules and regulations would need to be modified to stay in step with current practices, or the technology of the day. But that’s not what’s driving this change here. The question was asked ‘where’s this coming from.’ This is outside political pressure that’s being applied to your NRD. Your board has responsibilities, first to the natural resources of this state, but also, and just as importantly, to your constituency. NRDs are the envy. Nebraska’s system, the 23 natural resources districts, we are the envy of every other state in the nation in that we have local control. That allows us to manage our natural resources based on best science on a local level in the absence of outside political pressure. You have a system of rules that when I look at your data, shows that this NRD, and you directors, have done an excellent job of managing your resources. For all the development that has gone on in the Upper Big Blue you have done an exceptional job. You are not running out of water. But now you’re being asked to change those rules because of the political pressure that’s being applied. You have an obligation to your constituency to stand up for their rights as well. You have protected your aquifer. You’ve done a good job. You have an obligation to protect your constituency from these outside political pressures. You need to turn toward your own science and rely on it. And demonstrate that you are indeed doing a good job and that these changes are not necessary. Thank you.

Frances Rohla:

Good afternoon. My name is Frances Rohla from Milligan, Nebraska. And I read through these proposed, existing and proposed rules. But I never have found out where all of these issues have come from. Who wrote them? Did you write them here in York, Nebraska? Did they come from the State of Nebraska? Or did they come from the federal government? And I think we as irrigators have a right to know who is putting the political pressure on you. And I guess that’s my only question today. Can any of you answer me today? Can you answer to all of us today?

Roger Houdersheldt:

I can’t answer that now. This is a hearing, not a question and answer session.

Frances Rohla:
But don’t you think we have a right to know where all these questions come from? Do you write about it in the newsletter that we get from you?

Roger Houdersheldt:

Our meetings are open to the public.

Frances Rohla:

No. I mean the newsletter that we get from you.

Roger Houdersheldt:

That question can be answered at any of the meetings at any time.

Frances Rohla:

But you cannot print it in the newsletters that we get from the Upper Big Blue?

Rod DeBuhr:

We print issues about the ground water levels all the time.

Frances Rohla:

But we would like to know who is pressuring you.

Rod DeBuhr:

Nobody. All of these things come right from the board and the public.

Frances Rohla:

I don’t know. I don’t believe that, I guess.

Rod DeBuhr:

Anyone else? All right. If there’s no one else who wishes to testify. As I said earlier, the record for the hearing is held open until the 26th of November. You can turn in a letter with written comments. Mail them to the Upper Big Blue NRD, 105 Lincoln Avenue, York, Nebraska. Or deliver them to that address. After that date we will compile – the testimony will be transcribed.
Any written testimony we get will be added to that. All the board members will be provided with a complete copy for their review. Our board, as it was said, all our meetings are public meetings. We have committee meetings. What we call our Water Committee is generally the second Thursday of the month. Our board meeting is the third Thursday of the month. The times and dates are available. Generally our board meetings start at 1:30 p.m. The board will take all of these things into consideration and will make a decision some time in the future, as to what if anything they do. There is no set date for that. So at this time I would turn the hearing back to Roger Houdersheldt to close the hearing.

Roger Houdersheldt:

On behalf of the board, thank you everybody for showing up. We will take your testimony into consideration. Thank you very much.

Houdersheldt closed the hearing at 2:27 p.m.

They replaced the Public Information Specialist and the Public Information Department Manager. Ads have been placed, and resumes have been received for each new position. Interviews have been conducted for the Water Conservationist and an offer has been extended.

Turnbull recommends that a salary schedule be adopted for the new positions. He recommends that the Public Relations Specialist position be the same as the old Public Information Specialist position which is an annual minimum of $28,252.22 to a maximum of $42,378.34. He also recommends that the Water Conservationist position be the same as the old Public Information Department Manager position which is an annual minimum of $32,760.00 to a maximum of $49,140.00. Because of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act, both are non-supervisory positions and non-exempt, which means time and a half applies to overtime hours. The standard District benefits will apply to both jobs as per the personnel policies.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Brown to approve the Public Relations Specialist salary schedule of an annual minimum of $28,252.22 to a maximum of $42,378.34, and approve the Water Conservationist salary schedule of an annual minimum of $32,760.00 to a maximum of $49,140.00. Buller asked for clarification on the motion to consider. He asked if the motion allowed action on the part of the board or only allowed discussion. He asked if the offered amendment was proper.

Moore said his intent when he made the motion in committee was to get the matter before the board for discussion and allow an opportunity for the board to offer changes. Once any proposed changes have been offered, discussed, and voted on then a motion to adopt would be proper.

Following a short discussion with the Water Committee members regarding their understanding of the intent of the motion as it came out of committee, Moore withdrew his second. Chairman Houdersheldt ruled Volkmer’s amendment out of order.

Friesen raised a point of order. Since Moore withdrew his second and there is no motion on the floor there can be no discussion on the matter.

It was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Hansen to table the motion. The motion to table failed.

Friesen asked that pursuant to Operating Policy 9 the matter be held over until the January 2004 board meeting.

Operating Policy 9, paragraph 10 reads as follows:

“Any board member may request, during a board meeting, that a pending action to change a district policy or program be held over until the next regular board meeting. The request is to be granted by the board without a vote. However, only one such request will be honored per pending action.”

- Landowners are responsible for 25% of the cost of materials (50% on fabric weed barriers)
- Pheasants Forever pays for 75% of the cost of materials (50% on fabric weed barriers)
- Landowners receive a 5-year rental payment of up to $75 per acre
- NRD plants the trees at no cost when 400 or more are planted
• NRD bills Pheasants Forever
• Landowners’ rental payments are administered by the local NRD from funds forwarded by Pheasants Forever.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Austin that the Upper Big Blue NRD participate in the Corners for Wildlife Program in FY 2004. The motion was approved.

ITEM 9. LYLE V. HENKE CORNERS FOR WILDLIFE CONTRACT.

Lyle V. Henke has a pivot corner located in the northwest corner of the southeast quarter of Section 4, Township 9 North, Range 1 East of the 6th P.M., in Seward County, Nebraska. He wants to seed 4.0 acres of the corner to a warm season grass mix and plant 700 trees and shrubs for food and wildlife cover. The contract is paid for with funds available through the local Pheasants Forever chapter and the Environmental Trust. Lyle V. Henke will receive $75.00/acre for a 5-year period on this 4.0 acre corner. The NRD will receive the funds for payment through Pheasants Forever before making payment to the landowner. The District will plant the trees and shrubs at no cost to the landowner.

It was moved by Luebbe and seconded by Volkmer that the Upper Big Blue NRD accept the Corners for Wildlife contract submitted by Lyle V. Henke for a 5-year period with an annual payment of $300 per year and authorize the Chairman of the Board to sign said agreement. The motion was approved.

The board recessed at 2:10 p.m. to allow the Projects & Programs and Water & Regulations Committees to meet individually and elect their Chairman and Vice Chairman. Ken Regier was elected as Chairman and Steve Buller was elected Vice Chairman of Projects & Programs Committee. Larry Moore was elected Chairman and Michael Nuss was elected Vice Chairman of the Water & Regulations Committee. The Chairmen of these two committees will serve on the Executive Committee.

ITEM 24. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CAUCUS TO APPOINT REMAINING MEMBERS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee met following the election of committee chairmen and vice chairmen to appoint two remaining members to the newly organized Executive Committee. The Executive Committee appointed Yvonne Austin as the Projects & Programs Committee Representative and Curt Friesen as the Water & Regulations Committee Representative to serve on the Executive Committee. The board reconvened at 2:27 p.m.
ITEM 25. BOARD APPROVAL OF COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS.

Turnbull explained that normally committee appointments are for a two-year term and are conducted once the board members who were elected in the general election have taken office in January. Because the reorganization of the standing committees and their membership took place midway through the current two-year term, these appointments will only be for a one-year term. New committee assignments will be made sometime after the January 2005 board meeting.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Dickinson to approve the 2004 Committee assignments. The motion was approved.

ITEM 13.  VILLAGE OF WACO DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENTS AND FLOOD PROTECTION.
Alan Stuhr, who is the maintenance man for the Village of Waco, requested the District to assist the Village with upgrading a culvert under the Burlington Railroad in order to reduce flooding upstream from the railroad. Stuhr explained that the existing culvert capacity under the railroad is not sufficient to pass large stormwater flows without backing up into the wastewater plant.

In 1991 the District prepared an engineering study of the Waco flooding problem. Upgrading the railroad culvert capacity was one of the alternatives considered.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Hansen that the District agree to assist the Village of Waco with drainage improvements, as requested by the Village, subject to approval of an interlocal agreement between the Village and District. The motion was approved.

ITEM 14. CITY OF AURORA MAPPING AND DRAINAGE MASTER PLAN.

Staff presented a proposal to assist the City of Aurora with development of a regional planning map and drainage master plan. The mapping would include aerial photography over an area of approximately 30 square miles, detailed contour mapping over 9 square miles within that area, and detailed identification of land features over 6 square miles of the area. The drainage master plan would include detailed hydrology and drainage recommendations for the 9 square mile area to be contour mapped.

The budget for this project is $83,000, and the City has requested that the District act as lead agency and share this cost on a 50/50 basis.

ITEM 15. CITY OF AURORA MAPPING PROPOSALS FOR PHOTOGRAMMETRY.

Proposals for aerial photography and mapping services were received from the following firms:

- Horizons, Rapid City, S.D. ........................................... $77,100
- Western Air Maps, Overland Park, KS. ................................. $68,960

The District and City of Aurora staffs reviewed the proposals and revised the scope of work to eliminate some of the detailed land feature mapping. A revised proposal was then requested from Western Air Maps based on the enclosed map; their revised contract price is $61,500.

Staff recommends that Western Air Maps be hired to perform photogrammetric services for the Aurora mapping project, subject to the City of Aurora approving the Interlocal Agreement.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Hansen that Western Air Maps be hired to perform photogrammetric services on the Aurora Mapping and Drainage Master Plan project in accordance with their proposal dated February 13, 2004, and amendment dated March 5, 2004, for a fee not to exceed $61,500, contingent upon the City of Aurora approving the Interlocal Agreement between the District and City. ITEM 16. PLUM CREEK TRAIL PROJECT - FINAL PAYMENT TO A&R CONSTRUCTION.

The Committee considered final payment to A & R Construction Company for work completed on the Plum Creek Hiking & Biking Trail Project at Seward. The final payment amount is $81,432.17, and includes $7,962.72 for work completed during the December 2003 pay period, and release of previously withheld retainage in the amount of $73,505.45.

A&R Construction’s original bid price was $745,714.31, and the total amount actually earned for work items installed is $742,981.12.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Dickinson that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District make final payment of $81,432.17, which includes release of retainage, to A & R Construction Company for work completed on the Plum Creek Trail Project at Seward. The motion was approved.

ITEM 17.  LINCOLN CREEK BRIDGE - DIAMOND ENGINEERING CLAIM. SETTLEMENT.

The Diamond Engineering construction firm has offered to settle their claim for extra work on the Lincoln Creek Pedestrian Bridge for a lump sum of $16,000. The City of Aurora and University of Nebraska have each agreed to pay one-third of the lump sum settlement, and staff is recommending that the District also agree to pay one-third.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Friesen that the District agree to settle all outstanding claims with Diamond Engineering, for extra work on the Lincoln Creek Bridge at Aurora, for a lump sum payment of $16,000, and that the District agree to pay $5,333.33, one-third of the settlement, subject to the City of Aurora and University of Nebraska each agreeing to pay one-third of the settlement. The motion was approved.

ITEM 18.  LINCOLN CREEK BRIDGE - FINAL PAYMENT TO DIAMOND ENGINEERING.

Staff recommends that the District agree to make final payment to Diamond Engineering for work on the Lincoln Creek Pedestrian Bridge, including the lump sum settlement of claims, if Diamond Engineering provides a complete release of claims.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Joseph that final payment of $22,845.00, which includes release of $6,845.00 retainage and payment of $16,000 for settlement of claims, be made to Diamond Engineering Company for work completed on the Lincoln Creek Parkway Pedestrian Bridge at Aurora, subject to Diamond Engineering signing a complete release of claims on this project. ITEM 19.  BIG BLUE RIVER FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECT LEVEES - TERMINATION OF GRANT APPLICATION.

The District filed a grant application with FEMA in February 1998 to purchase several flood prone properties in the Big Blue River flood plain at Seward, and to construct levees to protect the Orscheln Farm Store and Walker Manufacturing. The purchase of flood prone properties was completed in 2002, but FEMA withheld approval of funds for design and construction of the levees. FEMA and US Fish & Wildlife Service declined to approve the levee plan unless the levee would be constructed adjacent to Walker Road; this levee location is not consistent with the original project concept.

Due to FEMA’s delay, and modification of the original concept, the project cost has increased significantly. Also, as noted in FEMA’s correspondence, the federal share of project cost has been reduced from 75% to 67.5%. Further complicating the situation, the federal deadline for completing the project is May 2004, which does not allow enough time to design and construct the levees.

Since FEMA has modified the original concept plan and reduced the level of federal funding on this project, the City has taken the position that we should not proceed with the levee project. On this basis, staff recommends that the District withdraw its application for FEMA funding on the levee system.

It was moved by Buller and seconded by Brown that the District withdraw its application for a FEMA grant to assist with construction of the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project, FEMA-DR-1027, Levee System, at Seward, since (1) FEMA has delayed implementation and approval of funding for the design and construction of the Levee System for six years, thereby not allowing enough time to meet the Federal performance period deadline of May 9, 2004, (2) the USFWS requires that construction not be scheduled during the Bald Eagle nesting period of April 1 to July 15, (3) the USFWS, Corps of Engineers, FEMA and NGPC have modified the project concept requiring the south levee to be constructed close to Walker Road, rather than adjacent to the existing levee along the river bank, and (4) FEMA has reduced the percentage of federal funds for the project, thereby requiring the local share to be 32.5% rather than 25% of project cost. The motion was approved.

ITEM 22. GROUND WATER MANAGEMENT AREA 1 - APPROVED FLOW METER LIST.

The staff presented a list of approved flow meters. The list includes three brands. They are McCrometer (all models), Sparling series 300 irrigation meter and Waterman Signet ST 3000 Irrigation flow meter. It is the staff and committee’s intent that other brands or models may be added to that list by board action as information about other meters becomes available. The approved meter list would apply to cost-share and also when a flow meter is required for wells approved by permits issued after March 1, 2004. The list will be also used as a recommendation to others considering flow meter installations.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Hansen to adopt the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District Approved Flow Meter List dated March 2004. The motion was approved.

ITEM 23. APPROVAL OF LATE WELL PERMIT.

Harvey Bish for Aurora has applied for a late permit for a well drilled in 1987. This well was drilled as a replacement well. In 1987 permits were required for new wells, but not replacement wells. The original well that was replaced, has not been used since the replacement well was drilled, but it was not properly decommissioned. Mr. Bish wishes to install a pump in the original well and link the two wells together. If this late permit is approved, the well being permitted will be reclassified as a new well and be given a new registration number by DNR. By filing an update form, the DNR will re-activate the original well. Since this late permit would be issued after March 1, 2004, a flow meter is required. These changes would not violate any of the District’s regulations.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Nuss to approve late permit UBB-1-3275 for a well owned by Harvey E. Bish in the NW1/4 of Section 10-T9N-R8W, Hamilton County. The motion was approved.

ITEM 24. USGS AGREEMENT FOR MONITORING WELLS AT RECHARGE LAKE.

DeBuhr was contacted by USGS about a study being conducted in the York area as part of the National Water Quality Assessment Program. USGS has requested that they be allowed to drill five observation wells at Recharge Lake as a part of the study. We have already entered into an Agreement previously to allow them to drill a well behind our storage building on Platte Avenue.

Recharge Lake is right in the flow path of the area of study for the city water system. The purpose for drilling these wells is to get a better understanding of the vertical gradient in the ground water. Water not only moves laterally from northwest to southeast in this particular area, but there is also water moving down from the upper aquifer to the confined aquifer and up from the confined aquifer in some areas into the water table and they are trying to get a better understanding of that movement.

DeBuhr recommended that we enter into an agreement with USGS to drill the five observation wells at Recharge Lake.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Hansen to approve the agreement with USGS to drill monitoring wells at Recharge Lake. The motion was approved.

ITEM 25. REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Joseph reported that the Executive Committee met on March 11, 2004 and presented the committee’s report.

ITEM 26. FINAL PAYMENT FOR NEW FURNACES AND AIR CONDITIONERS.

The furnace and air-conditioning system replacement is complete for the main office building. A small amount of additional work for the pad for the air conditioner compressors on the north side of the building was required. Turnbull recommends the release of the 10% retainage, which is $1,427.00 and payment of the extra costs amounting to $261.40, to J & R Heating. The total cost of the furnace work is $14,531.40 which is $261.40 higher than the quote.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Austin to approve final payment of $1,688.40 including the release of retainage to J & R Heating of York, Nebraska for the main building furnace and air-

ITEM 27. DIRECTORS’ CREDIT CARDS.

At the suggestion of the Board Treasurer, the staff reviewed the credit card history of all district credit cards. The suggestion came about during a discussion about recently stolen credit card accounts. It may be wise to reduce the District’s exposure to credit card fraud by reducing the number of existing accounts. Each card carried by the staff and directors is a separate account, which is very helpful for accounting. The annual fee for each card is $10, which is due March 23, 2004.

For the period November 2002 through February 2004, a total of $340 in fees was paid for director’s cards. During that same time period only six charges, totaling $1,316.69, were made on the 17 cards.

Operating Policy No. 22: DISTRICT CREDIT CARDS AND CHARGE ACCOUNTS

1. The General Manager, on behalf of the District, is authorized from time to time, to apply for and receive business credit cards, to be used for travel, meals, lodging, general operational expenses and automobile operation and repair. The General Manager is responsible for the proper use of such cards. The General Manager may authorize certain staff members to sign for authorized expenditures of the District. Credit cards will also be issued to the Board of Directors, for travel and meal expenses:

2. The General Manager may establish charge accounts on behalf of the District at businesses for the purpose of purchasing supplies and services. The General Manager may authorize staff members to order and sign receipts for the supplies and services.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Hansen that for security reasons the District credit cards for the directors not be renewed but that cards for Doug Bruns and Vance Teegerstrom be kept active until after the March 19 - 24, 2004 Washington, D.C. NARD trip. Further that Operating Policy No. 22, District Credit Cards and Charge Accounts, be amended by striking the sentence “Credit cards will also be issued to the Board of Directors, for travel and meal expenses.” The motion was approved.

ITEM 28. PAYMENT TO YORK PRINTING FOR NEWSLETTER.

The newsletter was just recently distributed in area newspapers. The estimated cost of this edition, including printing and distribution is $5,820. A bill has been received from York Printing for $3,857.52 for printing. Turnbull recommends the approval of this bill, which includes layout costs. Prior issues were laid out by the public information department manager. York Printing offered to do the layout work for $200 - $300, thereby freeing up our staff to concentrate on the writing of the articles and other work.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Bruns to approve payment of $3,857.52 to York Printing Company for printing the March 2004 Blueprint newsletter. The motion was approved.

ITEM 29. HEALTH INSURANCE PROGRAM SURCHARGE.

Turnbull briefed the committee on the action taken by the NARD Board of Directors on March 8, 2004, which was “In an attempt to resolve the current deficit in the insurance program, this board has authorized the Executive Director to send out an invoice to each district for $500.00 per participating Employee and highly encourages each district to pay the $500.00 per participating Employee and that each District Manager contact the NARD Executive Director with their decision.”

An estimate based on claim history has been used to determine the premium amounts charged for the health insurance plan for the past several years. However, this year the estimate turns out to have been too low. The health insurance plan is partially self insured in that a maximum claim amount is paid for each individual by the NARD before the reinsurance company pays. The individual maximum claim is considerably higher than the deductible the employee pays. However, the plan does not have a fixed limit on the number of participants that can receive the maximum claim amount each month from the NARD. Because of this, the NARD health insurance plan is having cash flow problems because of some very large claims.

The NARD is considering changes to the health insurance plan but any changes will not take effect until July 1, 2004. The agent and the insurance committee will present possible changes to a special manager’s meeting in May, and then to the Association board in early June for their consideration.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Moore that the Upper Big Blue NRD pay a one time surcharge of $500 for each employee enrolled in the health insurance plan, for a total of $9,500.00 to the NARD, for the NARD Insurance Program Fund, provided that all the other districts will do the same. The motion was approved.

ITEM 9. NRD LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM FUNDS.

Due to increased demand for cost share on irrigation water management practices this year, the Committee considered increasing the amount of NRD funds that can be spent under land treatment line item 508. Staff has determined that approximately $78,000 could be made available, since some projects have either been suspended, or will not require cost share payments.
in Fiscal Year 2004. If additional funds are made available, staff will appropriate those funds first to people who are on the waiting list. The remainder will be appropriated on a first come first served basis until the funds are fully appropriated.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Luebbe that the District authorize expenditures for NRD Land Treatment funds to exceed the amount budgeted in FY 2004 (Line Item 508) by $70,000, thereby increasing the allowable expenditures for this line item from $195,000 to $265,000.

Concern was express that because many landowners have already begun planting that they will not be ready to begin work on their land treatment practices until after harvest. However, this doesn’t affect those wanting cost share for flow meters and gives them an advantage when it comes to appropriation of funds. We are seeing individuals applying for cost share on more than one flow meter at a time.

The motion was amended by Friesen and seconded by Moore to add “and limit cost share to one application per applicant.” The amendment was approved.

ITEM 10. OXBOW TRAIL PICNIC SHELTER.

Residents in the Ulysses community would like to have a picnic shelter at the Oxbow Trail lake. One of the residents of Ulysses, Thomas Kadavy, offered to organize volunteers to construct the facility if the District would purchase materials and help supervise construction.

The proposed shelter would be a hexagon post and beam structure, manufactured by Cedar Forest Products Company located in Polo, Illinois. The recommended structure diameter is 35 feet. Materials can be delivered approximately eight weeks after the order is placed. Staff estimates that construction could be completed between June and August.

Cedar Forest Products Company will furnish all glu-laminated posts, beams and purlins, tongue and groove pine roof decking, steel connectors and brackets, cedar shake shingles, and construction drawings stamped by an engineer or architect licensed in Nebraska. The District will design the foundation and slab to support the structure.

ITEM 11. VILLAGE OF WACO DRAINAGE IMPROVEMENTS AND FLOOD PROTECTION.

Last month the District agreed to assist the Village of Waco with planning, design, and construction of flood protection and drainage improvements, subject to approval of an Interlocal Agreement. This month the Projects Committee considered the project budget and Interlocal Agreement as presented by staff. The estimated project cost is $140,000.

Staff recommends that the District act as lead agency, on behalf of the Village and, provide engineering to plan, design, and construct the project, and contribute 25% of project cost. This is consistent with previous projects of this type, which include planning, design, and construction.

The Projects and Programs Committee recommended that the District and Village shares be based on a project cost not to exceed $150,000. That the NRD contribute up to 25% of project cost, not to exceed $37,500 and the Village contribute 75% of project cost, not to exceed $112,500.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Jackson that the District enter into an Interlocal Agreement with the Village of Waco, as reviewed by the Projects and Programs Committee, to assist the Village with planning, design, and construction of drainage and flood protection improvements, such that the District’s share of project cost not exceed $37,500 and the Village’s share of project cost not exceed $112,500. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12. BIG BLUE RIVER FHMP LEVEES - TERMINATION OF GRANT APPLICATION.

In March 2004 the City of Seward and Upper Big Blue NRD decided not to proceed with the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project, Levee System. On March 22, 2004, staff notified FEMA and NEMA that the NRD and City did not wish to proceed with the project for the following reasons:

(1) The Federal Emergency Management Agency, FEMA, has delayed consideration of funding approval for the design and construction of the levee system for six years, thereby not allowing enough time for the Sub-grantee to meet the Federal performance period deadline of May 9, 2004. The District’s application for funding was submitted in February 1998.

(2) The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, USFWS, requires that construction not be scheduled during the Bald Eagle nesting period of April 1 to July 15, even though the environmental assessment shows no documented Bald Eagle sightings in the proposed construction area. This requirement forces the design and construction schedule to be drawn out over a period of two years.

(3) FEMA and USFWS prefer levee Alternative B, placement of the south levee parallel to Izaak Walton Road, rather than Alternative A preferred by the District and City, placement of the south levee parallel to the existing levee along the Big Blue River bank. The Alternative B levee plan will add cost to the project due to additional pumping station and power supply requirements.

(4) FEMA has reduced the percentage of Federal funding for the levee portion of this project from 75% to 67.5%. This is not acceptable since the project cost has increased during FEMA’s six year delay in funding approval, and levee Alternative B, FEMA / USFWS preferred plan, is more expensive than Alternative A, the plan preferred by the District and City.

On March 25, 2004, the District received a letter from NEMA / FEMA stating that sufficient federal funds would be made available to provide 75% funding for the project and that the May 9, 2004 deadline would be extended to allow completion of the project. The March 25 correspondence from NEMA / FEMA requests that the City and NRD reconsider the decision to withdraw from the project.

Staff has discussed this request to reconsider with the City Seward. The City is willing to proceed with the project if FEMA will also consider allowing the south levee to be located as originally proposed in Alternative A, adjacent to the existing levee.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Austin that the District agree to reconsider proceeding with the Big Blue River Flood Hazard Mitigation Project, Levee System, at Seward, as requested in the NEMA / FEMA March 25, 2004 correspondence, if NEMA / FEMA will agree to: (1) Extend the project completion date to accommodate design and construction as stated in the NEMA/FEMA correspondence dated March 25, 2004, (2) Increase the amount of federal funding for the project sufficient to provide a 75% Federal share as stated in the NEMA / FEMA correspondence dated March 25, 2004. (3) Waive the requirement that levee construction activities not be conducted during the April through July Bald Eagle nesting period, since the project environmental assessment did not identify any Bald Eagle nesting in the project area, and (4) Reconsider allowing the District to construct the south levee adjacent to the existing levee, as in Alternative A without modifying the Big Blue River channel, rather than parallel to Izaak Walton Road, as in Alternative B. The motion was approved.

ITEM 16. GWMA#1 REQUEST FOR ADDITION TO APPROVED FLOW METER LIST.

Mick Reynolds, a sales representative for ACE Irrigation and Mfg. Co., of Kearney, presented the EMCO Hydro-Flow Model 2200 fixed insertion vortex flow meter. This is an electronic meter. It requires an external power source which the manufacturer does not supply. The staff expressed concerns over the ease of tampering. Mr. Reynolds explained that ACE Irrigation has made efforts to address those concerns with wire/lead seals and a solar battery power supply that is programmable to detect tampering. This device is called the “ICE BOX.” The ICE BOX is manufactured and marketed by Ace Irrigation. The staff continued to express that the measures needed to protect the meter from tampering were more complex than the other approved meters. John Turnbull recommended that the Hydro-Flow 2200 not be added to the approved meter list.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Hansen to add the EMCO Hydro-Flow 2200 to the Upper Big Blue NRD approved flow meter list, with the condition that the ACE Irrigation & Mfg. Company ICE BOX must be the power supply used with this flow meter.

Austin offered an amendment to the motion to change the word ‘condition’ to ‘conditions’ and add the phrase “and that the manufacturer supply professional looking collars.” The amendment died for lack of a second.

Houdersheldt called for the question on the original motion. The motion was approved.

ITEM 17. DISTRICT RULE 4 - RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE GROUND WATER MANAGEMENT AND PROTECTION ACT.

The committee reviewed District Rule 4 changes. The proposed changes would simplify the steps required for processing a complaint concerning a violation for the NRD’s ground water management regulations, including irrigation runoff. It also clarifies the rule to allow staff to initiate a formal complaint.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Regier to approve draft Rule 4 for the purpose of public hearing. The motion was approved.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Regier that the Upper Big Blue NRD pay a one time surcharge of $500 for each employee enrolled in the Health Insurance Plan, for a total of $9,500.00 to the NARD, for the NARD Insurance Program Fund. The motion was approved.

ITEM 8. PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED CHANGES TO RULE 4 - RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE GROUNDWATER MANAGEMENT ACT.

Chairman Houdersheldt open the public hearing at 7:35 p.m. Houdersheldt advised those present that legal notice of the public hearing was published in the York News-Times on April 26, 2004 and May 3 and 10, 2004.

Houdersheldt asked Rod DeBuhr, Water Department Manager, to review the proposed changes to Rule 4. All those in attendance received a copy of the proposed rules and regulations. DeBuhr explained that the proposed changes were mainly housekeeping procedure. The intent was to simplify the language and streamline the process for dealing with violations, such as irrigation runoff and other possible violations to the Ground Water Management Area Rules and Regulations.
A definition was added to the regulations called “district representative,” which means an employee of the district or other persons specifically authorized by the District Board of Directors to act on behalf of the District with regard to District Rule 4. The reason for this was to clarify that a district representative could file a complaint to initiate an action for the violation of the rules. The existing rules may allow that, but it was somewhat vague and we wanted to clarify that.

The definition of a groundwater user was amended to read “Groundwater User means a person who at any time extracts, withdraws or confines groundwater for any use at a rate in excess of fifty (50) gallons per minutes.” The existing rule says 100 gallons. This change is necessary to be consistent with State law. Language that made the rule difficult to read and understand was removed to make it more concise. Information was added regarding what sort of measures could be taken to control irrigation runoff. This is not an all-inclusive list, but we added some things to the list of possibilities. Including conversion from irrigation to sprinkler, discontinuing or altering center pivot end guns or dump valves, or conversion to dryland, which were not listed in the previous regulations.

Houdersheldt asked if anyone had any questions.

Friesen asked whether artesian wells with uncontrolled discharge would be in violation of our Rule 4. DeBuhr said they would not be in violation because the rule is specific to irrigation runoff.

There were no other questions at that time. Houdersheldt informed the board that he would leave the hearing open until after the Projects and Programs Committee Report had been completed.

ITEM 9. REPORT OF PROJECTS & PROGRAMS COMMITTEE AND CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS.

Regier reported that the Projects & Programs Committee met on May 11, 2004 and presented the committee’s recommendations.

ITEM 10. CITY OF HENDERSON PARK DEVELOPMENT.

Jan Smith and Harris Peters, representing the Park Board for the City of Henderson, presented a tree and shrub planting plan for the city’s new swimming pool area and Lakeview Park area. The trees and shrubs will be purchased and planted by Pine Valley Nursery & Landscape located in Lincoln, Nebraska and Faller Landscape & Nursery located in York, Nebraska.

The total cost of the project is $4,344.91. This project would come under the Parks and Recreation Program. The District will fund up to 25% of the local share of the estimated or actual cost, whichever is less. The maximum funding that can be approved per applicant is $10,000.00.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Volkmer that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources
District fund the planting of the trees and shrubs around the new swimming pool and the Lakeview Park area in the City of Henderson at the rate of 25% of project cost, not to exceed $1,100.00. The motion was approved.

ITEM 13. LAND TREATMENT PROGRAM - WATER METER PRACTICE.

Staff recommended that water meters be deleted from the list of practices that are eligible for Land Treatment Program cost share. The reason for this recommendation is that the amount of money available for NRD and NSWCP cost share is not sufficient to fund the other land treatment practices for soil and water conservation in addition to meters. The demand for water meters alone could use all of the program funds. Staff recommends that soil conservation practices, such as terraces and dams, and water conservation practices, such as conversions from gravity to sprinkler, reuse pits, and surge valves, should be given funding priority in the Land Treatment Program over water meters.
It was moved by Regier and seconded by Hansen that the District remove water meters from the list of practices that are eligible for Land Treatment Program cost share, and that this program change becomes effective July 1, 2004.

Austin noted that there was no mention in the Projects & Programs Committee report about the Water Committee possibly taking over the program. It was the intent of the Projects and Programs Committee to remove cost share for meters from the Projects Department’s land treatment program, with the understanding that cost share on meters would be discussed by the Water Committee.

Chairman Houdersheldt said that it was discussed at the May 11 Water Committee meeting, but that no action had been taken. The matter is to be discussed again in June.

Austin expressed concern that if this motion passed in its present form, the program would cease to exist entirely.

It was moved by Austin and seconded by Hansen to amend the motion to include the phrase “contingent upon adoption by the Board of a replacement water meter funding program.” The amendment failed.

ITEM 15.  PUBLIC HEARING ON RULE 4 - RULES & REGULATIONS FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE GROUND WATER MANAGEMENT ACT.

Houdersheldt officially closed the public hearing at 8:23 p.m.

Austin asked whether irrigation runoff was ever proper. DeBuhr said yes, that if there was runoff and under an agreement with an adjacent landowner it was being recaptured it would be acceptable. Turnbull reminded the board that in that case the transfer rules would apply.

Austin said that under Chapter 2 - Definitions, Paragraph 08 it refers to “improper irrigation runoff.” The actual term used above in Chapter 1 - General Provisions, Paragraph 02.01 is “improper groundwater irrigation runoff.” She asked if it was necessary to include the term groundwater irrigation runoff in the definition.

DeBuhr said it was not necessary because the NRD has no jurisdiction over surface water. DeBuhr suggested the Board remove the word “groundwater” from Chapter 1, Paragraph 02.01 if they felt it was inconsistent.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin to strike the word “groundwater” from Chapter 1, Paragraph 02.01. The motion was approved.

Buller asked if because the State has jurisdiction over surface water quantity whether they have jurisdiction over water quality. He wanted to know if we had any authority if surface water was affecting the quality of groundwater.

DeBuhr stated that the NRD has some jurisdiction under the law for what is known as non point-source contamination. We have regulations on sediment and erosion control, for silt deposition into a lake, river or stream. We also have regulations on groundwater quality, for nitrates, regardless of the source. If it’s point source, for example a known discharge from a pipe, then the State has jurisdiction.

Austin wanted to know if a contaminant spilled into surface water and it got into the ground water how that would be handled.

DeBuhr said a spill would be considered point-source, because it could be traced back to the spill.
If the contamination is point-source, it would be handled by DEQ. If it’s non point-source and it contaminates the groundwater it’s the NRD’s responsibility. However, this has nothing to do with Rule 4. This situation would be covered under the Ground Water Management Act Rule 5.

Buller said the reason he brought it up was because under Chapter 2, Definitions, Paragraph 08.02 we are attributing irrigation runoff to the deterioration of water quality.

Turnbull reminded the board that the NRD doesn’t have the authority under the law to enforce regulations on surface irrigation runoff, because that’s under the appropriative system and is handled entirely different when it comes to quantity or quality.

DeBuhr said that if there is irrigation runoff from a groundwater source (from a well) which causes erosion as a result of irrigating too steep a field, and it causes runoff and that runoff deteriorates water quality in a river, stream or lake we have jurisdiction over that because it is improper irrigation runoff.

It was moved by Hansen and seconded by Brown to adopt the changes to Rule 4 as amended. The motion was approved.

ITEM 25.  GROUND WATER MANAGEMENT AREA #2 ZONE 6 PHASE II DESIGNATION.

The results of the Summer 2003 nitrate sampling indicated that the median nitrate level in management Zone 6 is 9.0 mg/l. The trigger level for a potential phase II management area is 9.0 mg/l. In September 2003, Zone 6 was declared a “potential phase II management area.” The other criteria for determining if phase II management is needed are: 1) less than 60% of the corn and sorghum acres are soil sampled for nitrogen to a depth of 3 feet, and 2) less than 60% of the irrigation is being scheduled using an approved irrigation scheduling method. The NRD’s regulations call for reports to be filed by the operators of land in Zone 6 to determine if these criteria are being met. Reports were submitted by the farm operators in Zone 6 over the winter months. The results of those reports indicate that approximately 66% of irrigation is scheduled using an approved method. However, only about 20% of the corn/sorghum acres were sampled to a depth of 3 feet.

Management Zone 6 includes the following townships in Hamilton County, T9N-R5W (Farmers Valley), and T10N-R5W (Beaver) and the following townships in York County; T9N-R3W (Hays), T9N-R4W (Henderson), T10N-R3W (Baker) and T10N-R4W (Brown).

The staff recommends that the Board declare Management Zone 6 a “Phase II Management Area” and authorize the staff to proceed with implementation of Phase II requirements as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 20.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin to declare Management Zone 6 a “Phase II Management Area” and authorize the staff to proceed with implementation of Phase II requirements as required by NRD Rule 5, Chapter 20. The motion was approved.

ITEM 26.  PESTICIDE ANALYSIS EQUIPMENT.

The Nebraska Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with NARD and the Nebraska Department of Environmental Quality, was able to obtain grant funding from EPA for ten sets of laboratory equipment needed to test for pesticides in ground water. The project is called the Nebraska Cooperative Pesticide Immunoassay Analysis Project. This is part of NDA’s pesticide management planning program and the NDEQ statewide ground water quality monitoring plan.
The District has been asked to house one set of this equipment and enter into an agreement to collect ground water samples and test them for the commonly used pesticides: acetochlor, alachlor, atrazine and metloachlor. The Little Blue NRD will also be using the equipment to do analysis on samples collected by the NRD. The goal is to collect 98 samples in the Upper Big Blue NRD and 58 samples in the Little Blue NRD in 2004.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Hansen to enter into an agreement 18-06-100 with the Nebraska Department of Agriculture for the housing and use for pesticide testing equipment for the Nebraska Cooperative Pesticide Immunoassay Analysis Project. The motion was approved.

ITEM 27. SPRING 2004 GROUND WATER LEVELS.

The staff measured 514 wells. The average ground water level change from the Spring of 2003 was -2.57 feet. The district ground water level is 1.14 feet above the reporting trigger and 4.14 feet above the allocation trigger.

ITEM 28. ARTESIAN WELLS.

Staff made a slide presentation for the Water Committee about artesian wells in the Beaver Crossing area. Rod has been working with the Water Well Licencing Board and the Health and Human Services staff to address what could be done to stop the uncontrolled discharge from several artesian wells in the Beaver Crossing area. Some of these wells are discharging at rates as high as 700 g.p.m. during the winter and spring. While some discharge overland, others have been constructed with a buried pipeline that discharges to the West Fork of the Big Blue River or a nearby tributary. The issues that the licencing board and the NRD may need to address include: back flow of flood waters into the aquifer, waste of ground water, what discharge counts toward allocation and how these wells can be properly abandoned.

ITEM 29. FLOW METER COST-SHARE DISCUSSION.

The Water Committee discussed the merits of flow meter cost-share and a potential Environment Trust grant application. This will be discussed again at the June Water Committee meeting.

Turnbull and DeBuhr reviewed the grant proposal with the Board. The intent would be to cost share on one meter per landowner for the life of the program. Landowners who have already received cost share for a meter under the NRD/NSWCP land treatment program would not be eligible. If meters are required under our regulations, for example on new or replacement wells, cost share under this program would not be available.

Assuming 3,000 meters were eligible for cost share the total cost of the program would be $2,442,000. The cooperator share would be 50 percent, or $1,221,000. The remaining 50 percent would be split 60/40 with the Environmental Trust Fund share being $732,600 and the NRD share being $488,400. This would be a three-year program, with the expense spread out over parts of four fiscal years. That would mean the NRD would have to request additional tax funds for the next budget year of about $27,000. We would need to raise an additional $162,800 for each of the following two years and the last year would require an additional $135,667.

Turnbull reviewed the financial report for the period April 1, 2004 through April 30, 2004 that we had distributed. It was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Hansen to accept the financial report for April 2004 as presented, and approve payments of the accounts payable, and publish the expenditures. The motion was approved.

The NRD has been billed $1,000 by the University of Nebraska High Plains Climate Center for operation and maintenance for the York weather station located at Recharge Lake for the period of July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004. This is in accordance with the agreement the District has with the High Plains Climate Center.

It was moved by Nuss and seconded by Teegerstrom to approve payment of $1,000.00 to the Nebraska High Plains Climate Center for operation and maintenance for the York weather station located at Recharge Lake for the period of July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004. The motion was approved.

ITEM 19. FLOW METER COST-SHARE PROGRAM.

The committee reviewed a draft flow meter cost-share program and possible grant funding proposal. The program would cost-share one water meter per person per fiscal year. This would be subject to the restrictions listed in the program description including the availability of funds. The program would be funded by a Nebraska Environmental Trust Grant which the District would apply for in September. If approved, the funding would be available in April 2005. The total grant request would be for 1.5 million dollars over three years. Because of the timing, the grant funding would fall into four of the District’s fiscal years. In addition, the District would fund $70,000 cost-share for FY2005. Of these funds, $52,500 would be available beginning July 1, 2004. The remainder would be held as matching funds, should the grant be approved. The grant application would include $70,000 of District funds annually for FY2006 and FY2007, with $52,500 in FY2008.

The recommendation from the Committee is to adopt the Flow Meter Cost-share Program with an effective date of July 1, 2004 and include $5,000 of District funds annually during the four fiscal years of the grant, for total District funds of $20,000. Further, to authorize the staff to prepare a grant application to the Nebraska Environmental Trust requesting 1.5 million dollars for funding of this program.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Friesen to adopt the Flow Meter Cost-share Program with an effective date of July 1, 2004 and include $5,000 of District funds annually during the four fiscal years of the grant, for total District funds of $20,000. Further, to authorize the staff to prepare an application to the Nebraska Environmental Trust Grant requesting 1.5 million dollars for funding of this program. The motion was approved.

Joseph reported that the Executive Committee met on June 10, 2004 and presented the committee’s report.

ITEM 21. DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES NEW DEPLETIONS AGREEMENT FUNDING.

Turnbull reviewed a proposed agreement with the Department of Natural Resources concerning funding for startup costs of administering the New Depletions Plan in the Platte River Basin. The proposal from Department of Natural Resources offers financial assistance to the NRD to collect and verify data, and write draft rules and regulations. The information and regulations then can be used to carry out the proposed New Depletions Plan as part of Nebraska’s agreement to prevent or offset the impacts of new uses of water on the stream flows of the Platte River needed for the endangered species.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Brown to approve and enter into the agreement with the Department of Natural Resources for funding assistance with the New Depletions Plan. The motion was approved.

ITEM 22. TECHNICAL SERVICE PROVIDER REQUEST FROM NRCS.

Brian Euse was present at the Executive Committee meeting to explain his request for Technical Service Provider (TSP) funding to the committee. The time spent by the field office clerks on USDA farm bill programs is valued at $20,739. The NRCS proposes that if the District will hire temporary technical help for the field offices to do farm bill work, such as EQIP application design, the NRCS will reimburse the District for the staff costs up to $20,739. The amount is equal to the field office clerk costs for the same programs. The agreement would only be through December 31, 2004.

The committee directed staff to work with the NRCS to draft a Technical Service Provider agreement for the balance of calendar year 2004, and to bring the draft to the committee for further consideration.

ITEM 23. FISCAL YEAR 2005 SALARIES.

Turnbull reviewed the Salary Classifications & Salary Survey July 2004 report with the committee. A recommended salary schedule was included in the report. Based on this information Turnbull recommends that all but two Upper Big Blue NRD job classifications increase from 1% to 4%, depending on the job market, and one change by 10% because of increased job responsibilities. The salary schedule sets the minimum, midpoint, and maximum for each position. Individual salaries and wages then need to be within those limits.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Dickinson to approve the changes in the midpoint of the salary schedules as listed to stay in line with the job market, and that such changes and adjusted salary schedules be effective on July 1, 2004. The motion was approved.

In fiscal year 2004 the District held $20,000 in the Land Treatment Program for the planting of trees and windbreak renovations until March 30 at which time any unspent funds were made available for the other land treatment practices. The total spent for tree planting and windbreak renovation was $19,034.96. The District is only allowed to do 10 windbreak renovations per year with NSWCP funds. The District has three cooperators interested in doing a windbreak renovation for FY2005. NRD funds can be used for additional renovation projects.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Bruns that the Upper Big Blue NRD Board of Directors set aside $20,000 for cost-sharing on windbreak planting, field windbreaks and windbreak renovations. If the monies are not spent as designated by March 30, 2005, then the monies are available for other cost-share practices. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12.  PROPOSED RULES CHANGE FOR PIONEERS TRAILS RECREATION AREA.

The Rules and Regulations for Pioneer Trails Recreation Area have been in effect since March 1, 1987. Some years ago a home was moved in near the recreation area, but the dwelling was located more than 200 yards from the District’s property line and staff felt it was not necessary to make any rule changes at that time. The homeowner, Tom Kell, has complained to the County Sheriff’s office and the District about individuals target shooting with high-powered rifles in the area where hunting is permitted.

This spring another individual constructed a garage within 200-yards of the District’s property line and has put in a foundation for a house. This will affect the area currently open to hunting in the SW 1/4 of Section 26, Township 11 North, Range 6 West of the 6th P.M., Hamilton County, Nebraska. According to State Statute 37-526 no hunting is to be allowed within a 200-yard limit of a dwelling or feed yard.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Moore that the District staff rewrite the necessary Rules and Regulations in Chapter 32 pertaining to the Pioneer Trails Recreation Area located in the NW 1/4 of Section 35 & SW 1/4 of Section 26, Township 11 North, Range 6 West of the 6th P.M., Hamilton County, NE and bring this back to the Projects and Programs Committee for review and approval at the August Committee meeting. The motion was approved.

The District’s share of cost would be 30% of actual cost not to exceed $37,500.

Staff presented an Interlocal Agreement for Committee consideration. The Agreement will be presented to the SECC Board in August. Staff recommends that the Agreement be approved.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Luebbe that the Interlocal Agreement between the Upper Big Blue NRD and Southeast Community College, authorizing the District and College to design and construct drainage improvements at the Southeast Community College campus in Milford, be approved. for the Water Department. The general specifications are for a new 2-wheel drive, extended cab pickup with an automatic transmission and a V-8 engine with 230 hp or greater. There is no

ITEM 18.  TECHNICAL SERVICE PROVIDER AGREEMENT.

Turnbull reviewed the Technical Service Provider (TSP) proposed agreement with the Executive Committee. The time spent by the field office clerks on USDA farm bill programs has a value of $20,739. The NRCS proposes that if the District will hire temporary technical help for the field offices to do farm bill work, such as EQIP application design, the NRCS will reimburse the District for the staff costs up to $20,007. The amount is equal to the field office clerk costs for the same programs. The agreement would only be through December 31, 2004. Mark Nowack, NRCS, was present to answer questions.

The committee requested that any amendment to the agreement be mutually agreed on, and that the agreement clearly state that it is in effect until December 31, 2004.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Regier that the Upper Big Blue NRD enter into the Contribution Agreement with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service to provide technical assistance to the NRCS, provided that C, 1, is amended to read December 31, 2004, and that C, 3, is amended to mean that the agreement may be amended by mutual agreement.

Turnbull advised the board that he had spoken with the NRCS since the committee meeting about the two conditions included in the motion, which were to change the date from September 30, 2004 to December 31, 2004 and try to reword the agreement to state that any amendments are by mutual agreement of both parties. The State NRCS Office checked with Washington regarding the requested amendments, but they were unwilling to make changes to the agreement.

The Committee and Board members’ concern was that the District may not get reimbursed for expenses incurred after the September deadline, even though we have verbal assurance that this will not happen. Bryan Euse provided Turnbull with a document dated April 19, 2004, signed by Steve Chick, which stated in part that “The 2004 agreements will be scheduled to end September 30, 2004, but all work should be finalized by December 31.”

Turnbull recommended that the Board approve the agreement as presented, and that the District make it known that no work will be authorized by the NRD after the September 30, 2004 deadline.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Austin to amend the motion to strike “provided that C, 1, is amended to read December 31, 2004, and that C, 3, is amended to mean that the agreement may be amended by mutual agreement.” The amendment carried.

Moore asked that because the question had been raised by Teegerstrom, and the motion takes a 75% vote of the board to pass, that the matter be held over.

ITEM 6. OPEN FY 05 BUDGET HEARING.

Chairman Houdersheldt opened the Fiscal Year 2005 Budget Hearing at 7:34 p.m. Houdersheldt advised those present that the Notice of Budget Hearing and Budget Summary was published in the York News-Times on August 7, 2004 as required by State Statute Sections 13-501 to 13-512. At that time he asked the General Manager, John Turnbull, to review the proposed FY 05 Budget.

Turnbull reviewed a summary of the proposed budget. He talked about the major changes in the General Fund from FY 04 to FY 05. This year General Fund operating expenses are $1,387,176 compared to $1,309,982 last year, which is an increase of $77,194. Proposed expenditures for capital items not exempt from the lid, such as machinery and equipment, vehicles and office equipment, total $115,750 compared to $19,300 last year. This is an increase of $96,450, $70,000 of which is budgeted under autos and trucks for three new vehicles.

Under capital items exempt from the lid, there is no transfer to Sinking Fund budgeted for this year, which is a decrease of $50,000 compared to last year. Project construction costs are down $41,200; building improvements are down $14,500; intergovernment cost share is down $422,968 and wildlife habitat cost share is down $1,700. The large decrease in intergovernment cost share funds is because of the completion of the Plum Creek Trail project at Seward. This year we have created a new line item to fund cost share on water meters in the amount of $130,000 under a grant from the Environmental Trust Fund. Since this is a new program, it is an increase over last year. The overall change from last year in capital items exempt from the lid is a decrease of $400,368. The grand total of all these expenses was $2,636,070 last year. The total proposed this year is $2,409,346. This is a decrease of $226,724 or 8.6 percent from FY 04.

The Districts’s net cash assets are $87,917 less than last year. Other receipts, such as state and federal grants, state aid, income from cities and counties are down $277,681 from last year. The overall total receipts and net cash assets are down $365,598 or a total of 25.6 percent. That’s a 25.6 percent drop in revenue compared to an 8.6 percent decrease in expenses. That results in a request for property tax of $1,424,939 for the coming year, which is an increase of $147,207.
Turnbull showed the board a summary of the same expenses and revenues broken down by individual departments.

In the Sinking Fund for the Kezan Creek dam we expect to have a total of $796,610 on hand by the end of the fiscal year, which is an increase of $21,452 from one year ago. Sinking funds for Project O & M are expected to be $109,623 and Water Quality Education funds are projected to be $42,728. The overall budgeted increase in the Sinking Fund as a result of interest earnings is $25,040.

Turnbull went over the consolidated figures for the General and Sinking Funds as well as the budget lid information.

The Chairman asked if anyone present had any questions. There were none.

The Hamilton County Sheriff, Kirk Handrup, has contacted the District a number of times about the problems that the adjacent landowners are having with allowing hunting and target shooting at Pioneer Trails Recreation Area.

According to the State Statute 37-526 - Wild Mammal or Wild Bird; Hunt, Take, Trap or Pursue: Unlawful in Certain Areas.
“It shall be unlawful to hunt, kill, take, trap, or pursue or to attempt to hunt, kill, trap, or pursue any form of wild mammal or wild bird within a two-hundred-yard radius of an inhabited dwelling or livestock feedlot, or to trap within a two-hundred-yard radius of any passage used by livestock to pass under any highway, road, or bridge; PROVIDED that this section shall not prohibit any owner, tenant, or operator or their guests from hunting, killing, taking, trapping, or pursuing any form of wild mammal or wild bird within such radius if the area is under their ownership or control. This section shall not prohibit duly authorized personnel of any county, city, or village health or animal control department from trapping with a humane live box trap or pursuing any form of wild mammal or wild bird when conducting such activities within the scope of the authorization, within such radius if the area is under the jurisdiction of the county, city, or village.”

ITEM 7.  FISCAL YEAR 2005 PROPERTY TAX REQUEST HEARING.

Joseph opened the fiscal year 2005 Property Tax Request Hearing at 7:37 p.m. He informed those present that notice of this hearing was published in the York News-Times on August 30, 2004 as required by law. The purpose is to hear support, opposition, criticism, suggestions or observations of taxpayers relating to setting the final tax request at a different amount than the prior year tax request.

Turnbull explained that every year the district sets a recommended tax rate and submits it to the York County Clerk who verifies the information and certifies the tax levy to be collected by all nine counties. The Upper Big Blue NRD’s fiscal year 2005 budget has a property tax request of $1,424,938.71. The final valuations for the district total $4,967,450,425. Last year’s tax request was $1,277,733.15 with a tax rate of 0.026459. The current year’s property tax rate would be 0.025722 to generate $1,277,733.15. The property tax rate needs to be 0.028686 to generate the $1,424,938.71 to fund the FY 2005 budget. Turnbull recommended the board adopt the following resolution to set the tax request for FY 2005.

Resolution
Whereas the FY 2005 Budget for the Upper Big Blue NRD, as adopted by this board of directors on August 19, 2004, has a property tax requirement of $1,424,938.71;

Whereas the final total valuation of the NRD is $4,967,450,425;

Whereas the FY 2004 Budget (prior year) required a tax request of $1,277,733.15 and a property tax rate of $0.026459;

Whereas the FY 2005 (current year) property tax rate would be $0.025722 to generate $1,277,733.15;

Therefore be it resolved by this Board of Directors on September 16, 2004, to set the FY 2005 tax request at $1,424,938.71 for the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District which will require a property tax rate of $0.028686.

ITEM 18.  AUTHORIZATION TO PURCHASE COMPUTER SERVER.

Rod DeBuhr explained the need for a computer server. The District computers are on a peer to peer network which means each computer stands alone, but can share files through a common network. File sharing, especially in the Water Department database, has become cumbersome under this system. Hamilton Information Systems has recommended that the District go to a server system for some time. A server system will allow files to be housed on the file server without tying up computer processor speed on any individual workstation. The server will also provide an improved backup system. Because of the installation requirements of the server and its software, the staff recommends that the server be purchased from Hamilton Information Systems, because they are familiar with the current District computers and network.

The quote for the server and necessary hardware and software is $4,941.00 plus an estimate of $1,088.00 for installation. The total estimated cost for the server and setup is $6,029.00.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Bruns to approve purchase of a computer server, necessary hardware and software for an estimated installed cost of $6,029.00 from Hamilton Information Systems of Aurora, Nebraska. The motion was approved.

ITEM 21. STUDY PROPOSAL OF IMPACTS OF CONVERTING FROM CONVENTIONAL IRRIGATION TO CENTER PIVOT ON NITRATE LOADING.

Roy Spalding of the UNL Water Center made a presentation on a study proposal to quantify the impacts of conversion to center pivots and other management practices on the loading and movement of nitrates in the unsaturated zone. A grant application for this study will be submitted to the USDA Cooperative State Research, Education and Extension Service. The total cost of the three-year study is $499,927.

The staff feels this type of study is needed to improve the understanding of how changes in irrigation and tillage practices are impacting nitrate loading in fine textured soils of this area. Roy believes that District support will enhance chances of getting the grant approved.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Hansen to authorize the staff to submit a letter of support for the grant application, indicating that the District will also assist in finding farmers willing to participate, and further, to support the study effort financially by an amount up to $40,000 over the three-year study period, if the USDA grant is approved.

American Soil Technologies, Inc. and the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension have submitted a proposal for grant consideration by the Nebraska Environmental Trust to demonstrate the benefits of a polymer soil amendment that claims to significantly reduce nitrate leaching, irrigation requirements and improve yield potential. Ron Salestrom, American Soil Technologies representative, has requested the District write a letter indicating a willingness to participate in the project by assisting in finding a cooperator in the Upper Big Blue NRD if the grant is approved.

It was moved by Moore and seconded by Brown to authorize the staff to submit a letter of participation for the polymer irrigation demonstration proposal. The motion was approved.

ITEM 23. PUBLIC HEARING ON PROPOSED CHANGES TO RULE 6.

Joseph opened the public hearing at 8:37 p.m. He informed those present that notice of this public hearing was published in the Aurora News-Register on September 1, 2004 and the York News-Times and Banner-Press in David City on September 2, 2004. The purpose of the hearing is to revise the park regulations at Pioneer Trails Recreation Area in Aurora, Nebraska and at Oxbow Trails Reservoir in Ulysses, Nebraska.

Ken Feather, Parks, Forestry and Wildlife Department Manager for the District reviewed the proposed changes to the regulations.

He noted that a correction in the legal description in Chapter 32 - Pioneer Trails Recreation Area Special Regulations needed to be made. Paragraph 02 should read “The Pioneer Trails Recreation Area located in the NW 1/4 of Section 35 and the SW 1/4 of Section 26, Township 11 North, Range 6 West of the 6th P.M. in Hamilton County, Nebraska, as shown on the attached map (Appendix B of Rule 6), is hereby designated as a public use area.”

Also in Chapter 32, Paragraph 05 Prohibited Activities, he proposed that the following additions be made.

05.08 Discharging center-fire and rim-fire rifles, handguns and muzzleloading firearms are prohibited unless a special trapping permit is issued by the District.
05.09 Hunting is prohibited on the South 250 feet on the lands located in the SW 1/4 of said Section 26 designated for public use at Pioneer Trails Recreation Area.

In Chapter 35 - Oxbow Trail Reservoir and Associated Recreation Area Special Regulations, Paragraph 02 Permitted Activities, he proposed that the following subparagraph be added.
02.08 Trapping of furbearers will be allowed at Oxbow Trail Reservoir during the allowable hunting and trapping season as setup by the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission, and in accordance with Chapter 13 of these regulations.

Joseph asked if anyone from the public wished to comment on the proposed changes.

Tom Kell, a landowner who lives near the Pioneer Trail Recreation Area, addressed the board. He told the board that he has lived near the recreation area for about 7 years. On numerous occasions individuals have practiced targeting shooting from the parking area near his home. He said that his home is on the other side of a slight rise in the terrain, and that bullets have ricocheted off the hill and passed near his head. He has been contacting the sheriff to get the shooting to stop. He told the board that he hunts and target shoots himself and is not opposed to it, but feels the area is not suitable for these types of activities, and they should be prohibited near the homes in the area.

Ken Regier asked Mr. Kell if the proposed changes to the rules would address his concerns. He said that they would.

Turnbull told the board that the NRD had received three letters requesting that the regulations be changed to prohibit target shooting with high-powered rifles in certain areas around the Pioneer Trail Recreation Area. The letters were from Gene W. Hansen, Mark Cleveland and Kirk Handrup, Hamilton County Sheriff. Turnbull read the letters and instructed that they be made a part of the hearing record.

It was moved by Volkmer and seconded by Buller to accept the financial report for August 2004 as presented, and approve payments of the accounts payable, and publish the expenditures. ITEM 10. CITY OF SUTTON HIKING & BIKING TRAIL.

Brian Beeman, City Administrator, and Todd Nuss, member of the Parks Committee, attended the committee meeting. They are asking for assistance in financing a biking and hiking trail that will connect to an existing .4 mile trail and extend another half a mile to the Sutton Public Schools. The current trail starts on the north end of Sutton’s business district and goes through their city park. It is ten feet wide and is made of concrete which is also being proposed for the new trail. The new School Creek Trail would be constructed partially through a flood plain and along the back portion of a subdivision. There is a levee through most of the flood plain that the trail would be constructed on. This would keep most of the trail out of the immediate flood plain and also cut down on the amount of earthwork. The trail would proceed along a creek to an existing bridge from an abandoned golf course.

The total estimated cost for the construction of the School Creek Trail is $189,749. The City of Sutton has applied for Transportation Enhancement Funding for this project. If accepted, they will pay 80% of the total cost leaving the City with the remaining 20%. The City has also applied for Trail Development Assistance from the Nebraska Game and Parks which will pay for 50% of the City’s 20%. If all the funding goes through, the City of Sutton would have to come up with $18,975. If the TDA fails to be approved, the City will have to finance $37,950. The monies that would go to fund this project would come out of the FY 2006 budget.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Hansen that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund the Hiking and Biking Project for the City of Sutton in the amount of 25% of the local share not to exceed $10,000. The motion was approved.

ITEM 11.  VILLAGE OF CORDOVA PARKS & RECREATION PROGRAM - TREE PLANTING AT ZASTROW CEMETERY.

LeRoy Sternberg and Bob Scott representing the Village of Cordova were present at the committee meeting to present their tree planting project at Zastrow Cemetery. The Village of Cordova owns and is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the Zastrow Cemetery. They have removed some of the old and dying trees and want to replace them with better species of trees, such as Columnar Blue Spruce, Serbian Spruce, Cleveland Pear, Red Chokeberry, Autumn Purple Ash and Dwarf Alberta Spruce.

The total estimated cost is $3,100.00 for materials. The District policy under the Parks & Recreation Program is to fund up to 25% of the local share of the estimated cost or actual cost, whichever is less.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Bruns that the Upper Big Blue Natural Resources District fund the planting of the trees and shrubs at Zastrow Cemetery located east of Cordova at the rate of 25% of the project cost, not to exceed $775.00. The motion was approved.

The NRD will receive the funds through the Pheasants Forever Chapter before making payment to the landowner. The District will plant the trees and shrubs at no cost to the landowner.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Brown that the Upper Big Blue NRD accept the Corners for Wildlife contract submitted by Chad Klute for a 5-year period with an annual payment of $397.50/year and enter into said agreement. The motion was approved.

ITEM 12.  REPAYMENT OF FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION PROJECTS ADMINISTRATIVE FEES.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Nebraska Emergency Management Agency (NEMA) claims that the District was reimbursed for administrative fees in the amount of $4,508 more that the District was eligible for on the Sutton and Plum Creek Flood Hazard Mitigation Projects. The administrative fee paid to the District was initially computed on the cost of each project separately; however, FEMA says the fee should have been computed on the total cost for both projects since both projects were funded under the same disaster declaration. A summary sheet, attached to these minutes, shows the administrative fee computed both ways.
Turnbull and Bitner met with NEMA’s Assistant Director, Al Berndt, to request that FEMA reconsider their decision, and that the Sutton and Plum Creek projects be considered separately. The FEMA Regional Director, Dick Hainje, responded that the two projects cannot be considered separately for the purpose of calculating the administrative fee since the Hazard Mitigation Program requires administrative fees to be calculated “...based on the total of net eligible costs under the name of the Sub-grantee identified on the project application.”

Staff recommends that no legal appeal be made because of the cost and the fact that in all likelihood the outcome will be the same, and further recommends repayment of $4,508 to NEMA.

It was moved by Regier and seconded by Austin that the District reimburse $4,508 to NEMA for a portion of administrative fees paid to the District by NEMA, under FEMA Disaster Number 998-DR-NE, for Flood Hazard Mitigation Project 0003, Sutton levees, and Project 0013, Plum Creek Flood Plain Buyout, in accordance with FEMA Region 7’s October 5, 2004 determination. The motion was approved.

ITEM 17. SIEMENS SITRANS F MAG 8000 IRRIGATION FLOWMETER.

Terry Pesek, of Associated Technologies explained the Mag 8000 flowmeter. This meter measures flow by creating an electromagnetic field and measuring the distortions created by the rate of water flow. The meter is highly accurate (+-0.25%) in most applications. There are no moving parts and the manufacturer claims a six-year battery life. The installation distance requirements are less than a propeller flowmeter following a 90-degree elbow. The meter is more expensive than the other approved flowmeters ($2,437.00 list price for an 8" meter). The staff feels it would provide an alternative to major re-plumbing in some installations.

It was moved by Brown and seconded by Austin that the District approve the Siemens Sitrans F Mag 8000 irrigation flowmeter for use in the District ground water quantity management area. The motion was approved.

ITEM 19. GRANT FOR RIVER RUN INTERACTIVE DISPLAY.

Water for the West began in 2002 to celebrate the 100 years of accomplishments of the Bureau of Reclamation and to establish a foundation for continuing educational activities on the value and benefits of the water infrastructure of the West.

The grant application filed is for an interactive room size display that takes participants on a tour of a river. Along the way, participants are to solve a series of challenges to keep the river in balance, as well as, consider the dynamics of water depletion, drought, critical wildlife habitat, municipal and agricultural uses of water and hydroelectric power generation. The grant request is for $15,417. The District contribution will be staff time, no cash. The grant announcement will be in mid December.

The grant application deadline was October 15 so Snell wrote and submitted the application with Turnbull’s approval. The committee was asked to approve the application.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Regier to approve of the grant request of $15,417.56 to Water for the West for an interactive educational exhibit. The motion was approved.

The bill for the computer server is the same as the quote, $4,941.00. The installation labor is higher than estimated, $1,770.00 versus the estimated cost of $1,088.00.

ITEM 21. PICKUP BID FOR FORESTRY DEPARTMENT.

The Forestry Department budgeted for a new pickup in FY 2005. Feather recommends that the 91 Ford Ranger pickup be replaced. It has 149,000 miles on it. The general specifications are for a new two wheel drive, extended cab pickup with an automatic transmission and a V-8 engine with 230 hp or greater, with trade in of the 91 Ford Ranger. The bid will be advertised in the York paper and letters sent out to dealers within the NRD. The bid opening date is planned for December 6, 2004.

It was moved by Bruns and seconded by Brown to authorize the staff to request bids with trade in of the 91 Ford Ranger pickup for a 2004 or 2005 half-ton, two-wheel drive extended cab pickup with a V-8 engine with 230 hp or greater, and an automatic transmission. The motion was approved.

ITEM 25. AMENDMENT TO TECHNICAL SERVICE PROVIDER AGREEMENT.

The District’s Contribution Agreement with the NRCS concerning Technical Service Providers expires on December 31, 2004. The two employees were hired with the understanding that their work would terminate on that date. The District Conservationist, Bryan Euse, would like to continue that agreement. An amendment drafted by the NRCS State Office has been submitted to the District. The amendment is “The performance time for this agreement is extended to March 31, 2005. All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.”

The Nebraska Association of Resources Districts (NARD) is negotiating an agreement with the NRCS to handle all the Technical Service Provider Agreements with all the NRDs as a block grant. If that agreement and the necessary agreements between the NRDs and the NARD are finalized then the amendment to this District’s arrangement with the NRCS will be superceded.

Turnbull recommends that the Upper Big Blue NRD enter into the amendment with the NRCS.

It was moved by Joseph and seconded by Austin to approve Amendment #2 to the Contribution Agreement between the Upper Big Blue NRD and the USDA, Natural Resources Conservation Service. The motion was approved.
